"Red" Svartz, Dallas 19

The annual Christmas vacation for the local schs will from noon December 24 to January 2, 1930.

Will Wimble the well known writer of "Seen and Heard" column, which appears elsewhere in this issue, is confined to bed with an attack of grippe. It is hoped that Mr. Wimble will be able to get around before the next issue of the Post, for his sayings in the column are very interesting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Weeks of Plymouth spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bunney during the week.

The Eversady Class of St. Paul's Lutheran church will hold a Christmas party at the church basement on Thursday evening, December 19th.

Supper a Success

The supper and supper and bazaar held by the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Paul's Lutheran Church last Tuesday evening proved a big success. A large number of local and out-of-town people attended.

There was a large assortment of articles disposed of at the booth which was in charge of Mrs. Charles Dressel and Mrs. George Norton. At the candy and Christmas card booth Mrs. John Batey was in charge.

The ladies who had charge of the meal were: Mesdames K. G. Laycock, Jacob Rau, John Eck, F. Kromelbein, C. Malkemes, Charles Ayers, Lemke, Drum and Ruff.

Waitresses were: Mrs. Monk, Mrs. Harimar, Viola Dressel, Dorothy Eck, Emmett Dressel, Mildred Bunney, Jean Davis and Mae Hontz and Betty Jane Laycock. Mary Jean Laycock sold tickets.

Auxiliary Party

The annual Christmas party of the Ladies' Auxiliary will be held Wednesday evening in the Lutheran Church basement. Mrs. K. G. Laycock and Mrs. John Batey are in charge. An exchange of gifts among members will be held and each article is to cost no more than 25 cents. A full attendance is urged and a good time is assured all those attending.

Auxiliary Supper Tuesday Night

While attending the supper the writer noticed the following people in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis of Wilkes-Barre, Captain Booth and Mrs. Booth of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Russ of Fernbrook, Z. R. Howsler, Hoicombs, Mr. and Mrs. William Ayer, Mrs. Herman VanCampen, Patrick Money, Elizabeth McAndrews, Dana-Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cottle, all of the Wilkes-Barre Times Leader staff, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Malkemes and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stroh.

Students Thrifty

That local students are thrifty is proven by a statement issued by the Luzerne National Bank, which shows the following figures:

School	Attendance	Dep.	Pct.
King, T. H. S.	151	151	100
King, T. Jr. H.	124	114	92
Trucksville	254	190	35
Shavertown	224	156	70

Rev. Ira Button occupied the pulpit at the Noxen M. E. Church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stitzer spent Sunday at Noxen, the guests of Mrs. Beulah VanCampen.

Basketball Attracts Many

Approximately fifty students reported to Coach Hazeltine Tuesday evening for basketball practice. Coach Hazeltine will select from this group a team that will be a credit to the high school.

Mrs. Harry F. Henry has returned home from General hospital, where she had an operation.

Miss Edna Hunt entertained members of her Sunday school class at her home recently. Refreshments were served to the following: Eleanor Courtright, Marguerite Button, Jean Keithline, Mildred Oberst, Beatrice Garey, Helen Garey, Grace Ferrell, Martha Honeywell, Mrs. Ross Anthony, Edna Hunt and Dorothy Greenfield.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hannigan of Forty Fort were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John DeWitt of Main street on Sunday.

Successful Hunters

Earl Keithline, Harry Coolbaugh, John Courtright and George Gimber of Kingston brought home two deer yesterday after spending a few days in the Poconos.

"Ted" Trumbower of Holcomb's shot a large deer while hunting at Tobyhanna on Saturday.

Scouts Hold Rally

The Dallas District Boy Scout Troops held the first rally of the district at the M. E. Church Monday evening. There were eighty-five present at the rally. Brief remarks were given by District Chairman W. H. Stang, Scoutmaster Keats of Troop 231, E. W. Guernsey, committeeman of Troop 231, Carl Moore, Scoutmaster Valley View 243, George Onbel, Troop 284, Glen View P. M. Church, Charles DeWitt, Troop 261, Trucksville M. E. Church.

The various troops went on a series of stunts which brought a big laugh from the boys present. Valley View troop put on a comedy sketch, Trucksville troop, an automobile act and the Shavertown troop put on the elephant ride.

John M. "Samson" Hewitt, Scout executive, Wyoming Valley Scouts, showed pictures of the Boy Scout Camp Acahela and a one-reel comedy.

The Dallas District Scouts will hold Court of Honor at Trucksville, February 5, 1930.

The annual winter camp at Acahela will open December 26 and continue for ten days. Any local scout wishing to attend should communicate with Elwood Swingle, assistant scoutmaster.

Starting January 1, 1930, and ending June 1, 1930, the Dallas district scouts will hold an inter-patrol contest. A silver loving cup will be presented to the winning troop.

The Kingston township high school band furnished music at the scout meeting. The orchestra composed of Bob Dana, drums; John Rice, violin; Ken Appleton, clarinet; Delmore Davis, saxophone and Ellalee Spemacher, piano.

Auxiliary Meets

The December meeting of the Shavertown branch of the Nesbitt Memorial hospital was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. W. Guernsey. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. H. R. Diese, and after the regular business was disposed of Mrs. H. W. Crosby gave two delightful readings.

Mrs. L. W. Tracy gave an interesting talk on her recent air trip from California to New York City accompanied by her son, Lee Tracy. It was completed in forty-eight hours by airplane during the day and Pullman train by night. She said it is one of the modern ways of travel today and the service and courtesy extended to passengers is complete in every detail. They had dinner Saturday evening in California and breakfast Monday morning in New York City, thus completing one of the most pleasant trips it has ever been her pleasure to experience.

Louis Dierolf, who was injured in a coasting accident on Friday is improving at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Calladine of East Dallas have taken up their residence with their daughter, Mrs. Edward Preston of Main street.

Mrs. Irom Myers was removed from the General hospital on Saturday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Myers, Main street.

During Christmas week a cantata will be sung by the choir of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and a program will be given by children of the Sunday school classes of the church. The choir will hold a rehearsal tomorrow evening. All members are requested to be present.

Ross Williams of Shaver avenue who was removed to a Philadelphia hospital, where he was operated on, has been removed to his home.

John Gallapher of Main street is able to be about again after being confined to his bed with a severe cold.

Dorothea Eck and Catherine Phillips represented the newly organized Girl Scout troop at a meeting held at the Minute Man Tea Room by members of the Scout Leaders' Association Wednesday.

The Brotherhood of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will hold its regular meeting in the church basement Monday evening. Nomination of officers will be held and a good turnout is urged. The names of Earl Monk, "Red" Schwartz and George Hunt have been mentioned as nominees for president.

SEEN AND HEARD

By Will Wimble

Local radio listeners would be well pleased if the person who owns that generative or squealer set, as it is sometimes called, would cease using it as it put a damper on local reception.

A number of expert window trimmers from Dallas stopped in town long enough during the week to trim up Earl Monk's large show window, and did they do a good job? Ask Earl, he knows. These two gentlemen were R. S. Stevens and his worthy assistant, William Rice of Dallas.

"Red" Schwartz was an interested spectator at the Boy Scout rally Monday evening. "Red" intended to attend the firemen's meeting, but on account of the few members present "Red" journeyed up to the church and he sure did enjoy himself. The writer was glad to see him there as were the boys, for they wanted him in the picture.

We wonder how Charlie Ayers was able to be present at the rally. Usually when you drop into Charley's cozy corner he would be sleeping or else he would be working on his Ford truck. How come, Charley? Truck working O. K. now? We hope to see you at the Brotherhood meeting Monday, Charlie.

Did you see Franklin Malkemes during the week trying to get his started for trips to market.

We wonder is Mr. Moolbert could see to it that a light could be placed at the corner of Franklin avenue and Chestnut street. People on their way to the P. M. Church and Lutheran Church find it very dark at this particular spot.

Mrs. Kathryn Malkemes, just appointed by Governor Fisher as Justice of the Peace of Kingston Township, has the distinction of being the only woman to serve such a position in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Malkemes was selected to serve as Justice after the death of her husband. Her selection for the appointment had the unanimous approval of everyone. The honor came entirely unsolicited.

When Mrs. Malkemes was informed over the phone of the appointment she thought she was being kidded. But when Henry Adolph spread the good news, Mrs. Malkemes was receiving congratulations from everyone.

Have you stepped into Earl Monk's storeroom yet? If not, you must stop in the next few days and look over the neormous stock of Christmas gifts that Earl handles. He also carries a full line of Christmas tree decorations and toys and games of all kinds.

Earl Monk has been busy the past week installing radio receiving sets in a number of homes. The way Earl is going about it it looks as though he has monopolized the radio business in this area. Atta boy, Earl.

The much-talked-of community Christmas tree will again be put in place at the corner of Main and Center streets.

Sheldon Roushey, the well known Black Bottom and clog dancer, has been laid up with a bad case of grip and has been missed by the boys up Fernbrook way.

Did you know that Sam Anthony and Ed Preston are two good bowlers, and Clarence Lasher is a great movie fan, and George Hunt is a good pinochle player, and Charles Ayers is a courteous "newsboy," and Johnny Jones is popular among the women, and Bert Hill is a good political orator and Hern VanCampen is the town's hard luck hunter, and that George Shaver is a good barber, and Howard Appleton is a hustler on the school board and that Lew Cottle is the best radio service man that Earl Monk could find, and Joe VanCampen is a rabid boxing fan.
