

Brilliant Wedding Held At Ruggles

The Marriage Of Miss Lucy Hoover and Robert Traver Solemnized June 30

The marriage of Miss Lucy Hoover, of Ruggles, to Robert Traver, of Noxen, took place on Tuesday evening, June 30, at 8:00 at the home of the bride. Rev. W. S. York, pastor of Alderson M. E. church, performed the ceremony.

The room in which the ceremony took place was banked with evergreens. An arch was formed of evergreens and white flowers. Suspended from the center of the arch was a white bell. In front of and on either side of the arch were placed baskets of red roses and silver candlesticks with white candles. Bouquets of laurel, daisies and roses were charmingly arranged throughout the house.

Before the ceremony Frances Fisher Perrego, a cousin of the bride, played "Love's Golden Hour." To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March the bridal party entered the room.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, James Hoover. Pearl Edwards, of Bloomingdale, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Isabelle Traver, of Kingston, sister of the groom, and Sarah Major, of Lehman, a cousin of the bride. Dorothy Jones, small cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Michael DelKanic, of Sweet Valley, was best man.

The bride wore a gown of white satin created on princess lines and a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds and baby breath and a single strand of pearls. The maid of honor wore a gown of green chiffon with lace insets and a headband of rhinestones. Miss Traver wore coral pink chiffon and a headband of pink velvet, while Miss Major wore Alice blue chiffon with a headband of blue velvet. Their dresses were fashioned on the same lines. Each wore a bouquet of rosebuds. The flower girl wore a frock of baby blue georgette. She carried a basket of rose petals.
