LADIES AID TAKES TO POETRY TO HONOR EMMA ODENKIRCHEN

The Ladies' Aid of the Alderson M. E. church entertained at the home of Mrs. H. R. Garinger last Friday in honor of Miss Emma Odenkirchen's birthday anniversary and also in recognition of her eight years of service as president of the Ladies' Aid of Alderson.

The following poem, written and read by one of the members of the organization, was dedicated to Miss Odenkirchen.

Not so many years ago
In the town of White Haven,
Was a dear little girl
About whom everyone was raving.
She later came to Alderson to
A well,
Where people learned to like her,
Oh, so well!
When she was introduced to me
She said, "With me you will agree,
My last name you'll not remember,
So just call me Emma."
She sort'a took me under her wing
And guided me through many things.

And she has proved a friend to be
Which really means a lot to me.
I thought it was so very grand
That I have found that Emma's hand
Is always ready to help out,
Her friends, when in perplexity or doubt.
Now we, the Ladies' Aid, have gathered
To wish her health, wealth and Many happy birthdays hereafter.

Those present were: Mesdames Mike Getzman, George Smith, Edgar Stemm, Nettie Richards, Florence Condon, Phil Thompson, Hattie Rauch, Lucy Aitemus, Fred Davis, John Parsons, Otis Allen, G. Leinthal, J. George, Harold Payne, Adda Garinger, Guy Scouter, Peter Kuchta, Harvey Kitchen, Grover Anderson, Harold Higgins, Ross Garinger, Raymond Garinger, H. D. Allen, H. R. Garinger, Jessie Rogers, Miss Lina Garinger, Miss Elsie Garinger, a guest, Mrs. Lord, David Parsons, Billy Garinger, Arnold Garinger, Mildred Kitchen and the guest of honor.
