Girls Victorious In Spelling Bee

Miss Ida Button Emphasizes Parental Obligations Before PTA

Conclusive evidence that the girls of the Dallas Borough fifth grade are better spellers than the boys was furnished at a spelling bee conducted by Mrs. Lewis LeGrand at the meeting of Dallas Borough Parent-Teacher Association in the Dallas High School Building Monday night. Scratch their heads as they would, the stronger sex could not remember how to spell "guess" and so bowed in defeat to the fairer members of the class.

The meeting, which was a delightful one, was in charge of the president, Mrs. Arthur Dungey. Miss Ida Button, secretary of religious education of the First Presbyterian Church of Wilkes-Barre, gave a challenging talk in which she emphasized the obligation of each parent to her child's Sunday School. She pointed out that even though a boy or girl is in Sunday School every Sunday, he will have at the most only 52 hours of religious training a year and showed that the returns in character building from that time will be small unless the parents are willing to supplement their work in the home.

Miss Anna Firmanek, student at College Misericordia, was the guest soloist of the evening.

The only new business brought up at the meeting was the question of the purchase of a geography globe to be used in the class rooms. The matter was referred to Mr. Hood who is to get prices and make a report at the next meeting. Parents of the 5th grade students who won the $1.50 for having the largest attendance at the September meeting offered to contribute the prize to the cost of the globe. The fifth grade students had the most parents present Monday night.

Refreshments were served by parents of the ninth and tenth grades.

PTA Costume Party Wednesday Evening

Attorney Roscoe Smith Is Speaker At Monday Night's Meeting

That education is the least expensive commodity offered to the public was the key note of the talk given by Attorney Roscoe B. Smith at the meeting of the Dallas Township Parent-Teacher Association held in the high school building Monday night. Mr. Smith's education is very slight when compared with what the public pays for cigarettes and cosmetics. He urged parents to get behind the schools and see that their children get the most out of the opportunities offered to them.

A novel feature of the evening was the orchestra of home-made kitchen utensils. Their music was lively and rhythmic and thoroughly delighted the audience. Jane Lucy was soloist.

The committee for the Halloween party which is to be held next Wednesday night showed that all arrangements had been completed and everything set for a gala affair.
