DALLAS TOWNSHIP

In observance of the anniversary of free schools, Rev. G. E. Ruff of Shavertown gave a talk last week.

Mr. Kester's vocational class had a debate last week. Those on the debate were: Affirmative, Carl Weer, Franklin Hemenway, Joe Girvan, Ray Williams, Negative, Dallas Kellar, Charles Girton, Elwood Condon, Dean Ide.

The question debated was "That the Appearance of a Product Constitutes 90% of its Value."

The CWA work has been stopped at the athletic field. It is hoped more money can be secured to finish the work.

The sophomores and freshmen vocational class gave talks on poultry and gardening. The talks were to be four or five minutes.

The senior and junior vocational class are preparing for talks which should last five or six minutes.

"Crashing The Movies", a three act comedy will be presented by the juniors, April 24, 1934.

The alumni dance was largely attended.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilson were guests at a party Thursday night which was given by the teachers of Dallas Township.

MONROE TOWNSHIP

A Book Review

SCARAMOUCHE

By Rafael Sabatini

The scene of Scaramouche is laid in France at the time of the Revolution. The reader will like this book if he craves for adventure and murder. The strife between the aristocrats and the common class is cleverly shown, also numbers of French names.

After stirring the mob to the breaking point the young lawyer is forced to flee. He finally takes refuge in a band of strolling players and works his way up, finally taking the part of Scaramouche, one of the characters of the French drama, which he changed and rearranged until it fitted his own nature to perfection. Then follows a peculiar love affair. The days crammed with adventure.

When the Revolution is at its worst Scaramouche is told in order to prevent murder, who his parents really are.

The reader will perhaps remember the sardonic Scaramouche as one who fights with his tongue as with his sword, who was "born with a gift of laughter and a sense that the world was mad."

One of the most interesting affairs of the Back of the Mountain region, is the programs of speeches and music presented by the committees in charge of the "Citizens League" of Jackson Township, at Boney's Amusement Hall the early part of each month. With the President, Charles B. Hoyt, presiding. For the meeting to be held in May the teachers of the township of the common schools have been asked to prepare their pupils to take part in the program. Mrs. Margaret Kosek, Deputy clerk of County Court, Wilkes-Barre gives interesting talks on education and character building. Mrs. R. G. Gregory of Nanticoke aroused much enthusiasm, through leading the singing. Following is the committee in charge of transportation for May: Thomas Bell, Thomas Johnson, Millian Hablet, George Learn, Dennis Bonning, Walter Reakes, Peter Fela, Edmund Lameroux, William Parry, Boney Lasouski.
