

OBITUARY

EMILY D. MOSS

The funeral of Emily Davenport Moss, widow of Stephen Moss, was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Birth, Sweet Valley, on Saturday with short services at the home. The funeral was largely attended and there was a profusion of floral offerings.

Services were held in Bloomingdale Methodist Church with Rev. Carl Oswald pastor of Bloomingdale M. P. Church, officiating. Nephews of deceased acted as bearers and flowers were carried by grandchildren and nieces. A quartet from Buttonwood, directed by M. Grey, sang. Burial was in the family plot in Bloomingdale Cemetery.

Mrs. Moss was the daughter of Helen and Christiana Roberts Davenport, early settlers of Pike's Creek, and was aged 77. Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. William Birth, and two sons, Daniel and Orrie Moss; also a brother, Byron Davenport, of West Nanticoke, and several grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

THOMAS D. MEKEEL

Thomas D. Mekeel of Lehman died on Tuesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Stanley Case at Trucksville. Mr. Mekeel was 81 last February, and was a life long resident of Lehman. He was poor master of Lehman for 43 years and secretary of the Lehman School Board for several years.

At the time of his death he was the oldest surviving member of George M. Dallas Lodge F. and A. M. at Dallas.

He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Fred Harlos, Lehman; Mrs. Samuel Cease, Shavertown; Albert Mekeel, Lehman; Mrs. Stanley Case, Trucksville; Harry Mekeel, Pittsburgh; Oliver Mekeel, Succasunna, N. J.; Ralph Mekeel, Netcong, N. J.; 26 grandchildren and two great grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Frances Harrison, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. John Rice, and Mrs. William Ide, Kingston. His wife died last September and his daughter, Mrs. Howard Wright passed away in January.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 yesterday afternoon with services at the home of his son, Albert Mekeel at Lehman. Burial was in the family plot in Lehman Cemetery.

LELAND E. RUMMAGE

The funeral of Leland E. Rummage, aged 33, who died Friday at the home was held Tuesday afternoon from of M. C. Frick of Pike's creek in Huntsville cemetery.

Death came as the result of complications brought on following an accident about six months ago when Mr. Rummage fell from an apple tree.

For some time he complained of bruises but was able to be about. Sometime ago he was taken to Nanticoke hospital where X-rays revealed a fractured skull which later resulted in his death.

Deceased was born at Huntsville and for sometime conducted a store in Sunbury and at Penn's Grove. He purchased a farm and green house at Huntsville about two years ago, and lived there until his death.

Beside his wife he leaves a daughter, Janice his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Rummage of Penn's Grove and one brother, Elbe, of Milton.

Pallbearers, cousins of the deceased were: James Fuller, Charles Fuller, Dean Johnson, Thomas Johnson, Dewey Fuller and Ralph Frantz.

Funeral services were in charge of Rev. M. C. Frick and Rev. C. H. Frick. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Alfred Bronson of Sweet Valley.

Letters To The Editor

LEST YOU FORGET

While memories of last winter are fresh in your mind, it would be a great idea to check up on your heating system for general efficiency and fuel consumption.

Could you maintain equal temperature in all rooms?

How much coal did you burn?

Did you have cold drafts across the floor?

Often times a thorough cleaning or slight change in piping will pep up your boiler or furnace. We have a sure remedy for each heating system and will be pleased to send our expert to you without cost or obligation. His service is free. Won't you write us today?

A great many ladies have made us an offer on the Auction Range. Let's have yours. This is a Gas Range worth $120.00 and we accept any and all offers. It will pay you to look at our line while the reduced price lasts.

Surely, with prices starting at $89.50 delivered many can afford to have Electric Refrigeration. Rev. Beers at Montrose and Norman White at Wyalusing both bought new Copelands.

It's about time to hustle in the corn. We have several varieties of seed priced from $1.35 and a bushel size of Maple City Crow Repellent for 40c.

A WORD ON SEEDS

We have been telling you to buy seeds early before price advances. Many of you did just that and saved money. Prices advanced sharply this week, but we are going to try to maintain our regular low prices.

We received a shipment of seventy bags of clover, timothy and field corn this week, so that there will be plenty of seeds to go around. They're Scarlett's famous Oriole Brand. There is none better.
