BROTHERHOOD TO HELP NEEDY

At the meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Paul's Lutheran church held recently, plans for the helping of needy families here for the holidays were discussed. A committee consisting of Charles Dressel, Charles Ayers and William Deirohlf were named to make baskets. All members of the Brotherhood agreed to bring to the meeting Monday evening money or foodstuffs for the cause. Any one wishing to donate money or foodstuffs can do so by getting in touch with the above committee or any of the members of the Brotherhood.

Election of officers for the coming year also took place with the following result: President, Lewis Cottle; treasurer, K. G. Laycock; vice-president, John Eck. The office of secretary has not been selected, due to the lateness of the election of the above named officers, this office will be voted on at the meeting on Monday night. Earl Schall and Robert Eck were nominated, but due to there not being a three-fourth majority the election will again be held.

At a meeting on Monday a debate on the question of: "Shall the Communities of Dallas, Shavertown, Trucksville and Parts of Dallas Township Combine Into One Large Community?" The affirmative side of the question will be taken by L. T. Schwartz and Robert Eck and the negative by Charles Ayers and William Deirohlf. The public is invited to attend the debate.

THEY BAGGED THEIR DEER

George Shaver and Herman Van Campen, of Shavertown, spent several days last week hunting in Pike county. Both these hunters returned with a deer, the buck of Mr. Shaver weighing about 175 pounds, while of Mr. Van Campen weighed close to 200 pounds.

Orb Trombower, who while hunting with his father shot a 10-pronged buck at the Pocono's last week. It weighed about two hundred pounds.

MUSICAL FOR NEEDY

Prof. Ernest Wood's Male Chorus will give a musical for the benefit of the needy families of the community at the local M. E. church on Friday evening, December 12. A silver offering will be taken up which will be used to make baskets of foodstuffs for them. The public is invited to attend this musical. Prof. Wood will render several selections on the organ.

SCHOOL BOARD REORGANIZES

The Kingston Township School Board held a re-organization meeting at the Trucksville school house last Monday evening when Wilbur G.

Nichols was elected president for the coming year in place of Joseph Schooley. Edwin Hay was elected vice-president, and Granville J. Clarke was retained as solicitor for the board.

An appropriation of $100 was made for the Trucksville and Shavertown school libraries, which will be used to purchase books.

Tax Collector Neyhart turned over to the board $700 in collections.
