Lehman-

The Senior Class of Lehman high School will present "Sound Your Horn" on February 17. It is a farce-comedy in three acts.

The play offers interesting contrasting roles in those of Mr. Angus, played by Elwood Renshaw and Mr. Beasley, played by Paul Rice; the one naive and successful, the other blundering and inefficient. But the real focus of interest is Christian played by Dorothy Goodwin. She rented the land from Mrs. Van Dyke's agent, and when Mrs. Van Dyke played by Geraldine Cornell, unwillingly to have anything so "low brow" as a stand on her property, set out to repudiate the lease and dispossess Christian, she found that she had a person to reckon with entirely different from the wealth-worshipping group to whom she had been accustomed. And Christine discovers unexpected allies in Diane (played by Jane Comer, and Theodore, niece and nephew of Mrs. Van Dyke, played by Bud Davis, while the play romps through exciting moments in which romance and comedy join hands to an end that is just right.

Other characters which make up the cast are: Drusilla, a little girl about town, played by Alberta Mekeel; Phyllis, her chum, played by Kathryn Anson; Etta Lamb, a waitress played by Melvina Shoultice; Home Bird, contact man for the Empire Bottling Works, played by Hale Bronson.
