Mighty Blast Crumbles Bluff

To the accompaniment of deafening detonations this 1000-foot mountain on Catalina Island split and crumbled at the water's edge, providing 2,000,000 tons of rock for a breakwater off Long Beach—to create a harborage for Uncle Sam's fleet. Fifty tons of black powder and dynamite were used in the blasting. In this picture, the mountain is shown splitting halfway up its side, at the point indicated by arrow.

Courtdale Pave To Be Short Lake Route

Courtdale Avenue, Courtdale, and Wilson Street, Larksville, were accepted by the State Department of Highways this week and will be paved soon.

The route will be a short cut to Harvey's Lake from down-river points. The road through Luzerne will still be the shortest route between the Back Mountain Section and Wyoming Valley.

Turpentine

Turpentine is derived from the sap of various trees, and can be made from some which grow in the Northwest, but the turpentine of commerce in the United States comes almost entirely from certain pine trees which are distributed throughout the southern states. Georgia is the leading state.

Mrs. Fred Honeywell, Mrs. Russell Honeywell, Miss Frances Hess, Miss Grace Honeywell, and John Honeywell motored to Philadelphia on Saturday to attend the Navy Day Celebration there. Russell Honeywell, a member of the U. S. Marines stationed there returned home with them for a Sunday visit.

Republicans Bury Hatchet At Big Rally

Crowd Fills High School To Hear Democrats Denounced

Disregarding past prejudices in an effort to give the straight Republican ticket a big majority vote in this region, all factions of the Republican party joined in harmony Monday night in Dallas high school auditorium to stage one of the biggest political rallies held in this section in years.

A big crowd of more than 600 persons expected a good meeting under such circumstances and got it. From start to finish there was not a lag in the whole program under the capable direction of Peter Clark who handled the introductions in a manner befitting a political veteran.

Among the speakers were: Ralph Morris, State Councilor of Jr. O. U. A. M.; Mrs. J. B. Davenport, vice chairman, Luzerne county Republican committee, Referee Asa Lewis, of the State Workman's compensation board, Willard Shortz, candidate for re-election to the Assembly; C. Murray Turpin, candidate for re-election to Congress and District Attorney, Thomas Lewis.

All of the speakers were loud in denouncing many of the activities of the Democratic national administration. District Attorney Thomas Lewis in an address that was intense and sparkling with enthusiasm and statistics compared economic conditions in Wyoming Valley and the State at the present time with those during the Hoover administration.

Prior to the formal speaking program Warhola's orchestra furnished music. At the conclusion while doughnuts and cider were being served as refreshments the orchestra played for dancing, keeping the big crowd in a jovial mood until a late hour.

Girl Will Die By Guillotine

The guillotine will end the life of Violette Nozieres, 18, shown here in the Paris courtroom where she was convicted of the poison murder of her father and the attempted murder of her mother. Her case brought suspicion on many Parisians named Emile, as she mentioned a mysterious "Emile," never identified as her "protector."
