

Teachers Marry Directors Worry

These complaints, with preface, as presented by Mr. Beehler, were as follows, and will be given careful consideration by the Board at a future meeting after Mr. Beehler has presented a written statement of his complaints to the School Board:

"To the members of Dallas Borough School Board: Your president and other members of your Board have asked me to present tonight any complaints which I may have against the schools. I have lodged complaints with members of your Board, but I understand that these are not considered formal complaints and before they can be considered must be made to you as a Board. With this in mind, I respectfully present the following:

1. That your schools are inefficiently managed, in substitution of which I add the following: A. Dispensing with mathematics period and substituting musical show rehearsals; B. The failure on certain days to have a competent teacher in charge of second-year students because the regular teacher must teach gymnasium during this period, leaving second-year students in charge of high school students not trained as teachers; C. Six history books for 25 children.
2. That children of a tender age are taught unnormal subjects under the guise of civics; i. e., the Dfley murder case.
3. Your principal has resorted to browbeating of your complainant's daughter because your complainant lodged complaints with one of your membership.
4. That your principal practices and permits corporal punishment of a most brutal nature for minor infractions.
5. That your principal is guilty of teaching children of tender age to misrepresent facts; i. e., A. School banking, urging deposits by all children, even if withdrawn the next day; B. When student's account was credited with more than amount deposited, student was informed that that was his good fortune.

Thom Higgins has charge of the prescription department in Stapleton's new drug store recently opened on Pierce street in Kingston. The new Stapleton store is one of the most modern to be found in this section of the State. Besides a large prescription department the store handles a large line of merchandise of the type usually found in drug stores, but with this exception—most of the lines are those of nationally known manufacturers. The soda fountain is of beautiful mosaic pattern and Mr. Stapleton has received hundreds of compliments on its beauty and completeness since the opening store. The new store building was built under the personal supervision of L. A. McHenry, of Dallas.

DISTANCE MAKES LITTLE DIFFERENCE TO CLASSIFIED

John Williams, of Main street, Dallas, is an enthusiastic user of DALLAS POST classified ads and why shouldn't he be? Last week Mr. Williams advertised an electric motor for sale. Wednesday morning he received a letter from Beech Creek, near Punxtatnowey, Pa., buying the motor and asking that it be shipped immediately.

For the information of prospective advertisers THE DALLAS POST is preparing affidavits of the results obtained by users of the classified columns and of display advertising in THE DALLAS POST. THE POST has proved itself an unusual advertising medium. Live wires know it. Audited circulation and affidavits of results obtained from advertisers should convince the skeptics.

Scouts Are Ready For Big Festival

Local Girl Scouts Will Sing Welsh Songs in Native Costumes At the 'Festival of Youth' to Be Held in Wilkes-Barre

Local people are interested in the "Festival of Youth," which will shortly be presented in Wilkes-Barre by a cast of a thousand Girl Scouts, when they will depict with much grace and charm the costumes of many countries by portraying same with folk songs and dances.

The pageant has its chairman Mary McAniff, a member of the Wyoming Valley Council Girl Scouts, and who is assisted locally by representative people including Mrs. Vester Vercoe, Mrs. A. D. Hull, Miss Lenore Robinson, Mrs. F. U. Zimmerman and Misses Frances Keeler and Beti. Williams, who have coached the cast members from this district for the past two months.

A pantomime by Girl Scout troops in Trucksville, Lehman and the Goss School will represent a spinning group as our neighbors from the East; Girl Scouts of Dallas and the Shavertown Methodist church will sing a Welsh air geared in costumes of that country.

Scouts of Troop 7 Dallas, taking part in the Spring Festival, will meet at the local trolley station at 11:30 Saturday morning in costume. Cars will be provided to take them to Meyers High School, Wilkes-Barre, for rehearsal.

Rockne's Death
The football world in general and Notre Dame University in particular, will be a long time recovering from the untimely death of Knute K. Rockne, one of the greatest grid coaches of all time.

Rockne's personality, his ability to mould winning teams and develop players, have stamped him as one of football's immortals. As a figure, Rockne furnished sport pages with more good "copy" than probably any one athlete today. His utterances were eagerly sought and his sensible advice generally heeded.

The great Rockne was almost a legendary person so great were the deeds of his football teams. It is doubtful if the void he left at Notre Dame will ever be filled as Rockne filled it.

Rockne was to football what Christy Mathewson was to the baseball game ten years ago. Both were masters at the game and idols in the true sense of the word.

Today's Storytette
"Red" Wilson tells one about a chap who bet his friend $10 that he couldn't say the Lord's Prayer.
"I'll take the bet," said the one whose memory was questioned.
"All right, go ahead," said the man offering the bet.
"Now I lay me—" began the gentleman.
"Give him the money," the first individual said, interrupting, "I didn't think he knew it."

Baseball
Candidates have been called out at the various high schools in this section. Larger squads have turned out than in previous years and better teams are expected to represent the schools this year than last. After such a successful basketball season enjoyed by all local schools in the season just closed, the boys are ready to give their best, if not better in baseball.

As yet nothing has been announced as to whether or not the Bi-County Baseball League will again be organized. If it does not, Dallas borough will have intermural games.

Opening league games of the high school baseball teams were postponed Friday due to rain.

It is reported that a junior baseball league is in the making. The league will be made up of teams from Idetown, Dallas, Fernbrook, Shavertown and East Dallas. Lacey Williams and Elwood Swingle are backing the Shavertown team and Jack Roberts the Dallas boys.

Opening games of the Rural League composed of Dallas, Idetown, Beaumont, Meeker, East Dallas and Shavertown, will get underway tomorrow with Shavertown playing at Beaumont, Dallas at Idetown and East Dallas at Meeker. Harry Allen, of Alderson, is president of the league and Tommy (Old Reliable) Reese is secretary-treasurer.

Another plot that is being thought of is the Mitchell plot at the top of Centre street. If this can be secured, Shavertown folks will have an opportunity of witnessing Sunday baseball games.
