The couple has four children, T. J. Miers, Pittsburgh; Russell and James, Kunkle, and Marton, Trucksville. There are eleven grandchildren.

Mrs. Frank Traver Dies At Noxen Home

The funeral of Mrs. Frank Traver, aged 54, who dropped dead Tuesday afternoon at her home near Evans Falls, will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 from the late home.

Mrs. Traver was the sister of the late John E. Morgan of Tunkhannock, who was for years superintendent of Wyoming County schools. She was a woman of jovial and pleasant disposition and one who had scores of friends throughout Wyoming county and especially in Monroe and Noxen townships.

Until the time of her death she had apparently been in average health with little or no indication of the heart condition which was to cause her death so suddenly.

Besides her husband and two daughters, Mildred at home and Mrs. Earl Crispell of Noxen, she leaves two grandchildren, Earl and Elvin Crispell. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Roland Collins, Mrs. Oscar Williams and Miss Gertrude Morgan all of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Harry Wall of Beaumont and a brother, Harry Morgan of Norristown, Pa.
