LETTERS .... TO THE

(Coneinued from Page 2) ing the administration of our present laid off, pending the arrival of the principal, many reports have gained tar machine. circulation about mistreatment of pupils, improper class schedules, woeful lack of tact in handling students, poor co-operation between teachers, pupils and principal, several teachers in one of the principal several teachers in one tion. of the primary grades, I think the Justice of the Peace, Wayne Canfield

I have personally seen and inter- be heard Saturday. viewed parents of pupils who have er's hair pulled out by a courageous sylvania, to qualify young men for the teacher (of about twice the weight of merchant marine.

Now I do not want you to believe that I am against proper punishment of pupils but when the teachers are told or at least led to believe that they should instill the fear of "Reporting Under the direction of Mrs. H. L. to the principal" in the minds of the pupils in order to have the proper decorum in the class room, rather than handle their own trivial cases, it then have the proper at the pupils in order to have the proper decorum in the class room, rather than handle their own trivial cases, it then have all be given as soon as possible. Parts the proper to the direction of Aris. H. L. Dailey, Mrs. Ethel Jackson, Mrs. Munpupils in order to have the proper decorum in the class room, rather than handle their own trivial cases, it then the direction of Aris. H. L. Dailey, Mrs. Ethel Jackson, Mrs. Munpupils in order to have the proper decorum in the class room, rather than the direction of Aris. H. L. Dailey, Mrs. Ethel Jackson, Mrs. Munpupils in order to have the proper decorum in the class room, rather than the class room, rather than the class room as possible. Parts of the class room are proper decorum in the class room, rather than the class room are proper decorum in the class room, rather than the class room are proper decorum in the class room, rather than the class room are proper decorum in the class room, rather than the class room are proper decorum in the class room, rather than the class room are proper decorum in the class room, rather than the class room are proper decorum in the class room, rather than the class room are proper decorum in the class room are comes to my mind "Are the present have all be assigned, and practice will teachers so unqualified to handle pupils and especially those of the minor grades, that the principal must have an be assigned, and place the names begin soon. Following are the names of the cast, in order of their appearance: Miss Florence Weaver, Miss Ruth Montross, Miss Verna Brunges, enforce discipline." This I do not be-lieve as I honestly think that the Laurence Munyon, Leland Gay, Miss teachers in the local schools are capable and efficient in practically every Dymond, Miss Eveland Shook.

This then brings to my mind the one Public Officials and only cause of present conditions. IMPROPER ADMINISTRATION OF SCHOOL AFFAIRS, be it the fault of the board or be it the fault of the principal.

can be charged to the present Board here because it shows what can be acof Directors when they have exceeded complished by courageous newspapers their legal borrowing capacity to the cpinion prevelent in Luzerne county extent of several thousand dollars. that newspapers are powerless to com-This alone is sufficient grounds to bat the forces of evil and special pribring ouster proceedings which I be-lieve are in the making. lieve are in the making.

Very truly yours, A Borough Taxpayer.

HUGE TASK IN DROUGHT AID MET BY RED GROSS

as these past twelve or more months eight years.

will be known to future generations, wrought great damage to millions.

Charges are Assistant District Attor-Not alone did the crops, which were new Ralph J. Rinalducci, Chief of Poburned in the fields in twenty-three states, in the summer of 1930, deprive Joseph Trunk. Evidence showed they assaulted William Campbell, a negro several million persons of food, but held on suspicion of having taken part the drought disaster continued in the in a bombing last May, in an effort to summer of 1931 in the northwestern make him confess. It was testified states, and also brought other minor that he was also given a "gnost' catastrophes in its wake, such as for scare in which a state trooper is al-

the American Red Cross launched, in August, 1930, its first moves for relief of the drought-stricken farmers, and when an item appeared in the Ambler year were there fewer than 70,000 association was investigating. persons being aided and at the peak of the relief work on March 1, last, more than 2,000,000 persons were being helped tended relief in parts of North Dakota, an editorial. Washington and Montana, where resources of hundreds of families were E. S. Moser, of the Colledgeville Inde-

This drought relief presented the greatest task that has ever been undertaken by the Red Cross as a peace. Finally financial support was obtaintime activity. The Mississippi Valley flood of 1927, while more spectacular, because homes and possessions were lating the Volstead Act. the number of people who suffered because of the drought.

In addition to the broad program of drought relief still being carried chairmen, in regard to unemployment relief: "Where there is suffering and want from any cause and the fundamental local needs are not being met, Chapters may participate in the community plans for meeting the need."

Some type of general family relief, whether for the drought victims, the unemployed or the war veteran and his family, were carried on by more than 3,000 Red Cross Chapters last year, Judge Payne said.

extended following last summer's is being given to ex-service men and several hundred Chapters are taking locally in their communities' relief editor." measures are activities of the Red Cross, national and local, which have met and are meeting some of the serious needs of the present situation."

Centremoreland

Mrs. Eugene Shook is spending the ....EDITOR week at the home of Mrs. H. L. Dailey. week at the home of her daughter day with relatives in Reading.

The entire State road force has been evening in the church.

"4tr," and many othrs of which I am sure there must be at least some grounds. in behalf of John Shook, issued a war-rant on the three supervisors, charging them with "assumpsit." Case to been abused and even to the extent William Hilton Long, returned to of a fractured jaw which one pupil the School Ship, Annapolis, at the received at the hands of the princi-Another has been kicked, anoth- is maintained by the State of Penn-the pupil) and many other of less importance.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church presented a very elaborate program

Jailed By Two Suburban Editors

I believe improper administration The following item is reproduced Thanking you for the courtesy of the editor of the Post. We take this opportunity to congratulate him on his splendid stand to maintain the old tradicions of journalism. As you read this item, remember that these two little country newspapers accomplished their splendid work right at the front door of the metropolitan newspapers of Philadelphia.

Third degree methods have gone out of fashion in Montgomery County, a Relief Given to Distressed Helps populous district adjoining Philadelphia, as the result of a courageous crusade waged by a small county daily in Meeting Serious Situation,
Chairman Payne Says.

Chairman Payne Says.

Chairman Payne Says.

Crustate waged by a small county, and a country weekly. The two papers were practically alone in their ngnt, which climaxed in a verdict of guilty against three public officials "The year of the great drought," who each face maximum sentences of est fires, and the grasshopper plague. leged to have taken part. Then Camp-More than a year has elapsed since bell was freed and he threatened lein that time more than 2,750,000 per- Gazette saying Campbell was recoversons were given food, clothing, med- ing from injuries caused by police ofical aid, shelter or other type of as. ficers. The North Penn Reporter folsistance. At no period during this lowed with a story that the local bar publication was followed by hints from public officials that it would be "dangerous" to continue handling the story. The Reporter refused to be intimidat-Today, still as a result of the bar association report was being ed and printed the inside story that drought, the Red Cross is giving ex side-tracked, criticizing the delay in wiped out this past summer, when a pendent, printed an interview with second and more severe spell of dry Campbell, giving his side of the case weather was prolonged in that region. and denouncing the officials in a blised and Dennis A. O'Neill, a Norristown attorney, was engaged. and calling for relief of a costlier type, and arresting him on crarges of viocountered by raiding Campbell's home swept away, affected hardly one-fourth was released on $2,500 bail after three weeks' fight by the two papers. Three lays after he was freed the three officers were arrested.

Rumors late in August that the case on, John Barton Payne, chairman of would be "hushed up" aroused the two the American Red Cross, has given newspapers, which were still fighting the following suggestion to Chapter the battle alone, to renewed action, the Reporter calling the prosecution a "public protest against hideous lawlessness by officers of the law" and insisting upon a full, fair and public trial as a matter of public policy and in justice to all concerned. Indictments were returned and the three men convicted by a jury.

Commenting editorially it a "notice by the jury that constituverdict, the North Penn Reporter calls tional guarantees still apply in Montgomery County." It further commen-"The drought relief work of 1930- ted that: "The defense sought to cre-31," he added, "the relief now being ate the impression that the prosecution had its origin in politics. drought, principally in Montana and ing, however, could be farther from North Dakota; the assistance which the truth. The case was published in their families; and the part which news and displayed in proportion to its importance, in the opinion of the

> The achievement of the two small down country papers is the more notable in view of the fact that even during the trial Norristown and Philidelphia newspapers confined their reports to news of the trial.

-Huntsville-

tained at a birthday dinner on Tues- Nora May Brown. Mrs. Paul Kostenbander spent Sun- Bulford, who celebrated his seventy- served at the annual chicken supper League 6:45 p. m. Christain Church, lay with relatives in Reading.

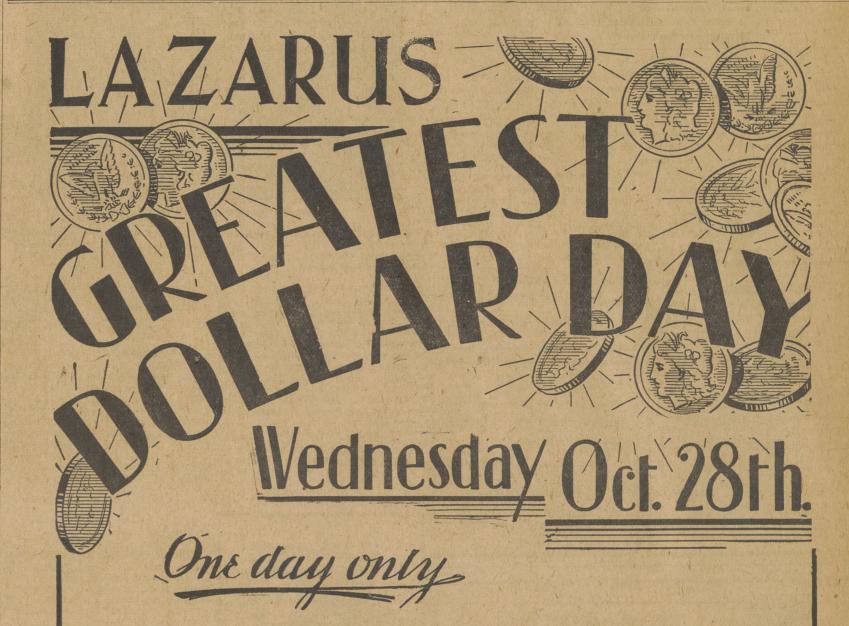

Members of the B. A. Class of the who attended: B. Frank Bulford, Mrs.

served at the annual chicken supper in the M. E. church over eighty dollars who attended: B. Frank Bulford, Mrs. M. E. church will meet this Friday, Clarence Elston, son Harold of this clear was realized, to be used for re- School, 10:30 a. m. Christain Endeaplace, Miss R. Elizabeth Breckenridge, gular expenses.

Mrs. C. R. Splitt of Jackson enter- Mrs. O. L. Harvey, Mrs. Fred Riley, Church service Sunday, M. E.

day in honor of her father B. Frank A hundred and sixty uersons were Sunday School 10:30 a. m. Epworth church, Morning Worship, 9:30 a. m. vor 6:30 p. m.

Lazarus' October Dollar Day is Wyoming Valley's premier one-day sale event; the day in which we repeatedly break our own records for doing the largest volume of business. This year will be no exception. This event brings prices that are without precedent . . . they are the lowest for quality merchandise in our history. Be here early for the best values . . . arrangements have been made to give you the usual Lazarus prompt service . . . Extra salespeople . . . Extra wrappers . . . Extra cashiers . . . Extra delivery facilities. It will be impossible to fill phone orders on Dollar Day merchandise.

If You Haven't A Lazarus Charge Account-Open One

If you desire the use of a Lazarus' Charge Account . . . to use on Dollar Day . . . and thereafter . . . come in some time before the day of the sale . . . or on the day of the sale . . . and make your applications ... You will find it a great aid to your shopping pleasure.

All Charge Purchases Made From Monday, October 26th to October 31st Go to November Statements

Take advantage of this extraordinary offer ... You may shop to your utmost satisfaction . . . all this week, and the merchandise will be billed to you as of November 1st . . . It is distinctively an opportunity that we know our thousands of Charge Customers will appreciate.

Drive Here And Park Your Car FREE In The Parking Station Adjoining Lazarus Northampton Street Entrance

You may park your car free in the station adjoining our Northampton street entrance, present your parking check to the salesperson from whom you make your purchase, and it will be stamped and returned to you.

LAZARUS

WILKES-BARRE, PA.