Our Footloose Correspondent

Dear Editor:

I shall pass on a few things I've observed in passing 'round about Dallas.

James Franklin is to be new teacher of the Ladies' Bible Class, having been nominated to replace Mrs. Stanley Doll, who has resigned because of ill health. We all wish her a speedy recovery and long years of good health.

Mrs. Ruth Bytheway of Lehman has been visiting her grandparsons, Mr. and Mrs. James Franklin of Franklin Street.

Miss Bertha Hutson has been spending several days in Harvey's Lake with her uncle, Harry Shaver, and looking after her property, getting ready to rent her beautiful summer home. We envy the lucky tenants.

We can't help but mention with what pleasure we see our Chief of Police handling traffic and protecting our youngsters when passing to and from school. You always find the Chief smiling and courteous, but firm when occasion demands. We thank him for the privilege of seeing "courtesy" without "frowns".

Edward Maseberg of Bremen, and New York City, was visiting the Henson Family of Franklin Street recently. Mr. Maseberg is an old friend of Mrs. Henson's family and while on business in this part of the State dropped in. We are happy to know that Mrs. Henson had the pleasure of receiving this old friend, for life has been very sad for her for the last several months. Mr. Maseberg made his headquarters at Hotel Redington while visiting here. He is employed in New York City now. Mr. Maseberg was very much impressed by the beauty of our fair town. How clean and beautiful it looks. Also the efficient manner of its government and the friendly spirit of all with whom he came in contact. We hope The Post sees fit to convey thanks for us, as citizens.

Mrs. John Whipple and son, Richard, and daughter, Jane, came home Friday night from their summer home in Nicholson to spend the week-end.

Mrs. Rebecca Monk isn't feeling well these days. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery and happy days.

I know lots of news. Am in a position to hear all, see all. If this is acceptable you shall hear more soon.
