Lehman Township

O. H. AURAND, Supt.

On Wednesday night, March 6, 1929 our girls varsity played the scrub boys. The girls were victorious by a score 15-29. The ex-high boys who attended the game made a team which they named the "Slat-ington All-Stars." The Varsity defeated this team, by a close score.

Friday night, March 8, 1929 the boys varsity clashed with the Lehigh Valley Coal Company. It was a very interesting game and at the first half the Lehigh boys were in the lead. However,

Lehman played up in the latter part of the game and when the final whistle blew the score was a tie 22-22. Of course, this was a great encouragement to our team and they won the game after an extra quarter was played by the score 26-22. Our boys were greatly pleased with this victory.

The same night the Lehman girls met the Dallas Township girls and came out victorious, by a score 16-3.

Monday night, March 11, 1929, we again played with the Dallas Township teams. Both Lehman teams won. The boys by score of 22-14. The girls' score 19-6.

The audience also witnessed an interesting game between the Dallas A. C. and the Lehman A. C. assisted by Coach Carey and Bill Davis, Lehman showed up well in this game and won by a score of 28-16.

The Dallas and Lehman Scrubs also played, score unknown. The second issue of the Senior paper, "The Last Minute" was published on Wednesday. It showed a vast improvement over the first issue. Pupils are showing great interest in each issue.

Charlotte Parish, an unfortunate student of the Junior High School, fractured her arm just above the wrist. She fell on Monday of this week in the gymnasium and in an effort to catch herself she fractured her arm. She was taken to Dr. Brown's office to get the bone set and was then taken to a hospital where ex-Rays were taken.

Due to the death of his nephew, Mr. Aurand was forced to be absent from school for a few days last week.

Mr. Farley substituted for him.

Mrs. Alice Elston taught the 7th and 8th grades during his absence. The Sophomores and the Primary room each banked 100 per cent. this week. These rooms have persistently ranked at the top in school banking, sharing the position occasionally with the other classes.

Many Shades of Meaning

Skill is not a word that describes any one virtue. Rather it is a word that combines many things. Skill is born of the faithful practice of every worth while effort to make ourselves masters in our particular line of endeavor.—Grit.

We publish with pleasure the cast of our Junior play, "Mammy's Lil' Wild Rose," which will be given sometime soon in Laketon High School.

Our cast is as follows: Daniel French, from the city, Earl Payne; Lester Van, Daniel's chum, John Kuchta; Wade Carver, an unwelcome suitor, James Montross; Orpheus Jackson, an ancient Romeo, Carleton Kocher; Old Joe, "Dat's a fac", Emil Swanson; Rose O'May, Mammy's Lil' Wild Rose, Ada Garinger; Mammy Cella, a black treasurer, Dot Kocher; Kester O'May, Rose's maiden aunt, Eula Maketa; Peggy French, Daniel's sister, Lena Kocher, Letty Van, Peggy's chum, Mildred Kocher; Babe Joan, a mountain charmer, Charlotte Anderson; Mrs. Courtname, a lovely woman, Ruth Honeywell.

"The Inseparables"

Josephine (Jo) has big blue eyes, Josephine (Jo) is an all around good sport, Josephine (Jo) is full of pep; Do we like her? Yep!

Dorothy (Dot) is a quiet one, And keeps the gang in cluck; But regardless of her watchfulness, We're always raising Heck!

Violet (Vi) is a good athlete, We always say she can never be beat; She guards the hard and guards the easy; But just the same she's always busy.

Esther (Pest) is rather stout, And we can never make her pout; Sometimes she's quick, while sometimes slow, But nevertheless she likes to go!

Vinita (Pete) is the cut-up, She keeps the gang amused; Her fun is always harmless, And of mean tricks is never accused!

Interesting and True

Thursday evening, March 7, the Laketon varsity met, shook hands with, and defeated the fast De Molay Reserves in a very interesting game on the Laketon floor.

The Laketon boys took the lead early in the game and kept it throughout the game, the final score being 33 to 20, in favor of Laketon.

Vivaver, of Laketon, was high scorer, with five field goals and ten out of thirteen tries from the foul line.

Great American Educator

Elizabeth Palmer Peabody, an American educator, was born at Billerica, Mass., in 1794. She was for a time connected with the school of Amos Bronson Alcott, in Boston, at which she wrote an account entitled "A Record of Mr. Alcott's School," but later she came under the influence of Friedrich Froebel and was one of the most active in introducing the kindergarten system into the United States. The educator died in 1864.

Musical Terms

Allegretto is a diminutive of allegro and as a time indication somewhat slower than the latter, and also faster than andante. Like allegro, it is frequently combined with other words. Examples are allegretto moderato, et cetera, either modifying the pace or describing the character of the music. The word is also used as the name of a movement and in this sense is especially to be often found in the works of Beethoven.

Dallas Borough

HARRY DOHL, Supt.

The High School students are canvassing the town with tickets for "The Picture Girl," the premier offering of the Dallas High School Little Theatre, which will be presented in the new auditorium during anniversary week, Thursday evening, April 18. The play is by Frederick G. Johnson, former resident of Dallas, and has a good reputation.

All the proceeds of the play will be used to buy curtain, draperies, footlights and scenery for the new auditorium. Since the new equipment will be necessary to stage the play, the advance sale of tickets is being made to get money in hand before the order for the equipment is placed. The Little Theatre promoters are highly pleased with the possibilities of the new stage, and contemplate the installation of the best equipment so that Dallas will have a stage second to none in comparable communities. Mr. Bowman, of the High School faculty is in charge of the financial affairs of the production.

A foreigner was working with a group of young men who were playing tricks or someone most of the time. The foreigners turn came, so one day he hung his coat on a fence post while at work. The other fellows took black paint and painted a mules head on the back of his coat. At night when the foreigner came to his coat he called to the other fellows and said: "Say, which one of you fellows wiped your face on my coat."

The teacher told one of the pupils to use, deduct, defense and defeat. The boy said: "Deduct (the Duck) went over defense (the fence) before defeat (the feet)."

World's Smallest Watch On Display At Up-to-Date Luzerne Jewellery Store

What is said to be the smallest watch in the world is now being displayed by Finkelstein's Jewelry Shop, Luzerne's prominent jewelry establishment, at 72 Main Street. It is shown on the wrist of Miss Irene Bordoni, the internationally famous star.

This watch is an exact duplicate of the watch that was presented to Her Majesty, Queen Marie of Roumania, upon her arrival in New York.

The inset shows a close-up of the watch on Miss Bordoni's wrist. She is holding a dime directly above the time-piece to show that the watch is smaller than the coin.

The watch is so tiny that it was impossible to embody the regular winding mechanism found in watches of average size. To wind this small watch, it is necessary to rotate the back of the case which is connected to the mainspring.

Each wheel and part was made by hand. It required six months to complete the watch. Some of the parts are so tiny that it takes more than 88,000 of them to fill an ordinary thimble, yet in spite of its smallness, the watch is an accurate time-keeper.

The case is of platinum, studded with finely cut diamonds. It is valued at $1,000.00. It is being shown through the courtesy of the Bulova Watch Company, Fifth Avenue, New York, who manufactured this remarkable watch.

cial secretary will be at the rear of church both Sunday, March 24th and 31st with his book to give the standing of any who wish to know. The budget was fully covered last year in the canvass and if each subscriber will pay up, every bill can be paid for a report to Conference. The system adopted last year for the people to send their money to the Financial Secretary has worked well and it is hoped no one will wait for him to come and ask them personally for their contribution.

Palm Sunday will be Decision Day in the Sunday School and the efficiency of the teachers will be demonstrated and their loyalty to the church will be gauged by the results of their work that day. Easter Sunday will be observed and in the morning of Easter Sunday, March 31st the minister will be prepared to baptize children both at Dallas and at East Dallas.

Sunday, April 7th will be the last Sunday of the Conference year and Holy Communion will be observed and reception of members.
