THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR

Beaumont, West Wyoming and Dallas Win Saturday's Rural League Games; Three Clubs in Tie For Last Place

Poor Sportsmanship On Part of Hunlocks Creek Outfit Mars Beaumont-Hunlocks Creek Contest—All Teams in League Show Greater Speed With Advent of Hot Weather.

After taking a drubbing from East Dallas a few weeks ago, Dallas came back to even matters up by winning a hard-fought game from Herman Wilson's East Dallas club Saturday afternoon by a 5 to 3 score.

The game was a battle from start to finish and gave the fans an exciting afternoon of baseball. Dallas started the fireworks in the first inning when two runs crossed the plate only to have its rivals come back in the fourth to even the score, and in the seventh forge ahead with one run. The Dallas boys put over a barrage of hits in the last inning which accounted for three runs and won the game.

Condon, who has been playing second base for the locals, was sent to the mound when it was decided to give Culver another week's rest after his recent illness. Condon made a good job of it, making nine batfests fan the breeze and keeping the hits so well scattered that very seldom did East Dallas threaten.

Winters, the pitching ace of the East Dallas club, can also be given much credit and had it not been for Ray and Reese having a big day at the bat there might have been a different story to tell. Abe made plenty of the Dallas boys fan the breezes and only in two frames, the first and eighth, was there any damage done, but as baseball goes, there was plenty done to give Dallas the victory. Jim Traver and Ira Cooke had charge of the game and kept the boys on their toes from start to finish.

Beaumont-Hunlocks

The Beaumont boys journeyed to Hunlocks and from all reports were not received in a good baseball spirit and were made the subject of many threats which the cool-headed Beaumont boys overlooked.

The management of the Hunlocks club should remember his club does not play all games at home and should treat the visiting players as he expects his players to be treated when away from home.

Nevertheless, Beaumont came home with the game when "Doc" Traver handed them a shut-out and allowed them the sum of four scattered hits. The score was 5 to 0.

West Wyoming-Roaring Brook

West Wyoming had little trouble with Whitesell's nine, winning out by a 10 to 3 score. Kendig was on the mound for Roaring Brook but ragged support caused his downfall.

Reynolds-Turn
The wedding of Miss Ruth Elizabeth Turn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Turn, of Binghamton, N. Y., and George J. Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Reynolds of Mt. Greenwood, took place last Saturday at noon in Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church at Binghamton. The pastor, Rev. L. C. Murdock, D. D., performed the ceremony.

The church was decorated in palms, tapers and gladioli. Miss Florence Sweet, church organist, gave a recital before the wedding ceremony. Misses Dorothy and Marjorie Tolley of Binghamton sang "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning." The wedding party consisted of Mrs. Oward Lewis, of Scranton, matron of honor; Miss Helen Reynolds, the bridegroom's sister, of Mt. Greenwood, and Miss Elba Weidy, of Binghamton, bridesmaids; Philip Reynolds, brother of the bridegroom, best man; Kenneth Woolbert of Trucksville, and eGerge Turn, the bride's brother, ushers.

The bride wore a gown of Duchesse lace over ivory white satin with lily-of-the-valley caught at the waist and border. She wore a bride's veil with a satin orange blossom border and wax orange blossoms at the ears, a family heirloom. She carried a bouquet of butterfly roses, white sweet peas and gypsophelia. A paneled peach georgette gown with maline and satin hat of the same shade from which hung long streamers were worn by the matron of honor, who carried a bouquet of snapdragon and delphinium red, tied with pastel shade ribbon. Miss Reynolds wore an orchid crepe gown with maline hat to match. Miss Weidy wore an azure blue crepe gown with maline hat to match. Each of the bridesmaids carried a bouquet of pastel shade sweet peas, tied with ribbon of the same color.

The gifts of the bride to her attendants were tinted pearls to match their gowns. The bridegroom's gifts included a cigar lighter to the best man and cuff links to the ushers.

After a reception in the church parlors a wedding luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds were driven by Kenneth Woolbert, pilot, flew them to Syracuse. As the plane circled over the bride dropped her bouquet to the wedding party. Philip Reynolds met them at Syracuse with his brother's car, returned to Binghamton with Bennett in the plane.

Fernbrook's New Baseball Team Swamps Demjuns

Fernbrook Boys Tally 17 Runs With ouet Effort—Four of Them Home Runs

In a one-sided game of baseball played last Sunday between the newly organized Fernbrook club and Demjuns baseball team, Fernbrook came off victorious on the happy side of a 17-2 score.

The Fernbrook team was able to hit the best offerings of the Demjuns twirlers. On four occasions four base hits were made, one of them when the bases were loaded.

This was the third game to the credit of the Fernbrook boys in the four-game series with Demjuns, one game being lost to the Demjuns' outfit.

Since no game has been scheduled for this week on account of the Wilkes-Barre-Wyoming Valley Airport dedication, the next game Fernbrook will play will be with Vernon, Saturday, June 29, on the East Dallas grounds.

This game is expected to be one of the best of the season and arrangements are being made to handle a large crowd.

B. H. Kepler is manager of the new club, and has signed up many new members for the club. Anyone wishing games with the club should call Dallas 327-R-16 and ask for H. Bellas or Mr. Kepler. Games are welcomed with all teams of the same class. Games are preferred for Saturdays.

MRS. RALPH ROOD INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Ralph Rood received slight injuries and her husband and daughter were shaken up Thursday night when the automobile in which they were along the upper Shavertown road was sideswiped by an automobile being driven by Roy Smith of 59 Richard street, Luzerne.

Mr. Rood had just driven his machine out of a driveway at the top of the hill near the Methodist church in Shavertown when the automobile driven by Smith broke over the hill at a high rate of speed and sideswiped the Rood automobile. Mr. Rood's machine was badly damaged on one side and the Smith automobile was also damaged.

Mrs. Rood suffered from shock and it was at first believed that she had received a broken limb. Examination by a local physician showed however that she suffered more from shock.
