MORE PRIZES THAN ACTIVE CANDIDATES—ENTER TODAY!

Those Who Enter Campaign Now Will Find "Easy Picking." Election Just Starting.

THREE CLOSED CARS OFFERED

Early Start Bound to Enhance Efforts of Workers—Spare Time Is All That Is Required.

How come? With The Dallas Post putting over $5,000 in big speedy handsome automobiles and cash, the great campaign has not seen candidates entering as they should.

Perhaps it is because the prizes are so stupendous that one can hardly believe it all. Anyway, no matter why, some one, maybe you, is losing a wonderful opportunity. Awards will be absolutely made, no matter whether there are 100 candidates or a half a dozen candidates.

Now, with few candidates entered is the time to cash in to get a lead. It is easy now. A worker, one with real ambition and pep, can take a lead that will be hard to overcome on the home stretch. More votes are given on subscriptions now than later. That, too, helps.

OPPORTUNITY FOR ALL

The pessimist sees only the hole in the doughnuts, while the optimist—well, you know the rest. Look for the beautiful if you would have it—cash in on the opportunities that are offered you if you would profit accordingly.

Such an opportunity—the equal of which has never been offered you before—is now being presented to you. In a few short weeks from now The Post will reward the energetic hustlers of this section, and the opportunity existing for more "live wire" campaigners to enter the election, and make themselves important factors and probable winners of the grand prize, is actually calling aloud. Why, it's anybody's opportunity for the big automobiles.

Here is an opportunity, surely for the man or woman who looks at a thing from a business standpoint and who arrives at a conclusion as to its merits by the way it appeals to them as a business proposition. Some two persons will earn $1,285 and $667, or $585, during their spare moments in the next few weeks. How's that for a business proposition?

ELECTION JUST STARTED

The competition, which is just starting, is open to any reputable man, woman or child in the community. Clip the nomination blank appearing in this issue, fill in your name and address and mail or bring to the election headquarters of The Post. This coupon entitles you or the person whom you nominate to 5,000 free votes and gives you a flying start on the road to success. Upon receipt of the nomination coupon at the office a complete working outfit, together with detailed information will be sent or given you.

Thus equipped you have but to see your friends and neighbors, relatives and acquaintances, and have them save the free voting coupons from the paper and cast their votes for you when they pay up their subscriptions to The Post. Votes will be allowed on all subscriptions, whether new or renewals.

Thus far very few persons have been nominated considering the number and value of the prizes to be distributed. There's plenty of room and there are plenty of prizes for more active candidates.

The campaign office is open evenings until 8 o'clock, phone 300.

Priest Rescued From Drowning At Harvey's Lake

Edgar Hughes, Chauffeur and Expert Swimmer, Rescues Man Near Summer Home of Senator Sordoni

Harvey's Lake almost witnessed a tragedy on Monday when Rev. Marzio Galoni, stationed at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel church, in Pittsford, narrowly escaped drowning in the lake near the summer residence of State Senator Andrew J. Sordoni. Edgar Hughes, chauffeur for Lieut. Gov. Arthur James, was the rescuer.

According to reports, Rev. Father Galoni decided to go fishing on Monday afternoon. He selected a canoe instead of a regular flat-bottomed boat. He fished for a short time and then decided, though a non-swimmer, to take a dip by holding on to the sides of the canoe.

The canoe escaped his grasp and drifted away, causing him to plunge beneath the surface. He was almost exhausted by his struggles when Hughes, who was driving by, heard his cries for help. Hughes, an expert swimmer, plunged in and succeeded in bringing the priest to shore. Dr. Harry Croop of Kingston, who also happened along, aided in restoring Rev. Father Galoni.

He was rushed to Nesbitt West Side hospital where he was reported to be doing well.

Cars Collide On Misericordia Hill

Aged Ford and New Erskine Coach Figure in Crash Near Dallas—One Man Injured

The spirit of antiquity as exemplified in an aged Ford coupe, and the spirit of modernity as represented by a shining new Erskine coach, came into abrupt conflict early Wednesday morning in the middle of Misericordia hill. Frank Harter of Fernbrook was returning from the Lake, driving the Erskine, in which were several passengers. Floyd Hoover was going in the opposite direction with one companion in his Ford.

The Ford is alleged to have been too far to the left of the highway, and the two cars met with a vengeance and crashed into the fence along the side of the road. The passenger in the Ford, one Smith, of Ashley, received a serious gash in the neck from the shattering glass, and was seriously in need of immediate medical service when he was picked up by a passing motorist bound for Harvey's Lake. The said motorist turned around, and with Smith in the car, retraced his course toward Dallas, where a physician was vainly sought. A search of Shavertown likewise failed to reveal a doctor at 2 o'clock in the morning, so the victim was taken to the West Side hospital in Kingston.

It was believed that the jugular vein had been severed, and six stitches were required to make the man once more intact. He is reported to be making excellent progress toward recovery. None of the others involved in the accident were injured.

Old Timers Win Another Game

Ruffs All-Stars Fail to Have Winning Punch—Lack Good Pitchers.

The newly organized baseball team of St. Paul's Lutheran church Shavertown crossed bats at the Weiss Farm at Dallas last Tuesday evening, with the Old Timers of Dallas.

The game was the first of three games to be played by the teams. Herbert Williams, manager of the Brotherhood team, was well pleased with its showing, and promises to give Dallas a beating next Tuesday. Bad pitching in the first innings of the game, coupled with some bad errors gave the Old Timers a lead hard to overcome. Anthony's stealing of second.

PROMINENT COUPLE WED AT HARVEY'S LAKE

Of first importance among Harvey's Lake social events last week-end was the wedding of Miss Marie Griffin and William Kirk. The ceremony was performed at 9:30 on the morning of July 5 with a nuptial mass in the Chapel of Our Lady of Victory at Warden Place. Mrs. Kirk is the daughter of Mrs. James E. Griffin of Hanover street, Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Kirk is the son of Mrs. Anna Kirk, and is office manager of the Old Homestead Baking Company. The Rev. Father D. W. McCarthy of St. Aloysius church officiated, assisted by Rev. Father J. J. O'Leary, pastor of the Harvey's Lake chapel.

The chapel was decorated in artistic fashion with ferns and palms; the altar was adorned with cut flowers and candles. Because of the recent death of the bride's father, an atmosphere of simplicity prevailed, and only the members of the families of bride and bridegroom and their intimate friends attended the ceremony, and subsequent breakfast at the Griffin summer home near Point Breeze.

The bride's only attendant and her maid of honor was her sister, Miss Kathryn Griffin. Best man was Dr. E. S. Dougherty, a cousin of Mr. Kirk.

Mrs. Kirk, socially prominent throughout the valley, was graduated from St. Ann's Academy, and Simmons College at Boston. Mr. Kirk is a graduate of Mount St. Mary's College at Emmittsburg, Md. The couple left soon after the wedding on a motor tour of the South and will be at home, 52 Roosevelt Terrace, after September 1.

Dallas Druggist Doesn't Play But Knows His Golf

Gustav A. A. Kuehn's Observations On the "Ancient and Honorable Game" Given Much Space in Wilkes-Barre Papers

For a long time we have wondered who the "Dallas Philosopher" was. Now we know, for this week in Wilkes-Barre papers we read considerable about his philosophy and much concerning his observations of the "ancient and honorable game of golf." And now may we introduce the "Dallas Philosopher" in the person of our esteemed townsman and druggist, Gustav A. A. Kuehn and give you a few of his observations on golf as they appeared this week on the sport pages of Wilkes-Barre papers.

The Sporting Editor, Dallas Post, Dallas, Pa.

I have often read and heard descriptions of the ancient and honorable game of golf. My interest was at last aroused and being unable to play myself, I went out and witnessed the game as it is played on a regulation course. The results of my observations and my personal reactions to this age-worn pastime may be summed up in the manner immediately following, and you are hereby authorized to publish the same verbatim if you so desire.

Golf is a form of work made expensive enough for man to enjoy it. The game is what letter-carrying, ditch-digging and carpet-beating would be if these three tasks had to be performed on the same hot afternoon in short pants and colored socks by men who would not otherwise walk a block to see the Statue of Liberty sit down.

It is the only known game that a man can play for twenty-five years and then discover that it was too deep for him in the first place. There are eighteen greens on a golf course; each green is a small parcel of carefully selected grass costing about $1.67 a blade and usually placed between a brook and several unfinished excavations by some fiend in human form, doubtless chief adviser to Satan.

After each hole has been played the golfer adds up his score, subtracts four and says: "Made that one in par, shall we play for fifty cents on the next hole, too, Ed?" A peculiarity of the game is that even expert mathematicians cannot add above eighty-seven on a golf score card.

At the end of each game the golfer joins the others in the locker room, sings "Sweet Adeline," then goes home and spansks his son for telling lies.

Very truly yours, GUSTAV A. A. KUEHN.

COMMUNITY DANCE AND MARATHON TO BE HELD AT WARDAN PLACE

The Warden Place Improvement Association will hold its third annual community dance at the Casino on July 24. This is always a successful affair, eagerly anticipated by residents of the Warden Place community.

In connection with the dance there will be a marathon race around the Lake. The winners of the first three places will be presented with silver trophies and all those who finish the marathon are to receive bronze medals.

Contestants who have so far signified their intention to enter are Anthony Sheldon, G. J. Bargar, Charles Ginter, John Suda, John Petrasek, Archie Vincent, Charles Marr, Edwin Dierolf and William Lewis.

IREM TEMPLE

The Irem Country Club reports a week-end of feverish activity over the Fourth of July. At a dance on Friday evening there were more than two thousand people. Five hundred made up during the afternoon and evening at the club's picnic ground in which to eat basket lunches. The capacity of the clubhouse was taxed to the limit by the presence of regular club members and out-of-town guests.

Aquatic sports in the swimming pool after dinner included fancy diving exhibitions by Alson Meredith, Ruth Brown and George Dean.

The women's golf team is to play a match with the women from Fox Hill club today.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Corey Major announce the birth of a son.

Lake Protection Ass'n To Plan For Membership Drive

Plans For Campaign To Increase Membership of Protective Organization Will Be Revealed Soon

Thomas L. Varker, assistant secretary of the Harvey's Lake Protective Association, and A. S. Galland, chairman of the membership committee, met Tuesday night at the Galland cottage to discuss plans afoot for the forthcoming drive to increase the membership of the association. Plans for the campaign will be formulated and revealed within the next week.

The Harvey's Lake Protective Association was formed in 1919 by Attorney Lawrence B. Jones and A. S. Galland to combat the prevalence of the swiftly invading disorderly element of week-enders and holiday revelers who so effectively disturbed the peace. The first important move of the association was to have established at the Lake a station at which were located several State police officers. Because of the additional expense of maintaining these officers at the Lake the association defrayed all the excess costs from its membership dues. After several seasons, the men were needed elsewhere and the Lake was once more threatened with a lack of police protection.

Appropriations were at once secured from Lake and Lehman townships for the establishment of a permanent year-round police force, to have authority not only at the Lake, but over the entire territory of both townships. The money thus collected was still insufficient, by nearly two thousand dollars a year, to meet the expense of maintaining four officers during the summer and one throughout the winter. The association makes up this annual deficit.

In addition to its functions of maintaining law and order, the Protective Association, through its roads committee, of which Arthur Stull is the chairman, has been influential in improving the condition of many roads leading to the Lake and connecting it with nearby communities. It possesses a pulmotor, which has been of priceless service in the resuscitation of nearly-drowned persons, of whom there are always several during every season.

YOUNG WOMEN PICNIC AT FERNBROOK PARK

The Young Women's Missionary Society of the Dallas M. E. church held its picnic at Fernbrook Park on Tuesday evening and a splendid time was had by all who attended. The prizes for three-legged race were won by James Ayre and Harold Titman. The women's prize for the same race was won by Margaret LaBar and Eleanor Machell. The Goofy Golf was won by Edna Woolbert.

Those who attended were: Barbara Hoffmeister, Marguerite Frantz, Edna Woolbert, Helen LaBar, Mrs. Margaret LaBar, Mrs. Ruth Lewin, Mrs. Ruth Carl, Eleanor Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Shaver, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson, Faye Whipp, Mrs. Donald Frantz, Mr. and Mrs. Zel Garinger, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shiber, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Niemeier, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dungey and son Jack, Mrs. A. D. Hull, Mrs. Sterling Machell, Eleanor Machell, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baker and son Billy, Mr. and Mrs. James Ayre and daughter Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Niemeier, Mrs. Clara Ayres, Mrs. Laura Patterson, Mrs. D. F. Westover and son Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Titman, Lester Lee, Emily Wallace, Beth Love, Mrs. Charles Meyer and son Gordon, Margaret Veitch, Ethel Price, Ruth Waters and Josephine Stein.

CHILDREN HAVE PART

Daniel Warner, son of Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Warner of Warden Place, Harvey's Lake, was host at a luncheon for his Sunday school class on Wednesday.

The luncheon, chicken and waffles, was served at the Lakeside Inn. The color scheme of the table decorations was pink and white, the centerpiece being a large bowl of pink roses. Favors were Eversharp pencils and novelty packages.

A tour of the Lake by boat had been planned as entertainment but heavy showers prevented it, so games were played instead.

Guests were: Robert Avery, Otis Allen, Emory Kitchen, Elwood Condon, Eliot Enders, all of Alderson; Roland and Augustus Neland, Scranton; Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Harvey Kitchen and Mrs. W. S. York.

MAGICIAN AT LEHMAN

Edward D. Young, the famous magician, will give an evening's entertainment of magic, mirb and mystery in the Lehman church basement on Tuesday evening, July 15.

Mr. Young gave one number of the lyceum course last winter. He will not repeat that performance but all will have seen a new program.

FANS ENTHUSIASTIC AS DALLAS DEFEATS STRONG ASHLEY TEAM

WE'RE SORRY

Bill McCollum of the Wilkes-Barre Record says that the Espy Fire Company, before its demise, held the world's record as the only fire company that ever attempted to put out the Northern Lights. A printer's devil in the Post's printing office also lays claim to a record and the distinction of being the only man in Luzerne county who ever attempted to change one man into another personality. Last week under the caption, "Exonerated County Officials and Trial Judge," the Post ran the pictures of a number of county officials recently exonerated of conspiracy by the Luzerne county court. In the place allotted to the picture of ex-County Controller Harry Butts, appeared the picture of ex-Sheriff Remmel LaBar. In some mysterious manner, known only to printers' devils, who know nothing of county personalities, Mr. LaBar's picture was substituted for that of Mr. Butts. Although many miraculous changes have been made at times in the methods of spelling and sentence structure, the printer's devil until last week had been able to get pictures in the paper straight. Perhaps four at one time were too much for him. At any rate last Saturday was a busy day around the Post office for most of the day was spent in answering telephone calls from readers who wanted to set the editor right on the pictures and names of ex-county officials. To Mr. Butts and Mr. LaBar the Post offers its apologies and to our readers congratulations for being quick to discern mistakes.

Hackling, Reese, Doyle, Roach and Feldman Stand Out in First Game of Second Half

HEIGHTS HERE SUNDAY

Billy Thomas Promises a Winning Team if Fans Will Do Their Part in Supporting Local Team

Dallas Athletics under the management of Jay "Billy" Thomas, won the opening game at Ashley last Sunday. The wonderful work of Roach, the 15-year-old high school boy, who has performed at Dallas for two games, was the feature of the game, while Hackling and Doyle made a combination that will cause plenty of trouble for the balance of the season. Hackling caught a fine game, while Doyle at first and as captain proved master of the situation from the beginning. The score:

Old Home Day Leaves Guests Enthusiastic

Many Express Hope That Event Will Be Forerunner of An Annual Reunion

With people arriving from far and near, the Old Home Day of Alderson M. E. church, which Wednesday threatened failure because of the rain, went over the top yesterday with almost 150 people in attendance. Enthusiasm and general good-will predominated the occasion as old friends were greeted and former acquaintances renewed.

Dinner was served at noon by the Ladies' Aid Society to about 125 people and supper at 6 p. m. to a number almost as large.

Rev. C. B. Henry, who was pastor at the Lake at the time of the erection and dedication of the church, was present with his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Henry are now Shavertown residents.

A general sentiment was expressed by those present relative to an annual reunion.

HIKE TO POSTEN'S POND REPEATED BY SCOUTS

Dallas Girl Scouts again hiked to Posten's Pond this week. They left the home of their captain, Mrs. A. D. Hull, at 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning. All scouts who attended reported that they enjoyed the hike, the swimming and the picnic luncheon as much this week as last.

Three guests, Lois Williams, Elizabeth Phillips and Gertrude Kintz, accompanied the scouts.

In connection with reports of local scout campers at Camp Onawandah, the Post wishes to make a correction. Lillian and Dorothy Spencer will attend camp for two weeks beginning July 19, and Betty Jane Cook will attend for one week beginning the same date, instead of vice versa, as stated in the Post last week.

Scouts who went to Posten's Pond this week were: Betty Cook, Martha Ruff, Margaret Culp, Helen Girvan, Ruth Kintz, Eleanor Murphy, Jean Tamplin, Kathryn Davis, Theta Mead, Elizabeth Girvan and Ruth Hull.

DEATH OF FRANK MASCARI

Frank Mascari died Wednesday morning at his home at Alderson following an illness of complications. He was sixty-three years old, the father of Samuel and Anthony Mascari, Wilkes-Barre wholesale produce merchants. Mr. Mascari was formerly himself engaged in the wholesale produce business in Syracuse, N. Y., and moved to Wilkes-Barre two years ago after his retirement. He has since then resided with his children.

Beside Joseph, Samuel and Anthony, his survivors are his widow and the following daughters: Anna, Mary, Victoria, Florence, Alice, Mrs. Joseph Carto and Mrs. Sullivan Pierce. The funeral will be held from 47 Thomas avenue Kingston, on Saturday morning. The remains will be buried in Syracuse.

Dallas Township School Board Holds Meeting

Taxpayers Petition Members To Exercise Economy in Improvement Program For the Coming Year

The filing of the report of the 1929 duplicate of Jhon Anderson tax collector, was the principal business transacted at the Dallas township school board meeting held last Monday evening.

Due to the filing of land returns, unseated lands and double assessments, Collector Anderson reported a collection of $8,000 of uncollected taxes which were returned to the county commissioners. This amount usually reaches about $5,000 each year, and the large increase is due to unseated lands, the owners of which are not paying their taxes but are leaving them to accumulate against the land in question.

With the new system of assessments, G. Harold Wagner, assessor, will no doubt eliminate this continual trouble of double assessments.

To Solicit Bids The board agreed to advertise for competitive bids for the plastering of the room in the new high school. This advertisement will appear in another part of the Post.

Petition Presented The taxpayers of Dallas township, with Del Honeywell as spokesman, presented a petition signed by a majority of the taxpayers of the township, asking the school directors to exercise great economy in the contracting of expenses for the coming year. The board accepted the petition in good faith and informed the taxpayers present that they had conditions in mind and were striving to handle the affairs of the district economically, and that only the improvements immediately necessary are planned for the coming year.

The board announced that in compliance with their policy of economy, that the janitor of the high school at would be temporarily suspended for at least the summer months which would mean a saving to the school district of practically two hundred dollars. Various small bills were ordered paid.

LOCAL DOG A WINNER

R. M. Stapleton, well known Luzerne druggist, who entered two male Boston terriers, Stapleton's Drugs and habit at Johnstown on Friday, captured two prizes. Drugs won first prize in the junior class and Rowdy won second.
