SAWING FOR HER SUPPER

No real Girl Scout ever goes cold or hungry for want of a fire even in the depths of winter, for she knows just what wood is best, to warm her fingers quickly and what will best cook her supper. Pine- or spruce for a good blaze, oak or birch for a good broil—that's a general rule that the Girl Scout finds worth following.

Peter Bertram Is 81 Years Old

West Dallas Resident Celebrates Birthday With Dinner

Surrounded by all the members of his family save one, his wife who departed this life four years ago, Peter Bertram of West Dallas, celebrated his 81st birthday with a family dinner at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Robert Sutherland at Avoca Wednesday of this week.

Mr. Bertram was born March 10, 1855 at Plymouth. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bertram who came from Germany away back in the days when it took 41 days and 40 nights to cross the ocean. He married Adelia Ransom of Jackson, February 12, 1880 and just 4 years ago they celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary. Mrs. Bertram died June of that same year at the age of 73. There were three chil- dren, Mrs. Gertrude Major of Shaver- town, Mrs. Chrissie Stevens with whom Mr. Bertram lives and Mrs. Robert Sutherland of Avoca.

Mr. Bertram was a blacksmith by trade and settled at Lehman Township right after his marriage. From there he moved to Dorranceton and worked in a machine shop until 15 years ago when he came to West Dallas where he continued to shoe horses and do a little farming.

He feels that this has been indeed an old fashioned winter and has thorough- ly enjoyed shoveling paths to his chick- en coops. The flock of wild geese that flew over his farm last Thursday made him happy because he is sure that they are trumpeters of spring and he is anxious to get at his garden.

But with his farm magazines and papers, his Wilkes-Barre Record and his weekly copy of the Post, he has spent many a cozy evening this winter reading. He was an ardent reader of the Back Mountain biographies that ran in the Post this year and said they seemed like chatting with old friends. He told his daughter "That Post is getting to be a wonderful good paper". But the Post can't compete with his Bible for he pours over it patiently and earnestly every day of his life.

Those who helped him celebrate his birthday were Mrs. Gertrude Major and children Irene and Allison and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ruggles of Shavertown, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ray Stevens of West Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutherland of Avoca.

Miss Jane Coolbaugh of Dallas was hostess at a birthday party honoring Miss Jeanne Hayden at her home last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Slack of West Chester Pa., is visiting at the home of her sis- ter and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Mould of Main Street, Trucks-ville.

Miss Ruth Palmer of Carlisle spent the week end at her home on Orchard Street, Trucks-ville.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Coon of Over- brook Avenue, Dallas, spent the week- end in Harrisburg where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Work.

Mrs. Richard Seymour who has been a patient at a Philadelphia hospital for several weeks has returned to her home in Fernbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Herdman of Kunkle had as their guest their daugh- ter, Miss Orma Herdman of New York City last week end.

Miss Edith Myers To Wed Roswell Murray Saturday

The wedding of Miss Edith Myers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Myers of Tilbury Knob, Nanticoke, and Ros- well Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Murray of Pioneer Avenue, Dallas, will take place at the Myers home Saturday at noon.

Miss Mildred Myers, sister of the bride elect, will be bridesmaid and Glenn Murray of Madison, N. J., will act as bridegroom for his brother.

Miss Myers has been assisting her father in his dental office. Mr. Murray was graduated from Wyoming Seminary, Wesleyan University and Dr. Ar- nold's School of Physical Education at New Haven. He is employed at the Hazard Rope works in Wilkes-Barre.

After a ten day trip to New York City the couple will reside in a newly furnished apartment in Nanticoke.

Women's Club Hears Nature Talk

Rev. C. H. Frick Shows Intimate Slides Of Wild Life

Acres and acres of bluets-nests full of shy young fledglings-cuckoos in all their stages-bull frogs bloated with insects-rattlers ready to strike—all colored slides taken with his own camera, formed the nucleus of a nature talk given by Rev. C. H. Frick before members of the Dallas Women's Club at Suburban Inn Wednesday evening.

Rev. Frick, president of the West Side Flower Show, talked on plant cul- ture, and bird preservation. He inter- spersed his informal lecture with ex- cerpts from Browning's "Pippa Passes", VanDyke's "Who Will Walk a Mile With Me?" and other delightful nature poems.

In conjunction with the talk, the Women's Club sponsored an indoor flower show and there were many at- tractive specimens exhibited. Prize winners were: Mrs. Paul Kocher, Mac- chell Avenue, Dallas, first begonia prize; Mrs. R. L.
