

Benton

A dinner was giving in honor of Ira McHenry of Benton, who observed his 87th birthday, Wednesday, October 14. Mr. McHenry is a well known undertaker of that place and is in exceptionally fine health. He is about every day and often cuts wood and does other chores around the home.

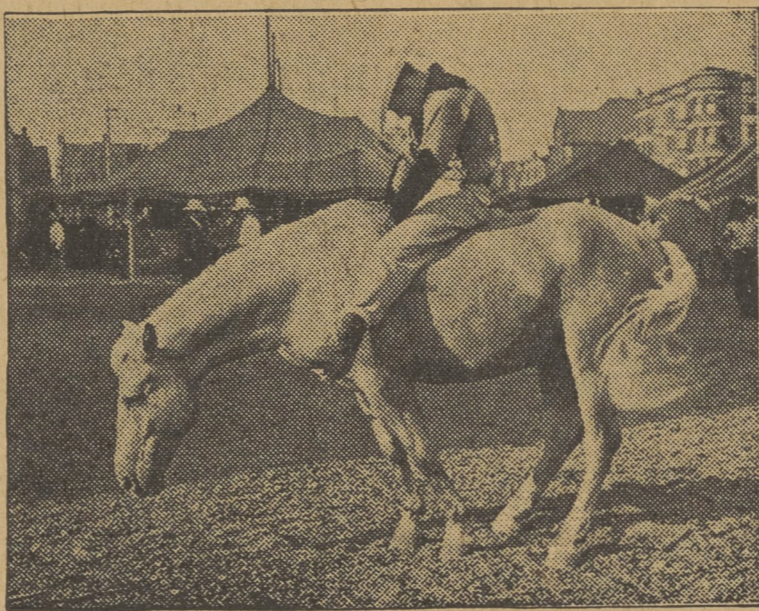

He still has a great love for hunting, and he has informed members of his family that he intends to go deer hunting again this season.

Mr. McHenry has always taken an active part in the welfare of the community, having acted as Burgess and serving as a member of the Benton Council for a number of years. He is a charter member of the Benton Cemetery Association and is the only surviving member of the original board of the organization.

Dinner was served in the evening with an attractive color scheme of pink and white. There was a birthday cake bearing eight large candles and seven smaller ones representing the 87 years.

Guests attending were as follows: Children—Mrs. Jessie Long, Mrs. Daisy Miller, of Dallas, Mrs. Irene Sims, and Jay McHenry. Grandchildren—J. Don Miller, Mrs. Phillis Dum-bauld, of Baltimore, Md., Ira McHenry, Jr., Betty McHenry, Mrs. Roy Ikeler, Millville, Willard McHenry Sims, a student at Syracuse University. Great grandchildren—Bernard Ikeler, Betsy Ikeler, of Millville; and Bobby Miller. Others attending were: Ben Mr. and Mrs. T. Carl McHenry, Wilene J. McHenry, Miss Myrtle Crossley, McHenry, Mr. and Mrs. Dyer McHenry, of Orangeville; Mrs. J. B. McHenry, of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord McHenry, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of Orangeville; Mrs. Myrtle Kline, Stillwater; Roy Ikeler, Millville; Mr. and Mrs. Roy McHenry, Benton; Mrs. Zell Kinsley, Cambra; Mrs. O. D. Hagenbuch, Stillwater; Mrs. May Manchester, Cambra; Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Van Horn, Churchville, N. Y.; Mrs. Madge Brittain, Cambra; Mrs. J. Don Miller, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Meeker, Miss Eva McHenry, Harvey Sims, Mrs. Jay McHenry.

A WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP RODEO OPENS

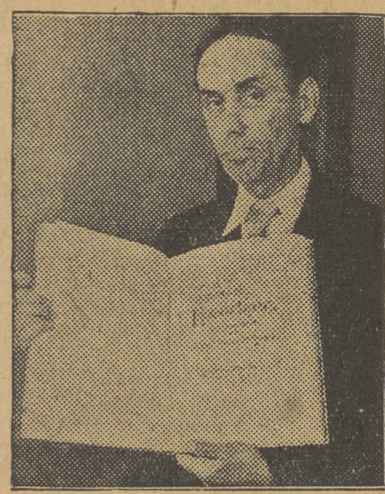

Harly Murphy and "Buck" who are to take part in the championship rodeo tonight at the Chicago Stadium, are posing to represent a famous painting, "The End of the Trail." Rough riders will also perform in championship events.

Dallas Plays

At Tunkhannock

(Continued from Page 1) though a short time in the game. Later he received a broken nose.

The line up.
 Ashley Dallas
 Left End
 Chubrick K. Bestedei
 Left Tackle
 Steinburg C. Besteader
 Left Guard
 Ryczcki Jeter
 Centre
 W. Moyles Braco
 Right Guard
 Gogolski R. Brisque
 Right Tackle
 Nakcaski Rodgers
 Right End
 O'Connell Sutton
 Quarterback
 B. Moyles K. Disque
 Lethalf
 Magjnis Labar
 Fullback
 Campton VanCampen
 Right half
 Eberts Coolbaugh
 Score by quarters:
 Total
 Ashley 0 7 6 18—31
 Dallas 0 0 0 0—0

OLYMPIC INVITATION TO PRESIDENT

Signed by Governor James Rolph, Jr., Mayor John C. Porter, Henry W. Wright, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, and William May Garland, president of the Los Angeles Organizing Committee, chairman of the California Olympiad Commission and senior member of the International Olympic Committee from the United States. The invitation is hand lettered and on sheepskin; it required more than a month of work on the lettering alone. The letters are of the modified Roman type and are illuminated. President Hoover is expected to be in Los Angeles July 30, 1932, to formally open the Games. Photo shows Martin J. Jackson, artist, who did the lettering, and his finished work.

Cooperative Leaders To Meet At College

(Continued From Page 1)
 John H. Lestor, Marketing specialist,

Federal Farm Board; Summation of Membership Discussion in This and Prior Conferences—Dr. F. F. Lininger, Professor of agricultural economics, the Pennsylvania State College; What a Cooperative Purchasing Association Can Do to Help Farmers—W. C. Neeces, manager, Cumberland Valley Cooperative Association; Business Meeting.

Annual Banquet, 6:30 y. m.—Speaker Dr. C. J. Galpin, chief, division of Rural Sociology, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture.

Local Man In $114,500. Suit

(Continued from page 1)
 would get it; that they complained to Mr. Kiefer who had vouched for the honesty and respectability of Harrison.

Further the attorney said they would prove that at a conference of the local men with Mr. Harrison in New York he had given them checks for the money they claimed but that the checks were not honored at the bank for lack of funds. Then he said, they had a conference in this city about Christmas, 1929, and on January 7, 1930, the local men went to New York City, saw Mr. Wells, a representative of Harrison, and that the latter secured a note purporting to be signed by Harrison for the $114,500 and indorsed by Mr. Kiefer and others, payable in thirty days to Attorney Ross Lynn. When presented at maturity to the Lawyers Trust Co. of New York it went to protest. The suit against Mr. Kiefer for the value of the note followed, and the attorney concluded by saying that if these facts were proven they would expect a verdict for the full amount, with interest.

Ross Lynn, the plaintiff, was then called and told of receiving the note. Percy A. Brown testified to his business dealings with Harrison, the checks which were worthless, and the final making of the note, which was indorsed by Mr. Kiefer.

The case for plaintiffs temporarily ended with this and Attorney Frank A. McGuigan, one of counsel for the defendant, outlined the case for the defense, that while he admitted the making of the note, he alleged that fraud was perpetrated by the beneficiaries, that Harrison was subjected to threats and intimidation and was forced to make the note and induced to have Mr. Kiefer indorse it. He said he proposed to prove this by the depositions of Harrison.

Mr. McGuigan took the witness stand and read sixty-two interrogations of Harrison in prison. Many of these were objected to by Mr. Slattery and other attorneys representing the plaintiff, but most of them were admitted by Judge Jones. In these Harrison admitted knowing Mr. Kiefer for many years, that he had business dealings with Messrs Brown, Mailander and Miller, that he married the stepdaughter of the latter, admitted the conference with plaintiffs in New York and this city, and that he was forced to make the note and secure indorsers.

When Attorney McGuigan completed his reading of the interrogatories, they were admitted and a statement read to the jury that Harrison was not placed in prison by any act of the plaintiffs, and his imprisonment had nothing to do with the present case. It is understood that he was convicted in New York on a charge of larceny.

H. C. Eichhold of New York City was called in behalf of the defense and admitted he went with Harrison to Mr. Kiefer to secure the latter's indorsement on the note and that he himself was the second indorser. On cross-examination he said he was in business with Harrison and invested with the latter.

Attorneys F. P. Slattery, Sr., Ross Lynn and F. P. Wheaton represent the plaintiff, and attorneys James D. Murray and Clarence Nutt of New York City, and Attorneys F. A. McGuigan, Paul Bedford and B. R. Jones, Jr., appear for Mr. Kiefer.

THREE LEGGED HERO

"Buddy" is a three-legged police dog but he played the role of a hero in a little drama Tuesday morning winning the plaudits of his many admirers in Shavertown.

For months "Buddy," who is owned by Herman VanCampen, has been limping about Shavertown as the result of an automobile accident in which he lost a front paw. At first his owner provided him with a leather foot but "Buddy" would rather limp than be bothered with a "wooden leg." And there was no getting out of it. "Herm" couldn't do away with a dog that had "Buddy's" qualities.

Early Tuesday morning thieves entered the Geyer store next to VanCampen's restaurant where "Buddy" was sleeping, but the big fellow wasn't sleeping just then, and soon things began to happen that stirred the neighborhood. For the third time in his life "Buddy" was there to sound the alarm that drove the thieves into a hasty retreat. Seventy cents was all the thieves got, but a three-legged police dog got an extra portion for breakfast and a lot of extra pats that told him there's some place in the world after all for a dog that's got three legs.

THOMAS' RESTAURANT

77 MAIN STREET
 Formerly Weidners Lunch

Home Cooking
 Special Dinners
 Home Made Pies
 Just Like Home.

Phil and Letha Will Be Glad To See You

Phone Kingston 7-9422

Headquarters for Barrels, Crocks and Preserving Supplies. Large stock on hand.

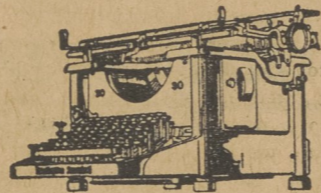

ZIMMERMAN'S Variety Store

90 Main St. Luzerne, Pa. King. 7-3013

VOTE FOR CLARE WINTERS
 FOR CONSTABLE of Dallas Township

At The General Election, November 3, 1931

A home town boy, home owner, taxpayer and ex-service man, possessing an enviable record for honesty and deeply interested in affairs of the community. One whose knowledge of the law acquired while in business associate of his grandfather the late squire Charles H. Cooke will stand him in good stead to serve you in an efficient and intelligent manner. Nominated on Republican and Democratic tickets in the Primaries.

REMINGTON and UNDERWOOD

typewriters at reduced SUMMER PRICES. 45 typewriters to select from, $20.00 up. This is the chance you have been waiting for.

HOLDREDGE TYPEWRITER CO.

56 W. Market St., Wilkes-Barre
 H. J. HOLDREDGE, Prop
 Zinn Street Trucksville, Pa.
 PHONES
 W.-B. 3-0615 DALLAS 254-R-2

LARE'S MARKET

188 Main Street, Luzerne

Chuck Roast
 16c^{lb}

Shoulder Roast
 19c^{lb}

ROLLED
Rib Roast 1b 23c

STEWING LAMB
 9c^{lb}

SHOULDER LAMB
 15c^{lb}

Leg of Lamb 1b. 23c

ALL PORK SAUSAGE
 23c^{lb}

2 lb PAN SCRAPPLE
 25c

Pork Loin 1b 17c

BROAD VEAL CHOPS
 19c^{lb}

SHOULDER VEAL ROAST
 16c^{lb}

Butter 2 lbs 69c

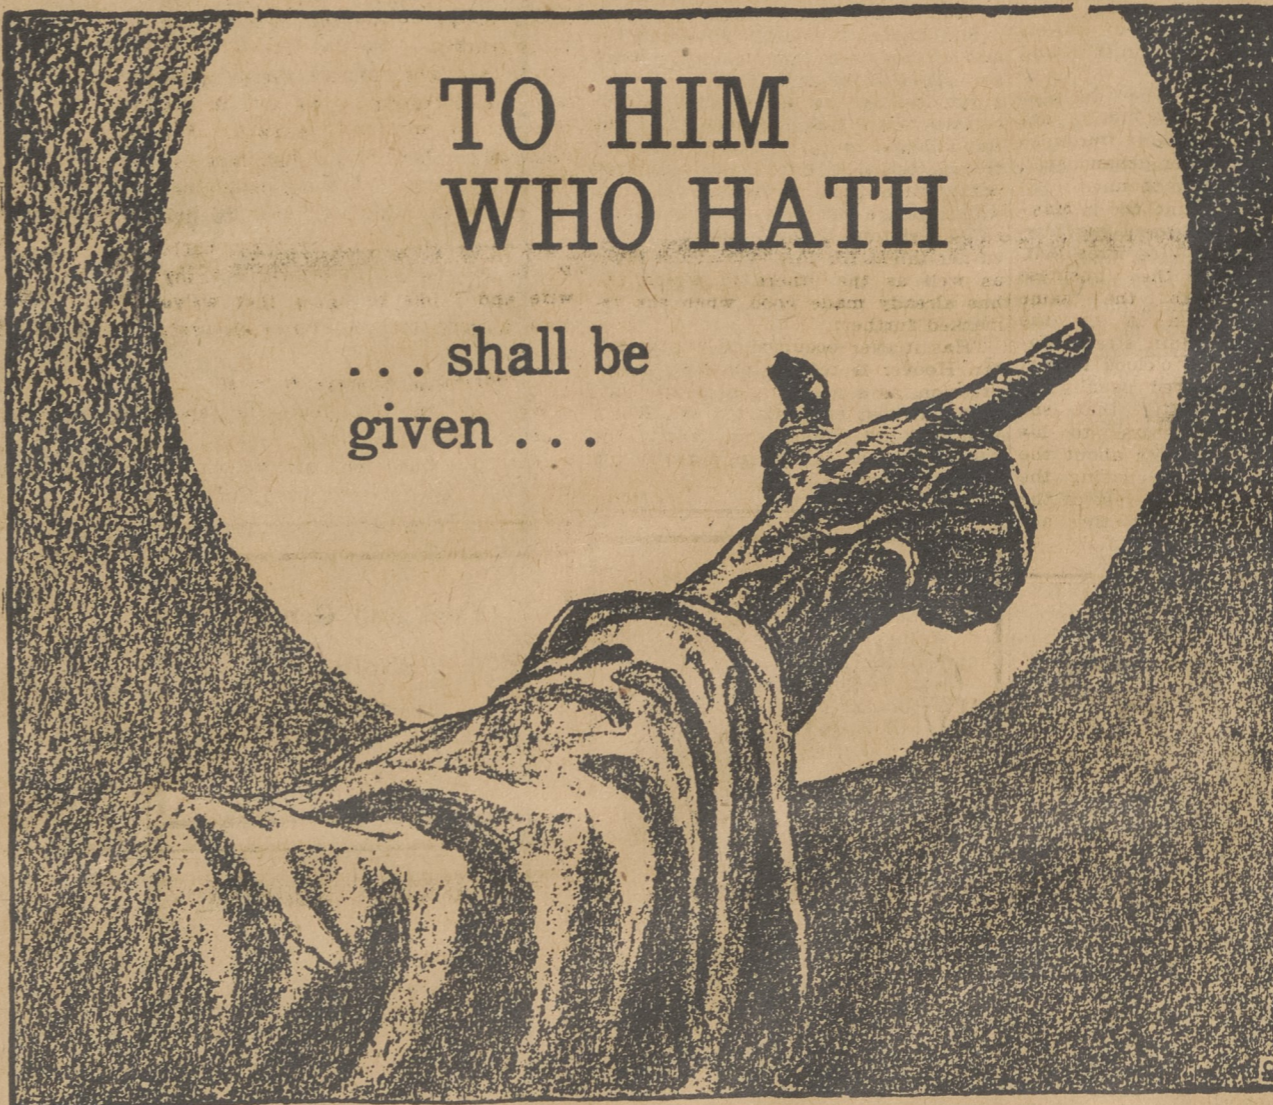

Old Fashion BUCKWHEAT FLOUR
 10 lbs 35c

PANCAKE FLOUR
 5 lb. bag 29c

YES—Foods Do Cost Less At Lares

TO HIM WHO HATH

... shall be given ...

IN times such as these, especially, are you fortified and lifted up by the word of God. The Church alone can give you a philosophy of life that will sustain you through the bitterest trials. More, it can teach you the joy of spiritual contentment.

Start now to attend the services of your preference regularly. The sun will soon shine brighter in your heart.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY