Speeding Automobile Upsets At Ruggles Crossing, One Man Killed And Two Badly Injured

All Occupants of Car Are From Tunkhannock - Ernest Wagner, Father of Three, is Killed-Other Men Are In General Hospital

TWO WILL RECOVER

One man was instantly killed and his two companions seriously injured yesterday morning at 11:30 when the Willys-Knight roadster which they were driving at a rate of sixty miles an hour overturned on the curve crossing the Lehigh Valley Railway tracks at Ruggles station on the Harvey's Lake-Noxen road.

The dead man is Ernest Wagner of Tunkhannock and the injured men, who are both in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, are Howard Clifford and Clayton Emmons of Tunkhannock. The men had been visiting friends in Luzerne and were on the way to their homes in Tunkhannock when the accident occurred.

Exeter Power Team Plays Here Tomorrow

Best of Rural League Will Meet Fast Industrial Team Here

With two hard-fought games, played last week-end to its credit, Dallas Independents will tomorrow afternoon start a three-game series with the fast Exeter Power Company team.

The Exeter team is one of the best to be found anywhere and has a long record of victories to its credit. Every Wyoming Avley team that has played this strong combination has been defeated and the Exeter outfit comes here with an abundance of confidence in its ability to defeat Dallas.

Mrs. H. V. Bogart Buried At Noxen

Life-Long Resident of This Section Had Many Relatives Here Where She Lived For Seven Years

The funeral of Mrs. Minerva A. Bogart, aged 81, who died Saturday morning after a long illness of complications, was held Tuesday afternoon from the late home in Noxen followed by services at the Noxen Methodist Church. Interment was in the family plot at Orcutt's Grove Cemetery.

Born at Sweet Valley in October, 1847, where she spent her girlhood, Mrs. Bogart was one of the oldest residents in this section. She was the daughter of the late G. A. Steele, a veteran of the Civil War, who for many years was a local minister in the Methodist Church and well known in Dallas and vicinity.

Following the death of Mr. Saxtin, Mrs. Bogart a few years later married on February 3, 1887, H. V. Bogart of Lehman. Like her grandfather, father and first husband, Mr. Bogart, who survives her and is ninety-one years of age, was a United States war veteran, having served during the Civil War. Her only son, Calvin, was born of this union and is likewise to be a soldier.

Three years ago while on a visit to her daughters in Johnson City, she suffered a stroke from which she never fully recovered and which led to a fall this Spring when she broke her hip and was confined to her bed until the time of her death.

Rural League Starts Series Of Elimination

West Wyoming, Dallas, Beaumont and Hunlock's Creek Finish Season in Order-All Are Set For Championship

Get set, fans! There's going to be a real fight for baseball honors when Dallas and Hunlocks, Beaumont and West Wyoming get started in their three-game series today to decide 'who's who' in the Rural League.

At this time we may mention East Dallas, who put up a game fight but lost out in the last stage of the race to get a crack at the pennant. Those boys went big all summer and looked like sure winners until Hunlocks spruced up and staged a rally to win the past five games.

The Dallas club will journey to Hunlocks for the opening game and will take Culver, Hutch and Billy Garman as its pitching staff. The latter was the boy who curved Beaumont into submission last Saturday when he handed that club an 8 to 0 shutout.

Now for Hunlocks. There can be plenty said of its pitching staff. Benson, a left-hander, has been going big, while Graboski, a right-hander, has been a big factor in keeping Jack Pollock's boys in the race.

Manager Austin let it be known that he has another fast pitcher signed for the series and expects to give West Wyoming a battle. Arrangements have been made to have umpires assigned from the County League, which should be a good break for the fans.

Table with 4 columns: Team, W, L, Pct. Rows: West Wyoming, Dallas, Beaumont, Hunlocks, East Dallas, Roaring Brook.

Fans will note Beaumont and Hunlocks finished in a tie and as both clubs were anxious to keep shy of West Wyoming, a coin was flipped which gave Hunlock the fourth place position.

Today's Game (Elimination) Dallas at Hunlocks. Wyoming at Beaumont.

Next Saturday. Hunlocks at Dallas. Beaumont at West Wyoming.

Forest Fires Sweep Region Above Stull

Fire Crews From Dallas, Shavertown and Noxen Called Out to Patrol Burning Area

Forest fire crews from Dallas, Shavertown and Noxen were called out this week to help extinguish and keep under control a serious forest fire that has been raging this week on the mountains north of Dinstles, along Bowman's Creek.

The unusually dry weather of the summer has led in many sections to the serious outbreaks of forest fires and the drying up of many mountain streams and lakes.

Fruit Growers To Picnic At Cummings Pond

Program On September 11th Will Have Many Interesting Features. W. E. Schoonover To Be Host

The Luzerne County Horticultural Society will hold its annual fruit growers' picnic at the farm of W. E. Schoonover on the Demuns-Orange county highway near Cummings Pond on Wednesday, September 11 with an all day session.

Some interesting things will be shown to the fruit growers on the Schoonover farm, more especially a spraying demonstration which has been conducted by J. D. Hutchison, county agent, on a block of McIntosh and Red Astrachan apple trees.

One tree of each of these varieties was left as a check, no application of spray being applied and the remainder of the trees had the applications as recommended by the Spray Service letters sent out from the agricultural Extension Association.

The count on the Red Astrachan tree showed only two-tenths of 1 per cent. where they received the sprays and 18 per cent. infection on the check tree.

Also on the Schoonover farm are some interesting fertilizer demonstrations on trees. There are other interesting details on this program. All fruit growers are invited to be present.

Torchlight Parade, Band and Large Number of Automobiles With Banners To Feature Political Rally and Trip to Wyoming Valley

EIGHTY CARS ENTERED

Eager to lend their support and give evidence of their loyalty, friends and neighbors of G. Harold Wagner, candidate for Prothonotary from the Sixth Legislative District, will stage a great motorcade and torchlight parade on Tuesday night, September 10, with the Upper West Side and Wyoming Valley as the parade ground.

Encouraged and optimistic over the reports from all parts of Luzerne county that Wagner is gaining a legion of supporters among all classes and creeds and especially among all opponents of the Fine-Nicholson group, residents of the Upper West Side are enthusiastic to take part in the motorcade.

The motorcade will form at 6:30 p. m. on Church street, Dallas, in front of John Yaple's house and extend in the direction of the Dallas township school. The procession will get under way at 7 o'clock sharp and will move through Dallas and Shavertown, thence to Trucks-ville and down over the new road to Wyoming Valley and Wilkes-Barre's Public Square. There will be at least two musical organizations in the procession. Banners and noise makers will be provided by the marshal and captains when the motorcade forms. Persons having noise-making devices are urged by the committee to bring them along.

Reports from every section of the county indicate an unusual swing toward Wagner's support. On Saturday night the Non-Partisan League, which represents 40,000 voters in Luzerne county, threw its entire support behind Wagner and gave him its unqualified endorsement. Thomas Kennedy, secretary of the United Mine Workers and a resident of Hazleton, was one of the most active endorsers.

Freeland Club Entertained By Local Rotarians

Attorney B. J. Brueger of Freeland was principal speaker at the Dallas Rotary Club on Thursday evening, when they were hosts to the Freeland club in its entirety.

Other entertainment was very pleasantly rendered by Mrs. Herbert Williams, of Shavertown, who gave two groups of three readings each, and several vocal solos by Herman Kern of Alderson. He was accompanied by Prof. Harpood of Mt. Greenwood.

HAROLD WAGNER GETS RESULTS ON ROADS

A force of men under the direction of the department of roads and bridges of Luzerne county, was busy this week repairing and surfacing the road over the newly built bridge at Trucks-ville.

The condition of this road was brought to the attention of G. Harold Wagner of Dallas, candidate for the office of Prothonotary, on last Saturday afternoon and on Monday morning operations were started to repair the road. This is but one instance of what it would mean to this section of the county to have a local man in the Luzerne county court house who could get results for the Upper West Side.
