LOCAL GIRL SCOUTS IN JOINT PICNIC

Camp Osawandah will be directed by Edna Reese, of the Girl Scout organization, and she will be assisted by many capable young women who have had experience and training in various lines. The program at the camp will be somewhat changed this year as the camp which is divided into four groups will be conducted as four troops, namely, Wa-Bay, where the youngest girls will live in screened cabins; Mirmich, the next oldest group will be in tents; Kearsage will be composed of girls and each will live in small Adirondack cabins on a pine hill and the oldest girls will live at Ledoit. The unit will form their own program of nature lore, scout craft and dramatics and will take hikes and have swimming parties under trained supervision. Miss Helen Paxon, Philadelphia, will be in charge of the swimming and will organize a life saving crew composed of Junior Red Cross Life Savers; Miss Paxon will be assisted in her program with Red Cross Life Savers and Examiners.

Miss Audrey Jones, a graduate of Riverside Hospital, St. Joseph's of Scranton and the Woman's Hospital of New York will be in charge of first aid and the health of the camp. Miss Jones is well known locally and has been camp nurse at the Y. W. C. A. summer camp for four years and, also at the Hammond, Indiana Girl Scout camp.

Other members of the camp staff include: Misses Elizabeth Musgrave, Agnes Jones, Helen Mulligan, Geraldine Daley, Virginia Davies, Mary Eyer, Marjorie Brown, Cornelia Moon, Marie Farr, Frances Brumbaugh, Margaret Beseker, Gwennie Ross, Mrs. Warren Culp and Mrs. Charles Johnson. The camp buglers will be Ruth Troutman, Louise MacCleery, Lenore Morris and Betty Brotherton.

A large number of registrations have been received for the camp and all Girl Scouts are urged to send them in early as applications are filed in the order of their receipt and girls who are particularly about the time they want to camp are oftentimes disappointed because the camp is full.

Local leaders of troops will attend a week-end for women interested in scouting to be held at the camp June 26, 27 and 28, when captains, lieutenants and committee women from troops under the Wyoming Valley Council will meet together for discussion of the program.

HIT BY AUTOMOBILE WHILE AT PLAY

John Beehler, Aged 7, Lake Street, Received Head Injuries And Many Body Bruises

Running in front of an automobile on Lake street, Dallas, while playing with another boy, John Beehler, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Beehler, was knocked down receiving head injuries and body bruises which necessitated several stitches in his lacerated scalp and subsequent X-ray examination at a Wyoming Valley hospital.

Oliver Ellsworth, the driver of the machine which struck the boy, placed him in his automobile and took him at once to the office of Dr. G. A. Swartz, where the injured lad received treatment.

Steamer Baskets

WAY out in mid-ocean, sitting on deck with hours of leisure and miles of blue skies and water before you—isn't it a glorious feeling to open a steamer basket from some one back home? Delving down into a gay reed basket you pull out tiny jars of marmalade, treasure chest tins filled with assorted candies, a glistening package tied with gauzy ribbon that yields dates and figs, another candy tin which yields a mint assortment—endless interesting wee bundles—and what is this rather bulky package not professionally wrapped but somehow more interesting than all the rest? Home-made goodies! Far away from home, it is the very best of all.

Week-End Boxes, Too

When you pack that steamer basket for some friend, don't forget cookies, or cakes or candies which you made yourself.

the most graceful gift to the hostess, a date loaf cake, a jar of fruit cookies, or a box of nut panache gives a personal note.

Here is a delicious cookie recipe which can be packed in a pretty tin box, tied with a malmie bow and will hold first place in the week-end box or steamer basket.

Cocoonut Burs: Cream one-third cup of shortening and three-fourths cup of sugar, add one well-beaten egg, then one-third cup of canned raspberries mashed, but not sieved. Add one and one-half cups of pastry flour, one and one-half teaspoons of baking powder, one-fourth teaspoon of soda and one-fourth teaspoon of salt. Add one cup of bran and one cup of moist cocoonut and chill. Drop by small spoonfuls on a greased pan, about two inches apart. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for about ten minutes. This makes three and one-half dozen.

BURIED LAST FRIDAY

The funeral of Miss Susanna Warden was held last Friday afternoon from the late home in Dallas. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Frank D. Hartsock, of Dallas M. E. church. Two selections, "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Rock of Ages," were sung by Mrs. Ethel Oliver and Ralph Brickel.

The pall bearers were: David Block-sage, Paul Shaver, Rube Shaver, Sterling Machell, Harry Anderson and Zel Garinger.

IDE FAMILY REUNION

The annual reunion of the Ide family will be held at Farmers' Inn on June 27. All relatives and friends are invited to attend.
