During his term of office Senator A. J. Sordoni has worked for Luzerne County as a whole. Cities have not been favored at the expense of rural communities; neither have the urban communities been neglected. The Lehman-Pike's Creek road, Shick-shinny-Benton, Kingston Narrows, Harvey's Lake road, Kingston township road, Plymouth-Kingston road, the road eliminating the dangerous Edge Hill at West Nanticoke and the elimination of dangerous underpasses and railroad crossings on the Ashley boulevard and the new and shortened Hazleton highway were all Sordoni projects.—adv.
