Handwork For Your Home

* * *

Smart women are beginning to realize that touches of handwork in the home make it more livable and more homelike. The bedspread which grandmother crocheted when she was a girl is coming out to grace the guest room bed, and the modern woman is determined not to let grandmother's ability surpass her own. Bedspreads, pillow covers, doilies and luncheon sets express the personality of the woman who makes them. This newspaper is offering its readers a series of eight articles illustrating smart and practical household articles which a woman can make herself.

I—For The Buffet Table

THE modern design of this three piece set, crocheted of knitting and crocheted cotton, will fit in within the most starkly simple of modern furniture. It can be used either on the buffet, or it may be transferred to your bedroom and become a bureau set if you prefer. The little blocks are outlined in a contrasting bolliast color which can be worked out to fit in with your own decorative scheme.

An illustrated sheet of detailed directions will be sent you without charge, if you will send a self-addressed return envelope bearing a three cent stamp to THE CROCHET BUREAU OF THIS NEWSPAPER, 532 Fifth Avenue, NEW YORK CITY. Specify, "Handwork for Your Home, Design No. 1."

Township Boys To Sponsor Dinner

Proceeds To Be Used To Enter State College Contests

The Vocational Boys of the Dallas Township High School will sponsor a chicken dinner to be held in the Township High School building Wednesday evening, April 1, at 6 o'clock.

The proceeds from the dinner will be used to defray the expenses of sending at least 15, if possible more, boys to State College in June for the Young Farmers' Week.

The Township boys are now being trained in cattle judging and expect to compete with all the schools in the state in judging contests held there in June. Along with 3,000 other prospective farmers they will be required to select from great numbers of beef cattle, chickens, dairy cattle, sheep, pigs etc., those with the greatest number of points.

Donald Kester, teacher in the school, feels confident that if he can get enough money together to take all the boys by bus that he needs, they will be able to make a good showing.

The public is invited to the dinner which will be cooked by the vocational girls under the supervision of their teachers.

"REMEDIES" YOU'LL LIKE

Ever make a natural "mayonnaise" just by whipping a ripe banana into a cream? That puts into any salad or even a sandwich filling. That whipped-cream-horseradish sauce everybody likes on meat loaf is twice as good made with a banana base.

Newest of them all—no, you haven't tried it yet, it's hot off the griddle—is Mexican Fiesta Salad, and there's a brown-sugar-pecan-lime delicious called Parlane Bananas!

Other good things too, line up in array to knock the blues out of your menus and drive monotony far-far away. Try them, and banish kitchen-boredom!

Mexican Fiesta Salad

2 oranges, 1 grapefruit, 2 ripe bananas, 2 apples, 4 small beets, 1 tsp. lime or lemon juice, 1 1/2 tbsps. salad oil, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. chili powder, 1/2 cup coarsely chopped peanuts 2 tbsps. crushed peppermint candy.

Peel oranges and grapefruit, remove membrane from sections and dice. Peel and dice bananas, apples and beets. Make a dressing of the lime or lemon juice, salad oil, salt and chili powder. Combine all ingredients lightly but thoroughly. Serve well chilled on crisp lettuce. Serves six to eight.

Parlane Bananas

4 partially-ripe bananas, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1 tsp. lime or lemon juice, 1 tsp. melted butter, 1/2 cup chopped pecan meats or walnut meats.

Peel bananas, cut in half lengthwise and fry for about one minute in a small amount of butter. Place bananas into a well-greased baking dish. Mix brown sugar and salt together and sprinkle onto bananas. Pour lime or lemon juice and then the melted butter over sugar. Cover with chopped nuts. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees Fahrenheit) about 10 minutes, or until sugar melts and bananas are tender. Serve hot. Serves eight.

Banana Cream Dressing

1/2 ripe banana, 1/2 cup heavy cream, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 1 tsp. salt.

Peel banana, slice into bowl and beat until smooth and creamy. Add cream and continue beating until mixture is stiff. Fold in mayonnaise and salt. Makes about one cup—eight servings. This dressing keeps well in a cool place for about 24 hours.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS

! Cooked red beets taste better fried with bacon, and mixed with a little green pepper and pungent onion.

! Scallop your sweet potatoes along with some sliced Rhode Island Greenings and serve them with roast ham—mmm!
