Big Party Successful It's really a great thrill to have several thousand folks visit our store during the two days of our Spring Opening and we wish to thank all who assisted us in making our 1935 event a success. We especially want to thank T. C. Boyce who furnished that good "New Dutch" Coffee for your lunch on 3rd floor, Jerry Drew for the finest Xylophone selections we ever heard, Mystic DeGar for the excellent magic acts, Bill Brack for high class accordion music and all in all we hope you enjoyed the whole affair. Big Party visitors showed an active interest in the quality and prices of many farm items. Salvadore Blandina of Pittston bought an Oliver Harrow; I. L. Stark at West Nicholson got a new team harness and sulky plow. Ezra Hoover at Trucksville bought a Sprayer and we'll tell you of other purchasers at a later date. Mrs. Harry Reimel at Springville and Mrs. Roy LaCoe at Ransom were the lucky bidders on the Westinghouse Refrigerators. They're the luckiest ladies we've heard of yet. Officials of the Wyoming County Horticultural Association tell us "It's time for the dormant spray for Apples, Pears, Plums, and Cherries"—We were pleased to receive the order for the Association Spraying Materials and are prepared to furnish anything you may need in that line.
