Observe Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Kitchen celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Kitchen of Hillcrest avenue. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Verne Kitchen and children, Vera, Sara and Nellie, Mr. and Mrs. John Kitchen and children, Betty, Minnie, Florence and Ruth, John and Edith, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Kitchen and children, Beatrice, Verna, Doris, Gladys, Irene and George, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kitchen and children, Ray, Elsie, Mary Lilley Dorothy and Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Kitchen and children Jack and Arthur, Mr. Thomas Kitchen.

Entertains Girl Scouts

Louise Malkemes entertained members of the Girl Scouts, Troop 39, sponsored by the Lutheran church, at her home last Friday afternoon. Games were played and luncheon was served to the members that were present.

Joins Clerical Force

Robert Eck, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Eck of Lehigh street, has accepted a clerical position with the Glen Alden Coal Company, River street, Wilkes-Barre.

Margaret Coolbaugh of Forty Fort spent the past week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brace.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Monk and family spent Sunday with relatives at Pittston.

Unsanitary Bathing

A number of dams have been built by children in various parts of the town along Toby's Creek that are being used for bathing and wading purposes by children. This is a very bad and unsanitary form due to the large number of sewers that empty into the creek from points above. Parents should warn children not to use the creek for bathing.

SEEN AND HEARD

By Will Wimbles

The glorious Fourth is here. If you are an average American, here is a safe way you will celebrate today:

At 7 a. m., shut off the alarm clock and take another nap. 9 a. m.—Crawl out of bed and hustle downstairs for breakfast. 10 a. m.—Watch and help the children shoot their cap pistols so that they don't pinch their fingers. Noon—Eat dinner. 1 p. m.—Take a nap. 2 p. m.—Go to a baseball game, or swimming, or to the park, the movies or take the family for an automobile ride. At 6 p. m.—Eat supper. 7 p. m.—Loaf a bit and listen to the radio until it gets dark enough to shoot the night fireworks for the children, but see that no one gets burnt. Let's make it a safe and sane Fourth of July.

Sunday at 11 a. m. we started out on a drive towards Dallas. We turned right at Dallas, went on through to Kunkle and Beaumont, turned left at the cross road and stopped off at Orcutt's Grove for one of the delicious chicken dinners that is served there every Sunday. Boy, talk about your meal! Noxen may be noted for its tannery and good baseball players, but that chicken dinner we had last Sunday was the best that we had in some time. We loafed around until about 3 p. m. Then we started out for a ride which included the central part of Noxen. Not much doing in the old town. Must have been a ball game over at the Tannery. Mr. Phoenix and the minister of the Noxen church were the only persons we knew that were taking things easy on the front porch. Coming on to the Lake we noticed one party cutting his children's hair on the front porch. Nothing seemed to interest us more than a potato field that a party has planted on a mountain side. The plants looked strong and healthy. A boy was having the time of his life with a bird of some kind that would fly down near him and then fly back. It was either a kingfisher or a swallow that had a nest in that locality. Proceeding to the Lake we found the picnic grounds were packed with machines. On to Sandy Beach, more machines than at the picnic grounds. How they managed to get them all in there is some job. But getting out is worse. On we came until we stopped at Fernbrook, just as dead on Sunday as it is during the week. We then came on down to our resting place where this is being written and we wish that we had one of those chicken dinners before us now. We won't charge you for this publicity, Mr. Orcutt, if the editor does not use his scissors, for he hails from Noxen, too. We were on the watch out for him, but most likely he had his best girl out for an automobile ride. What say, Ris?

It must be true what Earl Monk told the writer about Fabian Odell having a girl, but we disagree with Earl. Fabian has two girls, for we saw him at the dance at Fernbrook Park last Saturday night. Whether Fabie did any dancing after we left we do not know.

Brick Roushey has an old woman chasing him at Fernbrook. Whether it is a man dressed up as a woman we do not know. But it is said that Brick just dreads it when she makes her appearance.

Miss Emma Odenkirchen with her father, Fred Odenkirchen, visited relatives in Warrior Run on Monday.

Miss Iris Kitchen, a student nurse at Wilkes-Barre General hospital, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Kitchen.

The Alderson Epworth League will hold a business meeting at the home of Misses Iris and Marjorie Kitchen on Tuesday, July 8, at 8 p. m. The business session will be followed by a social hour.

Because of the rain the lawn social which was held at the Ruggles church recently, was transformed into an indoor affair. Home-made ice cream, soft drinks, cake and peanuts were purchased and enjoyed by those who gathered in the Community hall. The Ruggles band furnished an excellent musical program.

Miss Dorothy Anderson is spending a two weeks' vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Anderson. Miss Anderson is a student nurse at Wilkes-Barre General hospital.

Miss Mary Kuchta and brother George spent Wednesday shopping in Wilkes-Barre.

Children's day at Alderson was a very successful one. This fact was made manifest by the many compliments which the able coaches of the children received. Due to the beautiful day many of the cottagers from about the lake were present. Edwin and Rohanna Shoemaker furnished the music for part of the program, while Genevieve York was piano accompanist for the pageant, "The Glittering Gate." Enoch Thomas very ably carried out the part of the Spirit of Knowledge. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers from the gardens of Mrs. A. A. Stall and C. E. D. Wood, E. E. Davis and several other persons donated flowers. A silver arch wound with red ramblers roses was the "glittering gate." Six small members of the cradle roll experienced their first graduation in white caps and gowns from the cradle roll to the primary department of the Sunday school. Many of the summer folk attended and enjoyed the program. Mrs. York, Mrs. Harvey Witchen and Bethie Allen are responsible for the success of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kasper and family have opened their cottage here.

It was thought last year that if Mary was modern she would not get her skirt wet when she attempted to go over the mountain, due to the briefness of it. But we fear that if Mary is in style this July 2, she surely got her skirt wet.

H. R. Garinger, our local butcher, has hired a new butcher for the summer months.

Glenn Kitchen spent Monday with his sister, Mrs. A. K. Harvey at Scranton.

Bathing Beach Completed

Under the direction of Arthur L. Stull, a bathing beach has been completed at the Alderson end of the Lake. The beach is fully equipped with a small pier, diving board and floats and is for the private use of Mr. Stull's family and their friends.
