

DOROTHY DARNIT

By Charles McManus

-Alderson-

In spite of the scarcity of money, work and other necessities, Harvey's Lake is having a more prosperous summer than usual. The cottagers are all here now for the remainder of the summer and the small bungalows have their groups of vacationists every week or two. We understand that the Lehigh Valley will once more run excursions from Wilkes-Barre to Harvey's Lake Park. They may never bring back the days our readers can remember when from four to eight excursions rolled in here per day, but it will most likely mean bigger and better picnics and an increasing popularity for Harvey's Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Searfoss of Dallas spent last week visiting Mrs. Sarah Jane Lamereaux.

Mrs. Albert Adams and children of Plainsville, N. J., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Biery.
