Senior Essay By L. T. H. S. Student

Senior Class Ready To Graduate —Students Eager To Tackle Life's Problems

With the approach of the spring of '29 we Seniors realize that soon we are to leave L. T. H. S., the school which has prepared us to meet with and overcome the daily trials and disappointments of the life which we are so soon to enter upon; and realizing that we must soon part at the crossroads, each taking separate ways, our mind goes back in fancy to the beginning of our high school career, and recalls all the events since we were "Verdant Freshies" to the present dignified (?) state of Seniors. We recall the long hours of study, the daily incidents that composed our success as a student, and lastly, the many happy hours spent together, both in the school classroom and at the social affairs of the class.

You who read this may think that we have traveled a path "strewn with roses," but nevertheless, many thorns have been brot' to light among the many "bouquets" which came our way, but WE don't mind, for have not others who have graduated experienced the same draw-backs? And ONE consolation, those who are to graduate in the future years must be Seniors sometime!

But regardless of such minor things, we, as a class, shall always hold the memory of our school days spent at Laketon very sacred, and since we know that parting from the school and our friends must inevitably come, a poem, entitled "At the Crossroads," written by Richard Hovey, comes to our mind:

You to the left and I to the right,
For the ways of men must sever—
It will may be for a day and a night,
Or it will may be forever.
But whether we meet or whether we part
(For our ways are past our knowing)
A pledge from the heart to its fellow-heart

On the ways we all are going!
Here's luck!
For we know not where we are going.

Whether we win or whether we lose
With the hands that life is dealing,
It is not we, or the way we choose,
But the fall of the cards that sealings.
There's a fate in love and a fate in fight,

And the best of us all go under—
And whether we're wrong or whether we're right,
We win, sometimes to our wonder!
Here's luck!

That we may not yet go under!

With a steady swing and an open brow
We have tramped the ways together,
But we're clasping hands at the crossroads now
In the fiends own nite for whether;
And whether we bleed or whether we smile

In the leagues that lie before us,
The ways of life are many a mile
And the dark of fate is o'er us,
Here's luck!

And a cheer for the dark before us!

You to the left and I to the right,
For the ways of men must sever,
And it will may be for a day and a night,
And it will may be forever!
But whether we live or whether we die—
(For the end is past our knowing)
Here's two frank hearts and the open sky,

Be a fair or an ill-wind blowing!
Here's luck!
In the teeth of all winds blowing!

Strength
Like the ancient king who said that he had no garrison stronger than the affection of his people, we in our various positions in life are no stronger than the loyalty of those who are associated with us. If the men who work for you do not really like you, your organization is weak, no matter how well it seems to function for a time. If you do not have loyalty, you do not deserve loyalty. You lack something which attracts it and you cannot expect it

HIGH SCHOOL PAGE

This page is contributed to the interest of all the High Schools served by The Dallas Post. It has the approval and active support of A. P. Cope, county superintendent of schools and each of the five superintendents. It is conducted by these High Schools for three major purposes: to foster, sponsor and exchange High School and Inter-High School activities of the respective schools; to inform the public of this section about matters pertaining to the school life for which their taxes are paid; to develop the literary talents of the student editors of each class of the five schools.

Lake Township Junior Class To Give Play Soon

"Mammy's Little Wild Rose" Is Title of Production Being Coached By Miss Williams

"Mammy's Lil Wild Rose" will be presented by the Juniors of Laketon High in the auditorium sometime around May 17. We are just about ready and "rearin' to go." Babe Joan and Orpheus, and the twins, "Cumberland" and "Cavilier," all prominent members of the Junior Class, are all dolled up for the fair, at which Miss Rose will "strut her stuff" on "Betsy."

Don't miss this play! If you do you'll miss half your life. Under the skilled management of Miss Williams we are all ready to present the best, most humorous comedy-drama of the Sunny South that Lillian Mortimer ever wrote.

Keep it in mind boys, and make a date right now! Bring the family, as this play will make the grouchy man in the world laugh.

A. R. E.—Junior Reporter.

LOYALVILLE SCHOOLS TO GIVE DRAMA TUESDAY —YOUNG PEOPLE TO MEET

The Seventh and Eighth Grades of the Loyalville school will give a drama entitled, "The Last Day at Centre Ridge School," at Sweet Valley Church of Christ Community Hall on this evening, May 11th, 1929. There will be special music.

The Young People's Council of the Dallas District will be held in the Loyalville M. E. Church Wednesday evening, May 15th.

Clifford Borth spent the week-end with his parents at this place.

Gertrude Delkanic spent the week-end with Ruth Delong.

Mrs. Ezora Williams is spending a few days with Cory Allen and family of Alderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Borth, son Kenneth spent Sunday with the latter's parents, of Inlet.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seiple, daughter Ruth and son Elwood, of Kingston, spent Sunday with Leroy Delong and family.

Eat the Catalpa Trees
To be eaten alive is the fate of many of our catalpa trees. Tremendous ravages by the catalpa sphinx—the caterpillars or larvae of one of our somber-hued hawk moths—have stripped their boughs of foliage and left them bare and unsightly, says Nature Magazine. Sometimes the trees die from these severe defoliations, and occasionally entire plantations have been destroyed.

Think Before You Eat
Science has discovered that the gastric juices are influenced by the mental condition of the individual, that food wetted with tears is like poison to the body, that the quality of food is not half so important as the mental condition of the eater.—American Magazine

Faith
Faith in your own power and confidence in your own ability are essential to this thing we call success. But keep an ear close to the door of knowledge, and don't forget that no man graduates from the school of experiences

Girls chorus—Margaret Jones, Jennie Stark, Alice Button, Pendered Keller, Dorothy Goodman, Eleanor Warmouth, Elinor Staub, Dorothy Dawkins, Ida Oberst, Lillian Weidner, Ellalce Shoemaker, Letha Gordon, June Palmer, Elinor Rockwell.

Boy's chorus—Keneth Appleton, Earl Crop, Richard Prynn, John Rice, Melvin Hewitt, Robert Lohmann, Arnold Cease, Elwood Nelson, Elwood Travis, Richard Mathers, Mertin Coolbaugh, Almon Woolbert.

The operetta was well attended and Mrs. Taylor and members of the cast were the recipients of many congratulations. Mrs. Taylor received a beautiful bouquet on Tuesday evening.

Bird House Contest
In the 10 years or under group, Harry Decker, of Trucksville, won first prize in the Mt. Greenwood Kiwanis Bird House contest. Harry built a wren house. Second prize went to Allan Oehenhouse, age 10 of Shavertown. Allen built a robin house. Honorable mention was given to Helen Lawson, of Trucksville.

In the 11 to 15-year group, first prize went to Wilbur Gimmel, of Mt. Greenwood. Wilbur is 11 years old and built a house for a bluebird. The second prize was awarded to Sheldon Williams of Trucksville.

Sheldon is 11 years old and built a double house for wrens.

Attend Funeral
The Girl Scouts of the school attended the funeral of little Ruth Jackson on Tuesday afternoon. Ruth was a member of the Fourth grade in Miss Carle's room. She will be missed greatly by her classmates.

K. T. H. S. News
The Freshman Home-Making Girls held a party Thursday evening in the school. The color scheme for the decorations was green and white. Refreshments were served to the following: Miss Smiley, Miss Robinson, Alberta Lyne, Edna Billings, Ruth Bennett, Elinor Rockwell, Dorothy Goodwin, Dorothy Hay, Florence Richards, Eleanor Staub, Anna Stencil and Elda Dymond.

Come Again, Ben
It was old Ben Franklin who arguing the policy of letting others talk as "the wit of conversation," said, "He who goes out of your company pleased with his own facetiousness and ingenuity will the sooner come into it again." And that's one point on which we never agree with Franklin. When anyone monopolizes conversation we don't want him to come back into our company again

The Remedy
Nine-year-old Charles was taking clarinet lessons, and his dotting mother was relating his progress to a group of friends. "Charles is getting along wonderfully," she proclaimed. "We are beginning to play duets for the clarinet and piano, now, and he is so pleased. They do sound a little bit queer sometimes, but I'm going to have the piano tuned."

Albumen Has Many Uses
Albumen, or white of egg, is used in the manufacturing of leather, ink paper, camera plates and films, and cañeo.
