-Noxen-

The alumni banquet, sponsored by the Junior class of the high school, proved a big success. There were about 125 present and many former students and teachers from outlying towns were present. C. A. Boston, cashier of at Tanners Bank, acted as toastmaster and he certainly put enthusiasm in the evening. Miss Letha Jones acted as song leader and also sang a solo. Edward Williams with his violin and with Mrs. Leslie Loveland at the piano gave a selection which brought him back for the second time. Billy Keiper, with his mouth organ, and Mrs. Albert Ruff at the piano, gave two old-time pieces that caused some of the old-time Methodists to keep time with their feet. Miss Parson of Trucksville, a 11-year-old girl, gave a reading which was considered excellent. One of Prof. Ernest Wood's students gave an excellent piano selection.

School Superintendent John Morgan, speaker of the evening, brought forward much good advice for the students and in such a manner that he held the crowd in attention to the last word. Several of the students and teachers were called upon for remarks and all responded with much credit to themselves.

TUNKHANNOCK MAN MENTIONED FEDERAL JUDGE POSSIBILITY

Attorney Edward B. Farr Looked Upon As Compromise Candidate for Important Office

Regarding the appointment of a Federal court judge for the Middle District, the Tunkhannock New Age and Republican has the following to say this week:

"Interest increases rather than diminishes in the question as to who will be appointed federal judge for the Middle District of Pennsylvania. Such judges are appointed by the President upon nomination by the Attorney General. Shortly after the act was passed providing for an additional judge in this district, Senator David B. Reed recommended the nomination of Judge Albert L. Watson, of Scranton, to Attorney General Mitchell. Judge Watson was backed by Mrs. Worthington Scranton, who has much influence in this part of the State. For some reason Attorney General Mitchell has held up the nomination of Judge Watson, and other men are being considered for the position, among them Attorney Edward B. Farr of Tunkhannock.

"It is known that men have been sent here to investigate the ability and fitness of Mr. Farr, and have gone away much impressed with his availability as a compromise candidate. Though he has not put himself forward in the matter at all, he has the backing of prominent influential men, not only in this county, but from other parts of the State.

He has been in law practice since 1903 and his business has steadily increased so that now he has a larger practice than any other lawyer in Wyoming county ever enjoyed. He was elected district attorney for three terms in succession, but resigned during the third term because the duties of the office compelled him to neglect some of his other affairs. He has tried many important cases with signal success and has also had practice in the Superior and Supreme Courts.

"He was postmaster eight years, during which he secured a new and more commodious postoffice building. The first village delivery of mail in the United States of established during his regime, as well as several rural mail routes. He is attorney for several banks, for the Lehigh and D. L. W. railroads. All these things bespeak his ability in his chosen profession.

"In case the appointment should come to him it would not only give prestige to himself, but be a matter of pride to the citizens of Wyoming county."

The Cherokees
