SHRINERS TO HOLD PICNIC AUGUST 19

Shriners of Irem Temple will hold the annual picnic for their families and immediate relatives at the country club on Wednesday, August 19. A program of athletic and swimming events with dancing in the afternoon and evening, golf, fireworks, life-saving exhibitions, aeroplane stunts, swings and chutes for the children and other special features will be offered.

Festivities will start at 2 P. M. with a barrage of bombs followed by a display of daylight fireworks. Prizes will be awarded to the winners in the various athletic events as well as to the oldest Shriner, the Shriner coming the longest distance and the Shriner having the largest family present. Free dancing in the pavilion will start at 2 and continue until 5. A small charge will be made for dancing in the evening.

During the day tickets entitling the holder to ice cream and coffee will be distributed to all entering the grounds and each child will receive a balloon. Bus service between the country club and Dallas meeting all cars will continue from 10 in the morning until early in the evening.

An indication of how heavy and congested the traffic is through the West side borough has been offered by Norman Johnstone, secretary of the Wyoming Valley Motor Club, who on July 4 clocked 4,500 automobiles through there during an hour.

Mr. Lewis stated that the matter has been before the highway department for some while and expressed his eagerness to see construction started by next spring. He instructed Jesse S. Ritchey, division engineer, to make a detailed survey and report to him.

Milk Cut Blow To Farmers

A cut of 25 per cent per quart on sweet cream announced July 1st by Sheffield Farms Company, Inc., a unit of National Dairy Products Corporation, was termed by Fred H. Sexauer, president of the Dairymen's League Co-operative Association, Inc., as "the worst blow to progress of eastern agriculture and industry in a decade." The price reduction put into effect by Sheffield Farms, if passed on to the farmer, will lower their return for milk going into cream nearly $1 per 100 pounds.

Hawaii Chose the Most Splendid Fruit

THE first pineapples grown in Hawaii were not the splendid variety of Smooth Cayenne which is the basis of the Hawaiian canning industry today.

The Smooth Cayenne is a splendid pineapple, which grows uniform and vigorous, and which, when ripened in the sunshine, has a generous quota of fruit sugar.

Back in 1886, when there was no pineapple industry at all, the pioneer Captain John Kidwell began to grow pineapples to ship fresh to the mainland, but he found that the fruit that grew in Hawaii was of poor quality. So he sent to other places for their best pineapples and discovered the Smooth Cayenne. This variety is the basis of today's pineapple industry which had its inception about thirty years ago, and it has grown so spectacularly since that time that it is now producing pineapples in such quantities that they may be placed on every table at a price which makes them an economical food.

Kidwell's idea, however, of establishing a business of shipping fresh pineapples to the mainland, died a speedy death, since a pineapple to have its full quota of fruit sugar must ripen in the sunshine, and pineapples to be sent to the mainland had to be picked green, and ripen in the dark holds of vessels, which robbed this fruit of much of its distinctive and delicious taste. For pineapple picked green anywhere fails to develop the same sugar content and hence the flavor and sweetness of pineapple allowed to come to full maturity on the plant.

A Problem Solved

But there was a solution, and it came soon. First one and later several companies took to canning pineapple because that proved to be the only way of getting the sun-ripened fruit to market, filled with healthful vitamins and its full quota of fruit sugar. The first shipments were small, but the fruit was soon canned in increasing quantities because the public took to it from the first. The more they ate, the more they wanted, and the value of the industry has grown from a nominal sum at that time to an annual total of about forty million dollars.

It couldn't have done that without a delicious tropical fruit, sun-ripened, and a scientific method of getting it to market.

Some Pineapple Recipes

Hawaiian Layer Cake: Cream one cup butter with one cup confectioner's sugar, and add two and one-fourth cups flour and three and one-half teaspoons baking powder, sifted together; fold in the stiffly beaten whites of eight eggs and bake in layers in a slow oven, 325°, for 20 to 25 minutes. For the filling beat six egg yolks, three-fourths cup sugar and three-fourths cup butter in top of a double boiler until thick and creamy. Chop three-fourths cup of nuts and add with three-fourths cup of dates and three-fourths cup drained pineapple, and cook again until thick. Cool and put between layers of cake.

To make the icing, mix together three tablespoons pineapple syrup, two and one-fourth cups confectioner's sugar and two tablespoons butter, and stir smooth. Cover top and sides of cake and decorate as desired with nuts and dates.

Chocolate Pineapple Slices: Melt four squares of chocolate in a double boiler, add one-third cup of peanut butter and stir until well blended. Add three-fourths cup of confectioner's sugar and three-fourths cup of evaporated milk and cook until thick. Drain eight slices of Hawaiian pineapple and dip each one in the chocolate until well coated. Place one slice on each small serving plate, sprinkle with chopped salted peanuts, and place a marshmallow in the center. And here is a good one for a party breakfast.

Pineapple French Toast: Boil the contents of one 8-ounce can pineapple tidbits, one-fourth cup of orange juice and one-fourth cup sugar mixed with two teaspoons flour for several minutes. Beat one egg slightly, and add one-half cup milk and one-eighth teaspoon salt. Cut four thick slices of bread in one-inch squares, dip in the milk and egg, and sauté on both sides in a small amount of butter in a skillet. When well browned, arrange on small serving plates and pour over the pineapple sauce. Serve hot. This will serve four people.
