GAY-MURRAY NEWS

We don't dispute the fact that the Big Mail Order Houses give good values, but we give even better values on Heating Boilers, Ranges, Plumbing Fixtures, etc. Drop in. We know we can prove this point to your entire satisfaction and besides, savings of $7.00 on the same Bath room fixtures and from $5.00 to $10.00 on the same Ranges are worth while.

Harry Lane started things when he bought his new Range, for in the next few days other purchasers were Frank Kiecs, at Wyoming, Allison Mosier, in Tunkhannock and the "Ausfin Tavern" at Lake Winola.

87-lb. Roll $2.85

We were mighty pleased when the Wyoming County Fruit Growers placed their Spray Material and Cyanamid with us. Thanks! 3 carloads are on the way to give you prompt service.

Edwin Miller of Dallas, J. E. Swackhammer at Rummerfeld and Dan Birstler at East Lenon bought new Brooder Stoves this week. The Eureka beats them all and the price starts at $9.00.

We also have Toxits, Carbolineum, Germozene and Gizard Capsules for the poultry flock.

Oliver 15 tooth and 17 tooth Harrows at $18.50 and $20.00 are good values. C. J. Smith at Lehman and Earl Harding at Jenks have theirs all ready to tear the turf. Look over your machinery now—it's easier to get repairs now than during the rush season.

Did WILT ruin your sweet corn last year? We will have a "Wilt Resistant" Corn for your 1934 garden. Our bulk seeds are sure growers and you get your money's worth in the Gay Murray envelope.
