Leaders' Plead For Compromise On State Slates

Withdrawals Expected Monday In State And Local Contests

3,000 PETITIONS

While the State's political leaders sought this week to effect compromises among the twenty-five candidates for Governor and the unprecedented number of aspirants to other State offices, early political interest here was centered on the Congressional, State Senatorial and State Representative contests.

Little interest has been shown yet in the committeeman campaigns, which will be the only strictly local contests. The Fine organization has decided on committee candidates but it is expected there will be little organized opposition to those candidates.

Seven candidates filed for Congressional nominations, including C. Murray Turpin, incumbent. He will be opposed again by John J. Casey of Wilkes-Barre, who was defeated two years ago. Another opponent is Paul Baynock, Swoyerville ex-policeman, who will go on trial in Criminal Court next week on a charge of arson and who was acquitted recently of fatally assaulting a young man in front of a Swoyerville dance hall. Michael J. Riley, Sugar Notch, Amos H. Ayres, Wilkes-Barre, A. P. Coniff, Wilkes-Barre, and Homer R. Mallow, manager of Hotel Mallow-Sterling and owner of the Yacht Club at Havey's Lake, are the other Congressional candidates.

Senator Andrew J. Sordani will be a candidate for re-election. Other petitions were filed by Albin Grumbis of Kingston; William Sheridan, Kingston; John T. Jones, Plymouth; and Carl E. Mau, Kingston.

The only Back Mountain Region man to file a petition was Charles Dessel of Shavertown. He filed for representative to the State Legislature from the Sixth District, of which Dallas and vicinity are a part. Willard G. Shortz, incumbent, is considered the strongest candidate. Others who filed were Thomas Lewis of Wyoming, Ladislaus Wywierski, Duryea, and Felix J. Pawloski, Duryea.

Two Luzerne County men, George E. Gwilliam, former recorder of deeds, and Thomas Kennedy, Hazleton labor leader, filed for lieutenant governor.

There were twenty-five candidates who filed for Governor and it is expected the majority of those men will be eliminated from the race by the compromises that are being effected this week. The final day for withdrawing petitions will be Monday.

Dallas District Sunrise Service

Young People To Greet Easter At Early Worship At Shavertown

The young people of Dallas District Sunday Schools will hold an Easter Sunrise Service in the Shavertown M. E. Church next Sunday morning at 6:30. This service is planned for the young people and others in the district and it is hoped each one will share the experiences of the early morning service.

The service planned will be similar to the one that was held in the same church last year. The theme of the service will be "Living in the Spirit of the Risen Christ." Rev. Mr. Crompton of the Trucksville M. E. Church will speak. The service will be conducted entirely by the young people of the Sunday Schools.

The Young People's Council which represents the young people of the district, has been active in planning a worthwhile program for the district work. A discussion conducted by Rev. Mr. Sellers of the Shavertown M. E. Church on "International Relations" has been much enjoyed by the group for three monthly meetings. The council is now preparing a drama, "Ballots for Bill" which will be presented in the Trucksville High School on May 2.

Shavertown Men To Hold Turkey Supper

First annual turkey supper will be served and sponsored by the men of Trucksville M. E. Church on April 10 at 5:30 in the church parlors. The committee working on plans is headed by Bruce Eong, who will be assisted by Harry Owens, William Rhodes, Archie Woolbert, Fred Turner, George Reynolds. There will be a special musical program and proceeds will be used for current church expenses. Tickets may be secured from members of the committee.

Vacancy Filled By Election Of Eugene Lazarus

Dallas School Board Accepts Besecker's Resignation; Elect Successor

PITTMAN SECRETARY

The vacancy on Dallas Borough School Board resulting from the resignation of James Besecker was filled at the board's last meeting by the election of Eugene R. Lazarus of Machel Avenue.

Harry Pittman was appointed secretary for the remainder of the term which Mr. Besecker was serving. Mr. Besecker presented his resignation a week ago and it was accepted last Friday night.

Although many persons throughout the borough were eager to have Mr. Besecker reconsider his resignation and continue to serve, the choice of Mr. Lazarus is approved by the majority of persons, it is believed.

A property-owner and an ardent worker for community interests, Mr. Lazarus has played an important role in a number of projects recently, notably the problem of adequate water for fire protection and drinking purposes. He has been an active member of the Dallas Borough Taxpayers' Association.

Testimony to his ability as a business man is given by his long affiliation with Kingston Cake Co. Mr. Lazarus became associated with that firm when it was a modest plant in Edwarsville. He has continued as an executive member of the firm during its growth to its present quarters in the former Remington-Rand plant at Kingston.

The meeting at which Mr. Lazarus' appointment took place was held at the home of Henry J. Disque, with Directors Roberts, Disque, and Pittman present.

Mr. Lazarus is a graduate of Girard College and of Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

At its meeting the board also discussed collection of delinquent taxes. It was explained that ninety-five per cent of the delinquent taxes are owed by non-residents of Dallas.

No action has been taken yet toward appointing Clarence West to copy material which will enable the directors to keep a more accurate check on owners of properties. Mr. West suggested a method by which the records might be kept.

WHAT a beaver dam looks like? Here is one that these industrious little animals have built across a stream in northern Quebec. Although these dams are built by the beavers with the object of providing a depth of water to make a safe underwater entrance to their lodges, they also assist materially in storing up large reservoirs of water and creating fine spawning beds for game fish. The beaver is protected by the government in Canada.

Easter=1934

And when he had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they bowed the knee before him and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off of him and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; him they compelled to bear his cross.

And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull,

They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall; and when he had tested thereof, he would not drink.

And they crucified him . . .

And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried with a loud voice saying Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, wielded up the ghost.

And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent.

In the end of the sabbath, as it begun to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning and his raiment white as snow.

And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

He is not here; for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

Rotary Ready For Annual Easter Egg Hunt Tomorrow

Austin Candidate For Morgan's Job

Beaumont Principal Conceded Good Chance To Win Election

Announcement by John E. Morgan of Tunkhannock that he will resign as Superintendent of Schools in Wyoming County was the signal this week for the opening of a spirited contest among school heads who will seek appointment to the position vacated by Mr. Morgan.

The election will be held on April 10 at Tunkhannock, when all directors from Wyoming County districts will meet. Six candidates are said to be seeking the position. Among these is William A. Austin, principal of Beaumont schools and widely known through this section. Mr. Austin is the only candidate from the territory on the West Side of the river and he is reported to have strong support in several districts on the Tunkhannock side of the river.

In the statement which announced his candidacy, Mr. Austin explained that he is a native born son of Wyoming County, having received his grade and high school education and taught seven years in the county. After spending three years at State Teachers' College at Bloomsburg, Mr. Austin became assistant principal at Beaumont in the Monroe Township High School. During the next three years he completed enough work through extension and summer school classes to receive his Arts Degree from Susquehanna University at Selinsgrove. Since then he has been doing post graduate work in the field of administration at Pennsylvania State College. He will receive his Master's Degree in education with completion of one additional summer's work in residence.

"I stand," said Mr. Austin, "for good schools with courses of study suited to Wyoming County. I have learned the value of the tax dollar and feel worthy of placing my application at your disposal to seek this position, which calls for physical strength, mental initiative, moral integrity, and social adaptability."

To Be Held At Kingston Township High School Grounds

HUNDREDS OF PRIZES

The annual Easter Egg Hunt of Greater Dallas Rotary Club will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 at the Kingston Township High School grounds, instead of at Fernbrook Park, as originally planned.

Although the event has always been held at Fernbrook Park the snow this week left the grounds damp and it was believed by the committee that the high school grounds would be a much better place to hold the hunt.

The candy and eggs will be hidden in the fields and clumps of trees about the school building by the Rotarians, who will be assisted by Boy Scouts. There will be nearly 4,000 bags of jelly beans, candy eggs and hen's eggs as prizes for the youthful hunters.

The children will be entered in three different age groups which will be policed by Rotarians who will direct the start and the progress of the hunt. The band from Kingston Township High School will play.

Street cars will stop at the point nearest to the school grounds so children will have only a short walk to the place where the hunt will be held.

The children from one to six years of age will be in charge of George Metz, assisted by Todd Albert and Bert Hill.

Children from seven to ten years will form a group in charge of L. Kingsley, and assisted by William McIntyre and Warren Veisley.

The older children, aged 11 to 14 years, will be under the care of J. F. Besecker, assisted by Peter Jurcak and L. A. McHenry.

Following are the committees in charge of the affair:

Prizes: Earl Monk, George Russ, James F. Besecker, Bert Hill, Bert Stroh, Tom Evans.

Publicity: Harold Wagner, Calvin McHose.

Candy and eggs: Herman Van Campen and Rev. F. M. Sellers.

Coloring and bagging committee: Earl Monk, Calvin McHose, James Besecker, Russell Case.

Music committee: Vincent Shindel, Heinie Kleinkoff.

Hiding committee: James Martin, Calvin McHose, Warren Taylor, Rev. F. M. Sellers.

Police: Fred Price, Ralph Hallock, A. N. Garinger.

The Rotarians expect about 1,500 children from this region to attend the hunt.

Dallas And Lehman Open Final Series

Orange And Noxen Eliminated In Scramble For Rural Championship

Elimination of Orange and Noxen from the four-way contest for the championship of the Rural Basketball League on Tuesday night left Dallas and Lehman fighting in the final series.

The games in which Orange and Noxen were defeated were two of the hardest-fought games of the season, each entering an extra period before the winner was known. Orange, trying to clinch its fourth consecutive championship, made a thrilling attempt to defeat Lehman, tying the score at 31 as the game ended. In the extra period Lehman scored the two points which gave it victory and a place in the finals.

Morris was high-scorer for the Dallas five, he scored fourteen points, six of which were made in the extra period, which ended with Dallas leading, 29 to 27. The score see-sawed back and forth all evening. At no time until the final winning tally was either team leading enough to assure victory.

Dallas and Lehman were to play their first game last night. The second game will be played next Wednesday night at Dallas Borough High School. Efforts are being made to promote a game between the Wilkes-Barre Bartonettes girls' team and the Dallas High School five, before the Dallas-Lehman game. If the two teams are to meet, the next week's game a third and deciding contest will be scheduled.

District Meeting

Cabinet members and officers of Dallas sub-district, Epworth League, will meet on April 4 at Carverton M. E. Church as the guest of the Epworth League of that church.
