Worth While

Humblers have done so much for general appearances. They have nearly eliminated the man who felt that he must thrust his cigar into his mouth almost entirely and pull it out again before he lit it.

First "Sky Writer"

The founder of sky writing is Maj. G. C. Savage, an Englishman. The first word written by this method was "castrol" in June, 1922.

Have No Games of Skill

Games played by American Indians may be divided into two general classes. Games of chance and games of dexterity. Games of pure skill and calculation, such as chess, are entirely absent.
