Low Egg Prices Continue; Meat And Poultry Up

Post's Food Market Expert Reports On Week's Good Buys

PLENTY OF FISH

Late winter and early spring is definitely EGG time for it is the season of abundance and relatively low prices.

Unusually large catches of FISH are being reported, especially cod and haddock, but flounders, bluefish, Spanish mackerel, porgies, sea trout, sea bass and shad are also much more plentiful.

Increasing supplies and lower prices of ASPARAGUS, BEANS and PEAS are expected in the next few weeks.

Old POTATOES are reasonable and they are particularly good for baking, mashing and French frying.

GRAPEFRUIT continues to be the best value in the fruit market and can be called cheap. STRAWBERRIES which had become relatively scarce are again more plentiful as loads are now being shipped from Louisiana.

Increases in the wholesale price of LAMB, BEEF and PORK loins and advances in many POULTRY items have been noted.

Meats and Poultry Higher. Ordinarily good values may be had in broiling, frying and roasting chickens and in forequarter cuts of VEAL.

Butter prices are higher.

SIMPLE ELEGANCE MARKS FORMAL TEA

Rose Bampton, lovely young opera star, has tea in her New York apartment. The tea service is an heirloom. "A formal tea," says Miss Bampton, "should avoid party effects. Clever invitations, crepe paper decorations or favors are definitely out. Distinguished simplicity is the keynote. Miss Bampton invites friends to tea by telephone, serves tiny biscuits—hot and buttered—or canapes, using pate de foie gras, caviar, cheese spread, fillet of herring, chopped lobster and crab meat. Other favorites are finger sandwiches of chopped shrimp and water cress or dainty sandwiches of minced chicken and olives.

WHEN SPRING CLEANING GOES ON LET ONE-DISH MEALS "CARRY-ON"

Whether two-maids-and-a-man do your Spring cleaning, or whether you tie yourself into your one-piece house-dress in your one-room-and-kitchenette apartment—you're going to want some one-dish meals to carry you through!

We may boast we're very casual about this annual job, and laugh at the old days when grandfather had to smoke his pipe on the porch to keep the peace—but nevertheless there's always one week in house-freshening when menu-making doesn't get much of a hand. There's the shopping for gay new chintzes, "doing-over" the dinette, and scurrying to get new curtains—and then putting them up!

Let your choice be a casserole, or broiler or a new dish for the refrigerator, and let your recipes be the one-dish kind. Father will dine in peace, while you go about the affairs of the day with calm and enjoyment—the oven and the refrigerator take care of the menu! And whether it's a hot main dish or a cold dessert your fancy craves, and your family needs, these quick and easy recipes given here will keep monotony from the menu and wrinkles from your brow.

Baked Rice Milanaise
1 cup rice 2-3 cup grated cheese
1/4 teasp. paprika 1 minced green onion
2 tbsps. minced onion pepper
2 hard cooked eggs 4 tbsps. olive oil
2 cups tomato sauce

Wash rice and cook until tender in rapidly boiling salted water. Drain thoroughly and add one-half cup grated cheese and paprika. Meanwhile, cook onion and green pepper in oil, add these to rice and cheese mixture and either serve with tomato sauce, sliced eggs and remaining cheese, or turn into a casserole, sprinkle the remainder of grated cheese over the top. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 15 minutes. Garnish with eggs and serve with tomato sauce. Serves 6.

Baked Beans
2 cups pea beans 1/2 teasp. dry mustard
1/4 teasp. soda 1 small onion, peeled
1/2 teasp. salt 2 oz. piece salt pork
1/2 cup dark karo

Wash the beans and soak overnight in cold water. In the morning add soda and cook beans, in the same water in 2 qt. bean pot or covered casserole until skins begin to loosen. Place one-half the salt pork sliced, in bottom of bean pot; add one-half the beans and half the seasonings; add remaining beans and seasonings; bury the onion in the beans. Drizzle the karo over top, cover with salt pork. Add enough boiling water slowly until it seeps through the beans to the top. (Do not use too much). Cover and bake in slow oven for 4 hours or longer, until liquid is absorbed and beans are dark and mealy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gelsleichter entertained recently in honor of Mrs. Gelsleichter's birthday anniversary. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hummel of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. George Theoney and family of Clementon, N. J., Mrs. Otto Sweike and son, Wayne, and Mrs. Britton Reed of Williamsport, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gelsleichter and children, Harold, Charles, Thelma and Betty of Kunkle.

Miss Alberta Himmler of Lake Street entertained the members of Mrs. Louise Colwell's Sunday School Class at a party recently. The tables were beautifully decorated with yellow candles with a center-piece of roses and lilies-of-the-valley and a mirrored reflector. Refreshments were served to the following: Miss Louise Frantz, Miss Doris Labar, Miss June Knecht, Miss Betty Weide, Miss June Legrand, Miss Betty Niemeyer, Miss Charlotte Mack, Mrs. Louise Colwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hicks and son of Trucksville, accompanied by Mr. Calvin Hicks, spent the week end at Meyer-town where they visited relatives.

Richard Phillips of Norton Avenue, who has been ill at his home for the past week, is improving.
