

DOROTHY DARNIT

By Charles McManus

-Trucksville-

Merle Harris is visiting his mother, Mrs. William Hersh, at her home on Orchard street.

Boy Scout Troop 261, under the direction of Charles Dewitt, scoutmaster, hiked to Jackson township recently, where the boys cooked their supper over a camp fire.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hewitt and family spent the week-end in Philadelphia, where they visited Miss Lucille Hewitt, who is doing social service work in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Price and family attended the birthday party of Mrs. Price's grandfather, Mr. Shortz, at Kingston, recently. Mr. Shortz is eighty-two years old.

Twelve ladies from Trucksville attended the annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Wilkes-Barre Firwood Church, October 11.

Mrs. Howard Appleton and Mrs. Kemble were hostesses at a bridge luncheon given at the Bridge Inn on Tuesday. Luncheon was served to Mrs. Will Smith, Mrs. George Metz, Mrs. Wetteroth, Mrs. Charles Trien, Mrs. Charles Anderson, Mrs. Warden, Mrs. Major, Miss Mame Leach, Mrs. Kemble and Mrs. Appleton.

Gordon Mathers is ill at his home on Carverton Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Adams and children of Mt. Greenwood spent the week-end in New York City.

Misses Betty and Susan Palmer attended James Hutchison's birthday party at Kingston recently.

Mr. Nelson spent the week-end at Penn State, where his son, Donald is attending college.

Short Time to Repent
A Rumanian woman was seriously considering matrimony at the age of one hundred and eighteen. She could marry hastily, but couldn't anticipate much leisure for repentance.—South Bend Tribune.

Ideal Medicine Man
"My idea of a good doctor," says Grandma Gravel in Farm and Fireside, "is one who takes pains and gives none."

Trees Live Many Centuries
The Forest service says that big trees attain an age of about 4,000 years. Most of those standing are about 2,000 to 2,500 years old.

No Warships Purchased
No European country has ever built or sold a war vessel to the United States government. The only case where the United States has had vessels built in a foreign country was that of the Chinese river gunboats, which were built in China, under contract to the United States.
