Shavertown vs Beaumont

Shavertown will make a hard effort to get even with Beaumont at Shavertown tomorrow, that is, it is probable they will, you can never tell in baseball.

Williams' men have their backs to the wall. They must win tomorrow or suffer a loss of prestige. They think they should have taken last week's game.

Shavertown feels it can defeat Beaumont and the Beaumont boys know their good, and like all other clubs are stronger in a short series of games, than in a whole season.

But baseball fans live in the present. What happened last week doesn't matter; what's going to come next week, isn't the important thing. It's tomorrow's game that counts. If Shavertown wins they will be lions, if they lose they will be like a bunch of lobsters.

That's the way its going to be with Williams' team. They must defeat Beaumont or lose out for the championship of the league.

Valuable For Shavertown

A player who is quite valuable but regarding whom not much has been written this season is Herb Ray, catcher for the Shavertown team.

Manager Williams' boys were hard behind the bat, due to injuries and inexperienced men, such as Kitchin, and Platt, so Herb Williams got Ray to fill the gap. He hadn't been playing much since he was with Dallas a few years ago, and Herb Williams didn't quite know how he was going to make out.

But Herb began hitting. On two or three occasions in the recent sensational drive that won second place, Ray drove in many runs. He was always good in a pinch.

However, not many hurrahs were given about it. When the team played away from home, not many people knew that it was Herb who was driving in the runs. Perhaps it was because out of town scorers confused him with Al Metzgar. Did you ever notice how much alike they look when standing at the plate

Shavertown's Strong Finish

Shavertown's driving finish has been the latest feature in local league baseball.

When the season started, the Shavertown team lost game after game, though nearly always by a one run margin. Then, during most of the mid-season they waged a nip and tuck race with Idetown for last place, it was a see-saw between the two.

Finally they put on a spurt which stretched over seven games, beating off all the strongest contenders. East Dallas which was set back in the string of victories, Beaumont was deferred in its hopes, Dallas was conquered and Hunlock's Creek fell. But it is clear that Shavertown put on a real winning streak at the end, perhaps the longest made by any local league club during the season.

Shavertown didn't make its spurt by bringing in a number of outside players. Its team is somewhat of a patchwork pattern. It has a few men drawn from other local clubs of 1930, players like Bert Stitzer, Krumbelbin, Case, and Bernie McNelis. The rest of the team although not drawn entirely for Shavertown's vicinity consists of young players for the most part.

"Woodie" Travis and "Al" Metzgar are Shavertown's youngsters; "Bill" Thomas is a kid from Trucksville, Bert Stitzer is a veteran from Shavertown as the same goes for Herb Ray, Glen Bulford and "Lefty" Thomas hall from Trucksville, McNelis from Fernbrook, Hod Woolbert from Shavertown, and Abe Winters from Shavertown. Winters, as far as we know, is a Dallas boy, and he's a honey. He has been one of the distinct surprises of the 1931 season. He is a fast outfielder and it was his bat which drove in most of the runs in recent operations. It is possible that he heads the Shavertown list, and the team is heavily indebted to him for its success.

When Thomas was not available for mound duty, Abe would take the slab and gave a good account of himself, although at times being a trifle wild.

And then there is manager Herbert Williams. He was handicapped most of the season by deserting. More than once Shavertown didn't know where it was going to get nine players that were eligible to be put on the field.

Such a condition is fatal to team work.

But Mr. Williams kept on plugging. It is safe he planned and controlled every move. It is said, too, that some of the strategy employed by Williams was suggested by "Duke" Isaacs, and Harley Mission.

At any rate Shavertown began to win, consistently as soon as they had a definite lineup.

They have reason to be congratulated by the fans of Shavertown and by themselves on their strong finish.

The BEST Gray Hair Remedy is Home Made

To half pint of water add one ounce bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It will gradually darken streaked, faded or gray hair and make it soft and glossy. Barbo will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.
