Auxiliary to Hold Picnic

The Shavertown branch of the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will hold its annual picnic and covered dish luncheon on Friday, June 6, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Hildebrandt of Dallas. There will be a short meeting and following the luncheon there will be games and other forms of amusement. Those who have attended the picnic in former years will remember the good time which they always had at these affairs. This will be the last meeting of the season and it is hoped that a large crowd will be present at this time.

St. Therese's Parish to Conduct Rummage Sale

During the first week of June St. Therese's Parish is planning a rummage sale which will be held in the Poli theatre block, Wilkes-Barre. Any person who has any article for the sale will please notify the rectory at Shavertown and provision will be made to gather them; Miss Catherine Miller of Truckville has charge of the sale.

College Dance a Brilliant Affair

One of the most colorful affairs of the season was the dance and card party of the students at College Misericordia. It was the final dance of the season and had a splendid attendance.

Misericordia Wins Debate

Vanquishing the student team of Susquehanna University the debating team of Misericordia College won a notable victory when it successfully upheld the affirmative side of the proposition: "Should the United States Reject the Kellogg Peace Pact?" The members of the college debating team were Misses Margaret McNeaney, Catherine O'Donnell and Evelyn Franklin.

Girl Scout Exhibit

On Saturday at noon booths were opened at the Kingston Armory and in the evening the Golden Eaglets were awarded. The exhibition was the greatest ever staged by the Girl Scouts of Wyoming Valley and was free to the public. It was a splendid opportunity for the public to become acquainted with the scout organization. Hundreds of visitors passed the great array of booths during the afternoon and at 7:30 the exercises were the climax of this outstanding event. Awards to four champion scouts of the valley were made by Mrs. Edward Conrad, Wyoming Valley Scout Commissioner. The night program had the following features: Selections by Coughlin high school orchestra; Japanese dance by Troop 20 of Hill street school; corn dance, Troop 30, of Lehman; highland fling, Troop 30, of Luzerne; dance of the flowers, by Troops 6 and 33, of Nanticoke.

Mrs. Frederick Hillman, former council commissioner, presented the proficiency badges. In the afternoon several clever playlets were performed. Included were: "Why Milly Reformed," by Troop 50; "The Laws of Country," by Troop 27; "Spice Cakes and Tea," Troop 39; "Trefoil Ceremony," Troop 44; "Girl Scout Laws," Troop 46. Mrs. Hull had charge of the dressmaking booths of the Dallas troops and they were a splendid addition to the exhibit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hausen of Truckville motored to Honesdale on Sunday when they spent the day with Miss Loretta Steltz.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kuhl and son Bernard of Waverly, N. Y., spent the week-end with Mrs. Antanaitis of Mt. Airy Terrace, Shavertown.

Mrs. Raymond Perrego Entertained at Colonial Inn

Mrs. Raymond Perrego, whose parents recently announced her marriage at a shower given in her honor at her home, was again delightfully entertained by her friends at the Colonial Inn, Fernbrook. On Tuesday evening a variety and kitchen shower was tendered the young couple. They were the recipients of some very beautiful gifts. The tables were prettily decorated and a delicious dinner was served to the following: Miss Reba Stevens, Mrs. Perrego, Mrs. C. W. Fisher, Miss Lena VanTuyt, Miss Emily Goldsmith, Miss Hilda Ruggles, Miss Elizabeth Love, Miss Leona Robinson and Miss Margaret Wallace.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Frank McGarry of Truckville delightfully entertained the members of St. Therese's Card Club.

SEALED BIDS

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Directors of the School District of Dallas Borough, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, solicits sealed bids for the completion of three rooms, stairs, etc., in the new building recently built and belonging to the said school district on Huntsville street in said Borough of Dallas. Said rooms are to be completed in accordance with plans and specifications now on file in the office of Thomas Podmore, architect, Bennett building, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Separate bids will be received for (1) the completion of the three rooms and stairs; (2) the heating and ventilating; (3) and the electrical work. All proposals shall be sealed and delivered to the secretary of the School Board, J. F. Besecker, Lake street, Dallas, Pa., on or before Friday, the 20th day of June, 1930, at 5 o'clock, p. m. Each proposal for the completion of the rooms and stairs shall be accompanied with a certified check to the order of the School District for two hundred and 00-100 ($200.00) dollars to be retained by the School District in the event the proposal is accepted as security for the compliance therewith and to be returned upon execution of contract and bond in due course, otherwise to be forfeited to the School District; checks of unsuccessful bidders to be returned at once upon rejection of their proposals. All proposals shall be accompanied by a letter from a bonding company, authorized to do business in Pennsylvania, certifying that in the event the proposal is accepted the company will become surety on the bond of the bidder.

The School Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the School Board of the Borough of Dallas.

J. F. BESECKER, Secretary of the Board.
