McCormick-Deering Spreaders Are Built for BUSY FARMERS

If you "can't find time to spread manure" you need this new, easy-loading McCORMICK-DEERING Manure Spreader

BEING "too busy to spread manure" is a good sign. Good farmers are always too busy to waste time on this job. That's one good reason why so many farmers are using McCormick-Deering Manure Spreaders.

The McCormick-Deering is designed and built for busy farmers. It has many new and time-tested features which make it possible to do a good job of spreading, easily, economically, and quickly. It is easy to load, easy to operate; it is an easy pull, loaded to capacity, for two horses. It is strongly built to travel at top speed with a tractor. It pulverizes thoroughly and spreads evenly—covers a lot of ground in surprisingly short time.

If you can't find time to spread manure, if you are spreading by hand, or if you are working under the handicap of an old-fashioned spreader, investigate the new McCormick-Deering. Talk it over with us.

In Praise of Work

Accustom a man to 16 hours of work a day, and he will regard 10 hours' work as a soft snap. But accustom him to working 7 or 8 hours, and he will look upon 10 hours of work as an unbearable hardship. Young men of today too often are under the disadvantage of having been trained in the 8-hour idea—American Magazine.

Health and Purity

The duty of physical health and the duty of spiritual purity and loftiness are not two duties; they are two parts of one duty—which is living the completest life which it is possible for man to live.—Phillips Brooks.

PINOCHLE CLUB

Shavertown is quite noted for its clubs and one of the most active and up-to-the-minute of them all is the Pinochle Club. It has headquarters in Earl Monk's store and the following are active members: Earl Monk, Gordon Laycock, Fabian Odell, Jack Eck, George Hunt, Jake Rau, George Weltzel and Fred Kromelbein.

"Doc" Laycock and Earl Monk are always partners and challenge any combination out of the other group. So far they are unbeaten, so outsiders will gladly be accepted as opponents at any time. Mr. Odell is a high runner-up and is very frank to admit that the only reason he isn't easily the champion is because he has to play partner to so many amateurs. George Shaver, who may later be prevailed upon to take over a job as promoter, states that he has two champions who could beat the Monk-Laycock team with both hands tied, as it were. Since they haven't entered their challenge yet it is the general opinion of the club they must be practicing.
