Excepting and reserving in, out and from the aforesaid described premises the surface of the following piece, parcel and tract of land situate in Exeter Borough aforesaid, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at a point on the westerly side of Wyoming Ave. North 65 degrees East 25 feet from the corner of lot now or formerly of Harry Seeherman, formerly land of Miles Eggleston; thence along other lands of Teresa McCauley North 31 degrees 28 minutes West 175 feet to a point in line of an alley, said point being North 65 degrees East 25 feet from the corner of land of the aforesaid Harry Seeherman and the aforesaid alley; thence along said alley North 65 degrees East 75 feet to a corner; thence South 31 degrees 28 minutes East 175 feet to a corner on Wyoming Avenue; and thence South 35 degrees West 75 feet to the place of beginning. The premises not included in the aforesaid exception and reservation are improved with a two story frame store and apartment and other buildings.

Seized and taken into execution at the suit of Wyoming National Bank of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. vs. Teresa McCauley. WILLIAM R. THOMAS, Sheriff. Nell Chrisman, Atty.

Hollywood Humorist

JOE E. BROWN, Hollywood funnyman, believes that the movies and domesticity go hand in hand and is urging his friends to join the films and stay at home. He ran away to join a circus when he was nine and spent fifteen years wandering about America and China performing acrobatics. Now he likes making pictures because he doesn't have to travel and can stay with his wife and children. "There are plenty of screen stars like myself," he says, "who are getting a real thrill out of life for the first time because Hollywood gives them a chance to settle down." Known up and down the west coast for his famous "Mousie Story", Brown has been persuaded to tell it for the first time over the radio, as well as some of his own ideas about life in the film capital for the Radio Newsreel of Hollywood, a weekly broadcast presenting the inside story of the movies.*
