REVIVAL MEETINGS AT HUNTSVILLE CHURCH

On Friday of this week Rev. Charles H. Bloom of Brooklyn will arrive to open a revival meeting at the Christian Church at Huntsville. Rev. Bloom is a man of wide experience and unusual training. In addition to thorough training for his ministerial profession, Rev. Bloom has taken a degree in music and this he turns to advantage in his meetings by featuring hymns and giving them new meanings. He is bringing with him five hundred song slides which he will use in the song services. An effort is being made to have Mr. Bloom speak at the West Side Christian Endeavor rally to be held on Friday night in Sweet Valley. His first appearance for certain will be at the 9:30 service at the church next Sunday morning and again at 7:30 in the evening. Meetings will be held each night at the same hour. The "Church-on-the-Hill" considers itself highly favored in being able to offer the general public the leadership of a man as capable as Rev. Bloom.

LAI D AT REST

The funeral of Mrs. Caroline Stroh, who died on Friday, was held from the family home in Dallas on Monday at 2 o'clock. Rev. Webster of the Dallas M. E. Church officiated. Mrs. Stroh would have been seventy-four years old in December. She has resided in this community for the last thirty-two years, coming here from Forty Fort. A sole survivor is her husband, George Stroh. The funeral was largely attended and many floral offerings betokened the esteem in which she was held by her many friends. Interment was at Fern Knoll Cemetery in Dallas.

THANKS TO VOTERS

I wish to thank the voters of Dallas Borough for the fine vote I received at the election on Tuesday last.
