

LOCALS

Mrs. C. N. Booth of Lehman avenue, accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Nelson Booth and niece, Mrs. Louis Rohde will leave for the South on Thursday.

Mrs. Booth and her party, traveling by motor, will stop over at Tilden, South Carolina, to visit relatives of Mrs. Rhode. They will then resume their journey, probably arriving at Sarasota, Florida, within the week, where they expect to spend the next month at a cottage on the lovely Sarasota Beach.

Sarasota has become of great interest to those who have been fortunate enough to spend some time there, as the great Ringling Brothers Circus spends its winters there. Guests at Sarasota have been very much interested in watching these world famous troupers at play, spending the few months out of their crowded year during which they are not required to prepare for long trips from town to town, traveling many miles after each performance.

P. T. A. To Meet

The Executive Committee of the Parent Teachers Association will hold its monthly meeting on Monday Evening, February 6th at the home of Mrs. Stanley B. Davies. All members of the Executive Committee are urged to be present, as there is business of considerable importance to be attended to.

Mrs. Ella Daddow had as her guest on Sunday, her nephew, Joseph Erhart of Forty Fort. Mr. Erhart is a student at Albright College, where he is pursuing studies preparatory to the study of Medicine.

Mrs. George Kirkendall who recently underwent a surgical operation at Mercy hospital is recuperating at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rood attended the funeral of Mr. Roods' sister, Mrs. Harriet Benscoter of Bloomingdale on Wednesday. This is the second death in Mr. Rood's family in the past two months, his brother Abraham, having been buried about six weeks ago.

Kenneth Oliver has been ill for the past few days with rheumatism and a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Jones, of Pioneer avenue, Shavertown, announce the birth of a daughter on Sunday morning. Mrs. Jones, before marriage was Irene Hicks, organist at Shavertown M. E. Church.

Dr. F. D. Hartsock spent Monday with his brother at Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garrahan and Mrs. Harry Garrahan spent Wednesday in Bloomsburg.

Mrs. Add Garinger of Alderson spent Wednesday with her sister-in-law Amanda Yaple.

Mrs. Harding is caring for Mrs. Emma Honeywell who is ill.

Eugene Fogle is spending some time in Johnson City.

Mrs. Amanda Yaple spent the day recently with Mrs. C. G. Honeywell at Luzerne.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gordon and Mrs. Harry Anderson left early Thursday morning for the south where they will spend sometime. Mrs. Anderson expects to stop off at Atlanta, Georgia, for several days and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon will continue on to St. Petersburg where they will visit relatives.

The condition of Miss Ruth Kintz, who underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis at Wilkes-Barre General hospital, Wednesday is considered serious. Her condition as reported at press time yesterday was only fair. Miss Kintz, prior to the operation, had not been feeling well for about a week. She, however, played her regular position as side center on Dallas borough high school basketball team.

Rev. J. E. Sullivan Flying Priest Buried

are separated by hundreds of miles from each other. Oftimes we find it most discouraging when you give as it were the best that is in you. But the only thing the priest must see is the spiritual life.

"He was a priest of God in the truest sense. He was not like a sign post, pointing out the road that should be traveled or what should be done. Father Sullivan was a Christian in every sense and he went out and did things. As Christ said, 'Daily take up thy cross and follow Me.' So in like manner Rev. Father Sullivan also said 'I am a shepherd not a hireling. Follow Me.' That was his life. His life was of the kind that he thought not of himself but he thought only of those, whom he was associated. He knew no sacrifice that was too great that he might help those who were in sorrow or in tribulation. He rejoiced with his flock during the time of their joy. He led his flock as a true shepherd should have. Not being satisfied, my dear Christian friends, with the mere convenience of the auto to reach out among his followers, he went a step further and became a pilot that he might extend his usefulness in the far off bleak sections of the Southwest, to reach points that were almost impassable to the automobile. But Almighty God has decreed otherwise.

"The death of a priest is a sad one. Rev. Father Sullivan could have stayed with those who reared him but hearing the call of Almighty God he preferred to dedicate his life of sacrificing himself to the utmost extent in order that he might bring to others the religion of the One whom he honored, loved and adored so much and for that reason he went down to Texas giving up all that was near and dear to him and only those of you who have gone through these departures can understand."

At the conclusion of Rev. Father McKeon's sermon Monsignor M. E. Lynott, rector of St. Ignatius' Church, who has been called upon four times to assist in the burial of a priest of the parish, gave a short address in which he said: "Rev. Father Sullivan was born here and baptized in this church. When a priest dies, a soldier in the Lord's army falls. His memory will be a blessing to the young boys of the parish growing up whose hearts and dispositions should be trained by Catholic parents to enter the priesthood."

The mass was sung by the priests' choir of the Scranton Diocese led by Rev. Thomas F. Kelly of Hazelton and made up of Rev. Paul Cary, Swoyerville; Rev. Joseph Luksic, Luzerne; Rev. John Kelly, Tunkhannock; Monsignor J. J. Kowalewski, Wilkes-Barre; Rev. E. P. Caulfield, Hoban Heights; Rev. Thomas F. Kelly, Hazelton; Rev. Maurice A. Hughes, Olyphant; and Rev. H. G. Durkin of Scranton.

Seated in the sanctuary: the Rev. Fathers George T. Forve, Luzerne; D. W. McCarthy, Wilkes-Barre; Thomas Carmody, College Misericordia; Michael Vetter, Wilkes-Barre; Hugh Kelly, Hazleton; Martin Yatsko, Hazleton; Aloysius Baloga, Mocanqua; J. J. Featherstone, Scranton; Brother Philip, F. S. C., St. Thomas College; Thomas W. Laskinson, St. Anthony's, Detroit, Mich.; W. P. Kealey, Olyphant; M. E. Lynott, Kingston; J. J. Curran, Wilkes-Barre; William J. Flynn, Minooka; J. J. O'Donnell, Nanticoke; John F. Donnelly, Catholic University of America; Leo W. Nugent, Detroit; D. J. Kane, Hazleton; J. J. Heffernan, Ashley; J. F. Carroll, Shavertown; Philip P. Rader, Wilkes-Barre; William J. Gibson, Wilkes-Barre; J. J. Mulholland, Plains; T. P. Leonard, Wilkes-Barre; Francis A. McGinley, Bently Creek; J. Kundreska, Luzerne; J. J. Moylan, Wilkes-Barre; J. R. Lynch, Sugar Notch.

Honorary bearers were: John Hayden, Sr., Cornelius Boyle, Dr. Edward McGinley, James Gibbons, Harry Anderson, George Gaertner, A. P. Ward, Martin Hudock, John Coyne, Felix O'Hara.

Active bearers were: Joseph Crane, Elmer Sawyer, Raymond Harris, Patrick J. Hayden, James McHale, Joseph McCabe, James Monahan, James Jeffers and Thomas McKeen.

Fourth Degree men of the Knights of Columbus, Wilkes-Barre Assembly, acted as guard of honor for the remains during the services. They were attired in full regalia. They included: Harry Ahorn, James Conniff, James Conwell, James J. Law, Roy Martin and John Moore.

Pilots who made up the airplane escort were Edward A. Lottick, K. Russell Smith, Anthony Janerich and Dwight Fisher.
