Quarterly Conference
The first quarterly meeting of the conference year of the M. E. Church was held on Monday evening with Dr. Lott, district superintendent, presiding. Dr. Lott stressed eight points which compose his program for the churches for the next five years.

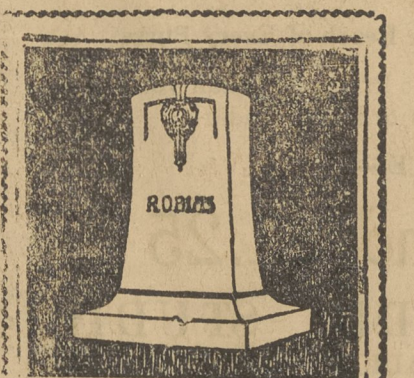

A committee headed by R. H. Rood met after the conference to make definite arrangements for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the dedication of the present church building. The date of the celebration will be June 14, with programs in both morning and evening. It was decided that all former ministers now living who had served during the last forty years, together with Bishop Richardson and Dr. Lott, be invited.

The evening program will consist of vocal solos, congregational singing, short addresses by the ministers and a brief organ recital. Supper will be served by the Ladies' Aid Society.
