HERE'S AN EGG THAT'S A WHOLE NEST OF EGGS

Frank Morris is displaying an interesting Rhode Island Red hen's egg which is 7½ inches by 6½ inches in size. To all outside appearances the egg is simply a giant egg, but once the shell was cracked it was found that the egg contained another perfectly formed and normal hen's egg beside the regular yolk and white of the giant egg. The freak egg was laid by a hen belonging to Kirk McCarthy.

CHILDREN'S DAY

At the Alderson M. E. Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, a program entitled "The Red Velvet Pocket-book Dog", will be given. Everybody welcome.

They're Easy to Find

Some people like to quarrel, but they ought to pick their opponents from among those that feel the same way about it.—Acheson Daily Globe.

The summer home was established here about ten years ago and is a large one-story building equipped with ample porches and fine, airy dormitories. There is also a nursery, large dining room and out-door ovens. The buildings are situated in a beautiful grove on land donated to the Children's Home by A. L. Stull. There is a swimming pool back of the buildings. The buildings are now being painted by A. E. Dimmick.
