Lake Freshmen Resent Advice

Answers Senior's Advice Recently Given in the Dallas Post

BEATRICE KOCHER
Freshman Reporter, Lake Township Schools

A recent issue of the Dallas Post contained a great deal of advice from the upper class to us Freshmen.

We didn't say anything at the time, but we made up our minds that we would show those self-same students that they needed our advice more than we needed theirs.

We Freshmen are ever on the alert to show real Laketon high school spirit. Every issue of the school paper contains more articles written by Freshmen than any other class. This column is to be devoted entirely to Freshmen news. Each class will have a column in the Dallas Post.

We Freshmen wish to give this advice to the upper class: "Criticize yourself first, then criticize us."

Courteous

A POEM

An still they come! Here's another poem from Lake township. This one deals in courtesy. In particular, it is inspired by one of the Boy Scout laws which says a scout is courteous. This poem is by Ruth Honeywell and Thomas Traver, Lake township students.—Editor.

A scout is courteous! His aim, Which should be our aim, Is to be polite to all, Everyone like a gentleman.

He thinks of you before himself, He serves you if he can; For in whatever company The manners make the man.

At ten or forty, 'tis the same, The manner tells the tale, And I discern the gentleman By signs that never fail.

A Scout is polite to his elders. For instance: If he is riding on a street car he will give his seat to his elders. He is always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need and thinks of everyone else before himself.

A Scout's self-respect will cause him to value his own standing and make him sympathetic toward others also, who may be, on the other hand, worse off, or, on the other hand, better off, as far as wealth is concerned. He never looks down upon any one who may be poorer than himself, or envy anyone richer than himself.

—Edited by Ruth Honeywell and Thomas Traver, Lake Township High School.

Parent-Teachers' Association

The Parent-Teachers' Association met in the school building on Monday evening. After the usual business was discussed an interesting talk on "Quarantine" was given by Dr. Swartz. He read the borough's laws and interpreted them. He conducted a discussion of their value and whose duty it was to report cases. By carefully following the borough and doctor's health rules it would be possible to eliminate epidemics in the future such as we had last spring.

Timely Topics From Beaumont High School

Bits of This and That Picked Up in the Classrooms by Marie Patton

Beaumont's happiest school days. Just think of the fun we are having in making out "Colonial" projects for history class. Every pupil has become so interested that we say this is the very time of our lives. Can you imagine that a short time we will be living in log cabins. The boys and girls are planning their costumes to be worn on their plantations. Just listen to what Beaumont has to say.

We believe in celebrating book week. Do we like to read? At least we will by the close of the week. Every pupil in high school is required to read at least one book this week.

Beaumont Notes

Letha Crispell is always flirting with the boys.

Marian Wall and Julia Mowry come to school every morning with a scowl on their faces.

Jonah Smith never chews gum in school.

Grace Patton always acts innocent. Alva Eggleston always gets 100 per cent in behavior.

Hazel Traver never laughs—she only giggles.

Chapel Speaker (after forty minutes of the usual blah)—And so at twenty I faced the world with fifty cents and a clear conscience.

Bored Voice (from the rear row)—And what happened to the conscience?

Bank Cashiers Appointed For Borough Schools

In line with the advance of women in all fields of business and civic activity, Dallas borough schools have also fallen before the onslaughts of the fairer sex. The school banking system is now completely controlled by the girls of the school. The following cashiers have been appointed. Each cashier has an assistant:

First grade, Myrtle Lamoreaux; second and third grades, Deborah Jeter; third and fourth grades, Helen Czuleger; fifth grade, Jeanne Disque; sixth grade, Ruth Hull; seventh grade, Lulu Baer; eighth grade, Jean Templin; ninth grade, Helen Zulenak; tenth grade, Eleoyne Templin; eleventh grade, Cloe Evans.

TO GIVE BENEFIT PLAY

Through the efforts of young men and women of Dallas a play, "An Arizona Cowboy," will be given December 11 and 13 for the benefit of the borough football team. The cast will be as follows: Phil Anderson, Jay Harris, John Gebhardt, Walter Wilson, Arthur Franklin, Irwin Coolbaugh, Paul Gordon, Altheta Holcomb, Jane Coursen, Dorothy Baird, Marie Woolbert.

High School Jokes

Prof. (to students in back row)—Can you hear me back there?
Students (in unison)—No!

He—Did you knock 'em cold in the Latin test?
She—Yes, I received zero.
Football is familiarly known as the ping-pong game.
