Objects To Financing Her Hubby's "Parties"

Media, Pa.—"I didn't mind," Mrs. Elizabeth Hume, 27, wife of Marcus Hook, said in divorce court, "when my husband lost his job, I didn't mind supporting him. I didn't mind buying him gas and oil for his car. What I did object to was his driving girls around town on my money." The judge agreed that was expecting a lot and gave her a decree.
