SHAVERTOWN

By "RED SCHWARTZ"

Auto Attracts Attention

The curiosity of pedestrians along Main street one night last week was considerably aroused when a demonstrator of the American Austin, the smallest manufactured today, stopped off for a few minutes at the drug store on his way from Nanticoke to Harvey's Lake. Scores of people viewed the car which is being shown and sold by a dealer at Nanticoke.

LOUIS MARINOS DISPLAYS OLD GREEK COINS

Summing up his discussion, Mr. Marinos says, there are joys to be found in both countries. Each has its fine qualities Americans see more, travel faster and make more money, but the Greek lives longer, takes life slower and appears happier.

LUZERNE STANDS AS GATEWAY TO WYOMING VALLEY

been induced to take over the main street of the borough and will soon resurface it. The community has purchased a new fire truck and the borough council through careful planning and foresight has eliminated many of the old drainage hazards in sections of the borough where for years every rain storm left streets inundated with water. The main factors which are giving Luzerne a natural business leadership, are its location on the only main highway leading from the "back mountain region" into the Wyoming Valley; the progressive and courteous spirit of its businessmen; the up-to-dateness of its stores, and the fact that a suburban population wants to do its purchasing quickly and wants to keep away from heavily trafficked streets. Plenty of parking space is available in Luzerne and the fact that "red tickets" are not given to women, children and men who park their automobiles in Luzerne while they are shopping has done much to put and keep Luzerne in a position as the leading business town of the West Side and has made it an increasingly popular trading place for the rural-suburban population of the "back-mountain region."

A PATRIOTIC COCKTAIL

One part tomato juice, one part milk and one part bluing. That gives you a red, white and blue base. Then add sixteen bottles of three-star brandy. That gives you the forty-eight stars. One jolt of this patriotic drink and it is impossible to stand up, even for "The Star-Spangled Banner."
