THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR

Clarks Summit Rotary Club To Be Host Tuesday

Second Youngest Club In Fifty-first District Has An Interesting History

By REV. J. B. LYON
Clarks Summit

On March 21, 1929, there was born into the fifty-first district a new Rotary Club. The club was the baby of Scranton and in as much as it held its meetings in Clarks Summit, Pa. The Rotary International christened it the Clarks Summit Rotary Club. The club had a discouraging start, as it was organized in the undertaking parlors of Herman C. Cole. But despite its bad start, the club elected a druggist for president, a doctor for vice president, and by their united efforts the club began to improve. A banker was elected treasurer, and with an alienist and florist elected as directors the success of the club was assured, and if anything happened the club was prepared for the worst.

The club began with twenty-six charter members, all of very high character and they were taken into membership by International without a hitch. The club has lost two of its members through removal and it has taken in three new members. The chief difficulty of the club has been to get out of the infant class and thanks to the Wyoming Club it has at last accomplished its end. Now the Clarks Summit Club, no longer the infant of the district, is ready to take upon itself the duties of a grown-up club.

Clarks Summit is extremely fortunate in its meeting place. The Abington Woman's Club has a very appropriate club house and they were very willing to serve luncheon to the club every Thursday. The result is that the meals are of an extra high quality and it is a pleasure for the members of the surrounding clubs to visit at Clarks Summit. In fact, some of the members have said that they would rather eat at the Clarks Summit Club than at their own club. The club has a large number of visitors each week, in fact, two or three of the Scranton Rotarians have a 200 per cent. record for attendance. Perfect is Clarks Summit as well as their own club.

As is the case with all new things the first duty of the Clarks Summit Club was internal organization. Realizing that even a growing youth needs care the club reelected the druggist and the doctor as president and vice president. Appropriate road signs have been erected and a fund has been started for the aid of the Crippled Children. We have through our meeting at the Woman's Club enabled the club to make substantial payments on their house, which was purchased a few years ago. Plans are being made for an educational loan fund from the Clarks Summit Rotary Club. This will take some years to found, but once founded it will be perpetual and it is hoped that the club will be of service to many deserving students over a period of years. We are too young to have a record of attainments behind us, but keep your eye on the Clarks Summit Club. It has unlimited possibilities and it has the punch that puts things over.

Council Holds Regular Meeting Tuesday Evening

Makes Arrangements For Laying Sidewalk in Front of Hotel Property
On Lake Street

At the meeting of Dallas borough council on Tuesday night arrangements were made for the laying of sidewalks in front of the hotel property on Lake street. All members of the council were present with the exception of Councilman Stevens.

The compensation insurance due to Chief Edward Avery for his period of injury was reported not yet paid and referred to a committee. Outstanding bills to the total of $414 were ordered

Ruth Honored By Lake Folks On July Fourth

Popular Captain of Lake and Lehman
Police Guest of Honor At Dinner
Held At Lakeside Inn

More than fifty residents of Warden Place and vicinity gathered at Lakeside Inn, Harvey's Lake, on Thursday night to pay honor to Captain John Ruth, head of the Lake and Lehman police force, and one of the outstanding civic leaders of Lake township.

The dinner took the form of a testimonial in commemoration of the fine things recently accomplished at Warden Place under the leadership of Captain Ruth.

Recently under his direction, a new bathing place at Warden Place has become a reality, eliminating a dangerous step-off, which has claimed many lives in the past and which has made bathing at the regular beach unsafe. The new place has been fitted with a pier and possesses an ideal bottom.

Another project sponsored by Captain Ruth has been the placing of street lights throughout Warden Place. He has also been one of the leaders in the movement to have Warden Place incorporated into a borough. Last year it was largely through his efforts that a splendid old home week was carried out by the cottagers at Warden Place.

Congressman C. Murray Turpin was toastmaster at the affair. Invocation was given by Rev. Lester Nieman. Miss Esther Horowitz gave several violin solos and Mrs. Shirley Mirkin, of Los Angeles, Calif., pleased with piano selections.

Vocal selections were given by Herman Kern, accompanied by Miss Armitage. Humorous stories were told by John George and delightful mimicry was given by Stanley Rauch. William R. Roberts was song leader. Addresses were given by Edward Burns, Arthur Tredinnick, John George, John Wagner, Joseph Walker, Mrs. Neiman and Captain Ruth.

The banquet room was tastefully decorated, the color effect being pink and white. A beautiful bouquet of roses made up the centerpiece.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John George, Arthur Tredinnick, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burns, Frank Vorticken, Alexander Snyder, William Parry, William Ganapowski, Ruth Hess, Mrs. J. M. Ludwig, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Girvan, C. H. Johnston, Helen Malon, William F. Brennan, Mrs. John Gerlott, Mrs. James Ryan, W. G. Miner, Francis Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hughes, Langford Lloyd, Paul Nieman, William Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Roberts, Mrs. William Hancock, Mrs. J. J. Russell, O. P. Albertson, John Wagner, Joseph Walker, Congressman C. Murray Turpin, Arthur Honck, James Boney, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ruth, Miss Letha Totten, William Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. William Rinken, Herman Kern, Marion Williams, Gertrude Armitage, Miss Esther Horowitz, Shirley Mirkin, Manuel Horowitz, Frederick Crouse, F. R. Kehler, Patrick Elias, Stanley Rauch, Mrs. W. J. Hooper, Mrs. P. Morgan, Mrs. Eliza Treblecox, Mrs. Michael Mooney, Joseph Maher, Nellie McFadden, Peggy Flynn and Miss L. Gilligan.

paid. In keeping with its policy to hard surface one borough street each year, considerable discussion centered about the road to be resurfaced this summer. The discussion ended with no action taken.

Requests from the State Department of Highways were read asking that the borough designate the street intersections to be posted with stop signs.

Sixth District To Have Candidate For Prothonotary

Local Man One of Those Being Considered For Important County
Office

With the appointment of John Bonin of Hazleton to fill the vacancy in the office of prothonotary due to the resignation of Dr. C. Murray Turpin, it was thought that his successor would come from the Sixth Legislative District.

Political leaders of the Sixth Legislative District resent the action of county leaders in appointing Attorney Bonin. While a capable young man, an attorney by profession, Attorney Bonin is a resident of Hazleton and a representative of the so-called foreign nationalities. It was generally considered that Governor Fisher would appoint one of the newer nationalities for the office of Clerk of Courts and give the greater West Side the appointment of Prothonotary.

Local legislative leaders are suggesting that a candidate from the Sixth district, and several names have been suggested so that a harmony candidate can be selected.

Prominent among the names mentioned are Leland P. Holcomb of West Pittston, Rev. Lorenzo Thomas of Wyoming, Fred Ellis of Kingston and G. Harold Wagner of Dallas. Within the next few weeks it is thought that one of the above will announce as a candidate.

Seminary Book Lists Several Local Students

Year-Book One of the Finest Yet Published Gives Scholastic History of Local Students

One of the most attractive preparatory school year books that has been published this year is that of Wyoming Seminary. The book issued last year won honors in a national competition and this year's book is to win even greater honors.

It is interesting to note in glancing over its pages that there are seven students from the upper West Side in this year's graduating class. Many of them distinguished in scholastic attainments and many others were on important senior committees and in extra-curricular activities.

Among the graduates were:
Jean Turner of Dallas, who entered

Dr. J. C. Fleming Candidate For School Director

Well Known Physician and Specialist
Consents To File For School
Director

Considerable surprise and the most favorable comment was heard about town the last few days when it was heard that Dr. J. C. Fleming, our popular physician and specialist, consented to allow his friends to put his nomination papers for the office of school director in circulation yesterday.

Dr. Fleming has been prevailed upon by many citizens of the town to allow the use of his name for the office of school director, the six-year term, and only the past week has he given it any serious consideration. Although at the present time the genial doctor feels that he should not aspire for the office, he is willing to leave the question in the hands of his friends and the people of Dallas Borough.

A resident of Dallas for many years, its physician after the death of Dr. Laing, Dr. Fleming is one of the most well thought of residents in this section. Some few years ago Dr. Fleming gave up general practice and specializes in eye, ear, nose and throat treatment.

With the placing in nomination of Dr. Fleming, it is rumored that Director Morris and Director Space will both aspire for the two-year term, and allow the field in the six-year term to Dr. Fleming.

The Seminary in 1925, was a prominent member of the Adelpian Society and served on the committee which chose senior rings and class pins.

William Iveson of Fernbrook, entered 1927 and was a member of the Amphictyon Society and also an ardent member of the Seminary band, which was one of the finest the school has ever had.

David Schooley of Trucksville, who entered in 1928, after graduating from Trucksville High school and who was also a member of the Amphictyon Society.

Donald Nelson also of Trucksville, who entered in 1926 and was a member of the Independent Society.

Donald Warmouth of Shavertown, who entered in 1927, was a member of the Independent Society and prominent in the Asbury Club.

Ray Major of Shavertown entered in 1925 and because of his musical ability was a member of both the Seminary band and orchestra. He was one of the few who received a silver key for his efforts in both the band and orchestra.

Glendon Sipple, Shavertown, entered in 1925 and was also a member of the

Stanley Steele Death's Victim On New Highway

Former Shavertown Man Crushed
To Death By Truck Will Be Buried
From Home of Sister Today

The funeral of Stanley Steele, aged 40, who was instantly killed Wednesday while at work on the new Trucksville road, will be held this afternoon at 2 from the home of his sister, Mrs. Albert Bush, of Shavertown. The services will be in charge of the Rev. M. Peters and Rev. Harry Henry.

Mr. Steele until recently made his home at Shavertown. He had been employed the past two months by the Kersteen Construction Company on the new highway where he drove his own truck. On Wednesday afternoon while driving in the vicinity of the new concrete retaining wall near Birch Grove, he stopped his truck and got out to speak to another driver. As he attempted to board the other machine, which was moving, his footing slipped and he was crushed underneath the rear wheels. Death was instantaneous.

The tragic death of Mr. Steele comes as a shock to his many friends and acquaintances in the upper West Side and Shavertown where he lived and conducted a general trucking business until about two years ago when he moved to the Larksville mountain.

He was the son of the late Major Steele, who was well known in this community, having conducted a farm at Chase for many years. Beside his wife, formerly Miss Zoe Henry of Broadway, the deceased is survived by five children, Jessie, Donald, Doris, Audrey and Kenneth, all at home, and the following sisters: Mrs. Alfred Ray and Mrs. Albert Bush, of Shavertown; Mrs. C. M. Henry, of Shick-shinny; Mrs. Arthur Storm of Stroudsburg, and Miss Leona Steele of York.

Mrs. George Russ of Fernbrook was welcomed as a new member.

This Thursday the club will spend the afternoon with Madeline Wagner and Lena Marsden at Lake Winola. Dinner will be served at 5 o'clock at Lake Winola church by the Ladies' Aid Society.

Those present Tuesday evening were: guests, Miss Kuschke and Miss Derby of Scranton; regular members, Emily Besecker, Alberta Garinger, Myrtle Isaacs, Jean Kuehn, Irene Monk, Florence Sippel, Clementia Swartz, Mae VanCampen, Clarence McHenry, Florence Wood, Jane Case, Evelyn Steel, Josephine Boston, Clara Metz and Gertrude Russ.

FIREWORKS AND DANCE FEATU- RED 4th AT IREM COUNTRY CLUB

A full day was offered July 4 at Irem Temple Country Club. Hundreds of guests availed themselves of the opportunity to indulge in golf.

In the evening a spectacular display of fireworks and a dance on the pavilion climaxed the day. Although it was originally planned to have the pool opened by the fourth, it was not available because there is still considerable work to be done before its completion. There was such a diversity of amusement that a few were concerned that the pool was not open.

MISS EMMA RAUCH BECOMES BRIDE OF HERBERT R. DAVIS

The marriage of Miss Elma Catherine Rauch, daughter of Mrs. Arriet Rauch of Alderson to Herbert R. Davis of Wright Street, Wilkes-Barre, took place at eight o'clock, Friday evening, June 28 at the home of the bride's mother. Rev. W. S. York pastor of the Alderson M. E. Church performed the ceremony before a background of laurels and roses and an altar banked with ferns, roses and lilies and wore a corsage bouquet of pink. The bride was gowned in an orchid chiffon transparent velvet ensemble and wore a corsage bouquet of pink rose buds, orchid delphiniums and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Peter Delaney, the bride's mother, acting as her attendant was dressed in a Nile green chiffon and wore a bouquet of pink rose buds and lilies of the valley. E. Thornton Davis, a brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Supper was served to about thirty guests. Mr. and Mrs. Davis left for Atlantic City and other interesting places. They will make their home with the bride's mother here at Alderson.

We take pleasure in making the announcement of this wedding and we wish the bride and groom all the good luck and happiness in the world. We suppose the "boys" are already making plans for the "drumming".
