THEATRICALS A SUCCESS
The Alderson Epworth League took a very successful step into the realm of amateur theatricals on Thursday evening when they presented "The Henpecked Hero" in the Odd Fellows' hall at Alderson. A great deal of well deserved praise is being bestowed on the characters generally and individually and the audience and box office were all that could be desired. The play will be given again on Saturday night at the same place, Odd Fellows' hall in Alderson. Those who did not have tickets on Thursday night will be glad of a second opportunity to see a good comedy.

MRS. ELI PARRISH
Mrs. Eli Parrish died at her home on Main street on Sunday afternoon, August 18, at 2 o'clock, aged 93 years. Surviving are her husband, Eli Parrish, two sons, Elmer of Dallas and Charles of Carverton; seventeen grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. The funeral was held at 2:30 on Tuesday from the home. Rev. William Stang read the first chapter of 1 Peter for the scripture lesson. Mrs. John Frantz and Mrs. James Hildebrant, accompanied by Miss Ella Sutton, sang "Rock of Ages" and "Going Down the Valley." A poem by William Sutton paid a fitting tribute to the influence of her life and character. Her six grandsons, Albert Parrish of Dallas, John, Frank and Charles Parrish of Carverton, Sheldon and John Rice of Trucksville acted as pallbearers and her granddaughters, Kate, Alma, Emma and Nettie Parrish and Catherine and Margaret Rice, carried the loads of flowers which bore silent testimony to her standing in the community where she had spent almost her entire life.
