PANSY, SI OATS PRIZE COW, TOOK SICK ON ITS WAY TO THE COUNTY FAIR. FORTUNATELY, DOC GRAYES WHO RUNS THE DRUG STORE HAS ALSO MESSED AROUND IN VETERINARY WORK, SO WITH HIS KNOWLEDGE TOGETHER WITH THE ADVICE OF THE ONLOOKERS THEY WERE ABLE TO PULL PANSY AROUND O.K.

OF SOCIAL INTEREST IN AND ABOUT DALLAS

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shiber entertained Mr. and Mrs. Joe Westover and son of Kingstons and Alex Veitch and daughter Margaret at dinner on Christmas Day. In the afternoon there was Christmas entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Charles Johnson and Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson of Scranton spent the weekend at the home of Earl Monk.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Evans and sons, Stewart and Woodrow of Madison street, Wilkes-Barre, spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Case.

Mr. and Mrs. Baer of Center Hill road entertained their children and their respective families at a family reunion on Christmas day. They are the parents of eleven children. Four of them are married.

Mrs. Russell Case entertained Mrs. G. Harold Wagner and daughters, Beverly and Marian, and Mrs. Myron Steele and daughter Merle at dinner on Thursday evening. After Rotary the husbands joined the party for an evening's entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garbert spent several days this week in New York City. They met Mr. Garbert's sister, Mrs. Mary Dobson and her three children, who arrived Monday from England and will make their home at the Howard Warden farm.

Charles Detrick drove on Sunday to Mehoopany. He was accompanied by Russell Case.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Mt. Zion were guests on Monday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Monk. During the evening they became so enthusiastic over the Bremer-Tully radio they bought themselves a Christmas present and took it home with them.

Due to an error the name of Mrs. Ralph Brickel was omitted from the Post's account of the dinner given the Dallas high school football team last week at the home of Mrs. James Oliver. Mrs. Brickel and Mrs. Oliver were joint hostesses for this affair.

The name of Mrs. Francis B. Smith of Shavertown, associate matron of Dallas Chapter of Easter Star, was inadvertently omitted from the list of Eastern Star banquet committee members published in last week's Post. Mrs. Smith was chairman of this committee and was largely responsible for the splendid success of the affair. With her on the committee were the persons listed in last week's account of the Eastern Star banquet and all of the officers of the chapter who were ex-officio members of the committee.

WOODMAN, SPARE THAT TREE!

By George Pope Morris
Woodman, spare that tree!
Touch not a single bow!
In youth it sheltered me
And I'll protect it now.
'Twas my forefather's hand
That placed it near his cot;
There, woodman, let it stand,
Thy axe shall harm it not.

That old familiar tree
Whose glory and renown
Are spread o'er land and sea—
And wouldst thou hew it down?
Woodman, forbear thy stroke!
Cut not its earthbound ties;
O, spare that aged oak
Now towering to the skies!

Clear Waste
The rows of perforations cut between postage stamps yield four tons of tiny pinhead disks of paper a month, which appear to be entirely useless.

When but an idle boy,
I sought thy grateful shade;
In all their gushing joy
Here, too, my sisters played.
My mother kissed me here;
My father pressed my hand—
Forgive this foolish tear,
But let that old oak stand.

My heart-strings round thee cling
Close as thy bark, old friend!
Here shall the wild bird sing,
And still thy branches bend.
Old tree! the storm still brave!
And, woodman, leave the spot;
While I've a hand to save
The axe shall harm it not.
