Worth While

Humidors have done so much for general appearances. They have nearly eliminated the man who felt that he must thrust his cigar into his mouth almost entirely and pull it out again before he lit it.

Freedom

Freedom is a matter of economics; there is little use in claiming to be free if one is economically dependent. —The American Magazine.

What makes a hen LAZY?

Usually, it's the wrong kind of feeding. Hens need a scientifically balanced ration in this season. Give them
