Beaumont and Dallas Battle This Afternoon

Fast Beaumont Team Full Of Confidence After Shutting Out League Leaders Last Saturday

Upsets happen in baseball, but it was no upset when Beaumont took the fast Wyoming boys over the coals last Saturday for their first shutout of the season by a 2 to 0 score.

Yet Kromelbein is not the whole Beaumont club out that way. When you take a look at its roster you find such seasoned talent as Hackling, Case, Galley, Arch Austin, Turner, Bob MacDougall and Bill Storey, all rated as first-class material, and if a guess means anything, we will place it on Beaumont as the pennant winners.

Dallas-Roaring Brook

When Dallas journey to Roaring Brook last Saturday it found Oscar Whitesell all set to greet them with a perfectly new ball club, and we will give Oscar credit for the selection he made, as his boys put up a fine fight until the seventh frame when everything looked blue from a barrage of hits put over by Dallas which resulted in a 9 to 3 score.

Hutchins was on the mound for Dallas and pitched a masterful game, keeping the hits well scattered and breaking up several rallies with his fast fielding. Stitzer continued his batting rampage by poling out two home runs, the first with the bases full and the second with one man on. Culver was the fielding star, making a hair-raising catch which put an end to a Roaring Brook rally, and in the seventh inning he started the batting rally for Dallas, which accounted for the game.

East Dallas-Hunlocks

East Dallas lost a tough game to Hunlocks which placed it in a tie for fourth place and a possible chance of losing out in the elimination, as there are but four games to play and they can all be counted as tough.

League Standing

Table with columns: Team, W., L., Pct. Rows include West Wyoming, Dallas, Beaumont, Hunlocks, East Dallas, and Roaring Brook.

Last Saturday's Results

Dallas 9, Roaring Brook 3. Beaumont 2, West Wyoming 0. Hunlocks 5, East Dallas 4.

Where They Play Today

Beaumont at Dallas. Hunlocks at West Wyoming. Roaring Brook at East Dallas.

SCORE SHEET ON THE SIDELINES

Saturday's Game

Dallas vs. Roaring Brook. With a new lineup Roaring Brook hoped to defeat Dallas. Their sportsmanship and fighting spirit was to be admired.

It was one of those hit-and-run games with plenty of action.

Dobbs started the fireworks first time at bat with a home run, only to be called out for not touching second base. He redeemed himself with a two-base hit and a three-bagger with men on bases.

Santa Claus (Stitz) had another day when hits counted. With the bags full he pounded out a home run. It seems to be a race between Dobbs and Stitz for home runs and the scoring of runs.

Prothonotary Candidates Make Tour of County

Wagner Grooming Up War Horses As Bonin Adds Strength in Some Sections

The public generally is not excited yet over the fall election. Each community has its respective aspirants for various local political offices. Local politics in these sections is warming up in several spots.

Wagner On the Job

Harold Wagner, it seems, is grooming up his war horses as well as training some new ones. Being somewhat of a veteran, twelve years, in fact, as one newspaper stated, he long ago advanced from the novice stage.

Bonin Getting Around

Mr. Bonin is in the training field. Nobody seems to know much about him politically. It is rumored that he is picking up some strength in what are known politically as the "patches" or foreign sections of the county. The political weather forecasters are already predicting that there is more involved in the county fall election than just a mere election of prothonotary candidate.

PICNIC AT COUNTRY CLUB

Informality and fun featured a most enjoyable picnic held at Irem Country Club last Tuesday evening. About forty neighbors and friends from Shaverton and Dallas motored to the club in the early evening, enjoyed the sunset and the various pleasures the club has to offer, and finally a real picnic supper.

The menu had been planned by Mrs. P. P. Dohl and Mrs. Alan Sanford, and everyone's basket was filled with good things. Later in the evening the group sat about in a circle of light from the headlights of the parked automobiles and enjoyed a while of friendly talk and chatter. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brickel, Samuel Griffith, Miss Winifred Griffith, Harold Griffith, Attorney and Mrs. A. L. Turner, Dr. Fleming, Asa Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dohl and Mrs. Dohl's mother, Mrs. Yeager and her sister, Mrs. Bates, Adelaide Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parry of Kingston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Sanford and Mrs. Sanford's mother, Mrs. Senigo from New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Makinson of Forty Fort were callers at the Olin Kunkle home on Thursday evening. Misses Dorothy Young and Helen Hess of Luzerne spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hess.

CAREY-BROWN

A very pretty wedding ceremony was performed in the Wilkes-Barre Westminster Presbyterian Church last Friday evening when Miss Alverna Brown of Trucksville and Chase became the bride of Granville M. Carey of Wilkes-Barre. Rev. Snyder of the Westminster Church performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Carey is a graduate of the Trucksville high school and Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

CARRIERS TO PICNIC

The rural letter carriers of Luzerne county will hold a clan bake at the home of Luther Hunter this evening, August 3. All carriers of the county are invited to attend. The committee on arrangements consist of the following carriers: Fred Youngblood, Mrs. Woolbert, R. D. 3, Davenport and Luther Hunter of Sweet Valley.

D. C. LAUDERBAUGH FOR TAX COLLECTOR

D. C. Lauderbach, a resident of Dallas township for many years, has filed his petition and announces in this issue of the Post his candidacy for the office of tax collector of Dallas township. The universal esteem in which Mr. Lauderbach is held in this section is indicated by the long list of signers on his petition.

LORENZO D. THOMAS, FORMER SIXTH DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVE, ENDORSES G. HAROLD WAGNER

In Open Letter, Popular Representative Feels This District Should Be Represented In Court House

Mr. G. Harold Wagner, Dallas, Pa.

My dear Harold:

I am glad that you have decided to come before the people of the county in the pending primary election as THEIR candidate for Prothonotary.

I think it is at all times better to ask the PEOPLE what their wish is than to have some embryo politician get together a clique in a back room, decide upon someone who will serve THEM and come into the press with the high-sounding "CROSS-SECTION" stuff that represents the BEST ELEMENT of the community in things political.

Harold, I believe I know the people of Luzerne County about as well as most of those self-appointed demagogues who would shape the destiny of the universe in general and Luzerne County in particular. I have such confidence in our native stock that I have no hesitancy, even at this early stage of the fight, to predict your nomination and election.

WE KNOW YOU. That is what goes with the people. They are convinced that the honesty you have always shown is of a sterling quality. It is not of that spurious, convenient and expeditious nature so often met with around election time.

Further, Harold, you may count on me for all the help I will be able to extend. You may also tell MY FRIENDS wherever you meet them in this wide 400,000 population county that THOMAS OF WYOMING is working every day in your interest, and if they stand by you as they ALWAYS stood by me, your election is assured.

So with kindest regards and best wishes, I remain,

Very truly yours,

LORENZO D. THOMAS.

Party of Local Residents Return After Week's Tour Through New York State

San Griffith, Mrs. Ralph Brickel and Miss Winifred Griffith returned Tuesday from a week's trip through New York State, every minute of which was crammed with interest.

They left Dallas early in the morning, had lunch at Wellsboro and drove to Aurora for dinner. Here they went to the Roycrofters' Inn, made famous by Elbert Hubbard, and after a pleasant dinner enjoyed viewing the beautiful handicraft on display, and for which the place is so well known.

From there they drove to Niagara Falls, then Buffalo and Rochester. They reached Sachett's Harbor the next morning in time to see the morning drills in the New York training camp for regulars. Their camp and grounds are beautifully built as they are on the shore of Lake Ontario they drove then to Watertown and to the Thousand Islands. There really are 1900 of these islands important enough and large enough to be named and so covered are they with flowers it seems they almost grow from the rocks.

Turning back, they stopped at Fort Ticonderoga on Lake Champlain. The old fort is being rebuilt and brings vividly back the heroic history of our early wars. Next they stopped in Chazy, where Mrs. Brickel visited relatives at Heart's Delight Farm.

At Plattsburg they saw the citizens' training camp, then visited Lake George. Here they Y. M. C. A. holds its State conference every summer and there are beautiful cottages and hotels as well. They turned south, then through Schenectady and Binghamton.

Rotary and Kiwanis Hold Joint Meeting

Colonial Tea Room Scene of Get-together Meeting With Kiwanis Club As Host

Mt. Greenwood Kiwanis and Dallas Rotary held another joint meeting on Wednesday evening at Colonial Tea Room. About seventy men were present. Dr. Howell, president of Kiwanis, had charge of the meeting. Earl Newhart led the singing and L. A. McHenry introduced the speaker of the evening, Councillor Strong, of the Wyoming Valley Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Strong told fully but concisely the accomplishments so far of the new Chamber of Commerce organization, its desire to benefit the whole Wyoming Valley, its present activities and a little of its future aspirations.

One of the most outstanding aims is to develop the other industries than coal production so that the valley will not in the future be so utterly dependent on the mines. Many such industries already exist and precedent apparently proves the community is better for developing these rather than attempting to import new ones.

At the conclusion of his speech the meeting was left open for general discussion. Adjournment followed with an inter-club committee meeting with members chosen from both clubs planned for August 15 in Dallas at the Rotary club rooms.

Local Resident Sees Accident At Wellsboro

Mrs. Henry Disque Returning From Buffalo Sees Great Lakes Bus Go Over Embankment

Mrs. Henry Disque spent the week-end with her husband in Buffalo. She made both her trip to Buffalo and return on one of the Frank Martz busses and on her return witnessed the accident in which the Great Lakes line bus plunged over the mountainside near Wellsboro, injuring eighteen persons. The driver was able to run against a tree large enough to hold the bus, so saving the lives probably of many of his passengers. The bus turned on its side and the injured as well as those unhurt had to be helped out through the windows. One little nine-year-old boy climbed bravely out then began frantically searching for a box he had lost. When it was found, he opened it to disclose two black kittens unhurt but a little anxious. Since no one was really seriously injured the crowd relaxed and enjoyed accounting for the hoodoo which had sent them off the road.

The thirty passengers from the disabled machine were taken into the Frank Martz bus and with the usual courtesy of the Martz drivers they were taken to their next station, twelve miles in another direction. Mrs. Disque expressed a great deal of pride in the efficiency and courtesy displayed by all the drivers she had met on the Martz busses. They are trained for two months, are men of mature judgment and seen not to hold lightly the responsibility which is theirs. Not only their employers, but Wyoming Valley, in her opinion, may be proud of the quality of service they render.

Himmler Theatre One of the Best In This Section

Well Equipped With Modern Projection Machine—Pictures Are of the Highest Type and Recent Release

On last Tuesday two gentlemen from Wilkes-Barre about to leave Dallas to return to their respective businesses in the city, casually addressed themselves to their neighbor in what seemed a flattering remark about Dallas' new movie house, the Himmler Theatre. But on consideration and even investigation their remarks proved to be not flattering at all, merely a statement of facts which Dallas itself may either not know or may overlook.

The Himmler Theatre is one of the best built and equipped show houses in Wyoming Valley. Neither time, thought nor money have been spared to make it possible for the public to receive the best in comfort and entertainment.

The screen which was ordered through DeFrenes & Co. of Wilkes-Barre, is the last word in screen perfection, costing much more than ordinary screen. It is of silver metal covered with ground glass, making it impossible to weary the eyes from any place in the theatre. That, perhaps, sounds like an overstatement, but "proof of the pudding is in the eating." Frequently the front seats are filled before all the back ones are taken.

Because there is no balcony in the building the projectors can be on a line with the screen, making the picture much clearer and plainer, less jerky and dazzling than if the machines had to be tipped to throw the shadow on the screen.

Anyone who has attended the theatre or even noticed the displayed advertising knows something of the quality of the pictures shown. Unless every picture were a feature they could be no more up-to-the-minute. The best of Hollywood's stars are featured and in late productions by the best film companies.

Lately Mr. Himmler has added a new prinking fountain and eight fans to insure the comfort of his patrons. The theatre has a seating capacity of between three and four hundred.

It's a new business—an added attraction to Dallas, an asset in appearance, taxes and reputation. Dallas should be proud of the Himmler Theatre.
