

Post To Sponsor Fascinating New Cooking School

MOVIE TO BE SHOWN AT HIMMLER THEATRE ON THREE AFTERNOONS

FILM LINKS ENTERTAINMENT AND EDUCATION

There is always something new under the sun. Entertaining proof of that statement will be presented on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, May 26, 27, and 28, by The Dallas Post, which is bringing to Himmler Theatre a motion picture that pioneers in fresh, stimulating treatment of the oldest and most important subjects in the world—Homemaking.

Long ago the cooking school graduated from a curiosity to a popular necessity in many parts of the country. Now it has graduated again, leaping this time into Hollywood stardom.

For this is no routine lecture, no methodical demonstration which The Post will give to the women of the community for three days without charge, starting May 26.

The Post takes a genuine pride in being among the first to sponsor "The Bride Wakes Up," a full-length feature picture, directed and filmed in Hollywood, with a competent cast to interpret the appealing story.

Women young and old, and men, too, will appreciate the humanness of this romantic screen story, in which home problems have been approached from an entirely new angle. Entertainment, profitable instruction, humor and romance are woven deftly into a production which abounds in ingenious camera studies and remarkable close-ups. The camera has modernized the cooking school, magnifying its benefits, losing none of its hospitable, friendly charm.

Experienced housekeepers will thrill to the adventure of the winsome bride, whose husband begins to boil when he finds that she can't even boil water. But this bride is blessed with resourceful determination, even though the faithful servant in her girlhood home made every effort to spoil her.

What happens after the honeymoon is over? What happens when the bride becomes aware of the critical gaze of some of her husband's old sweethearts, who are not apt to forget heavy biscuits in a hurry?

To unravel the mystery in advance would be to rob this clever tale of its novel approach. However, the audience is due to share a series of neighborly food consultations, in which expert home specialists reveal the secrets which govern the perfection of flaky pie-crust, fluffy cakes, molded icebox marvels, appetizing salads and correctly roasted meats.

It will be a real cooking class, just as though the model kitchen were right on the stage, with the exception that the view actually will be more complete for each person in the audience. The guests of The Post in the back rows will share the same close-ups of the busy mixing bowl which are being seen in the front of the theatre.

Where Do Authors Go In The Summertime?

THE answer to that is easy! Why, they go fishing. And at least four of America's top-notch spinners of yarns plus one motion picture editor go as often as they can to Maligne Lake in Jasper National Park, Alberta, which they declare to be the greatest of all speckled trout waters. Nature provided the lake and Pennsylvania provided the trout. Herewith is a section of Maligne Lake and inset five noted gentlemen of letters who cast a fly as deftly as they fashion an idea. From left to right they are: Courtney Ryley Cooper; Corey Ford; Jack Eaton, editor of sporting motion pictures; Irvin S. Cobb and, in the center, Rex Beach, dean of sportsmen and weaver of tales of stirring outdoor adventures.

Voters Here Will Have To Register

Old System Scrapped As New Method Of Voting Is Instituted

The duties of local registrars who have been accustomed to keep track of voters' names were ended last week when Governor Earle signed the Permanent Registration Bill and a new system of voting in townships and boroughs was instituted.

By the old system, it was the duty of two registrars in Dallas, the three in Dallas Township and the three in Kingston Township, to return the names of eligible voters each year, to the county commissioners. Most of the registrars are honest, but those who were not, found it politically profitable to "pad" their lists with names which could be used to pile up needed votes at the next election. In some cases, dead men continued to "vote" long after their demise.

Now a voter will be compelled to subscribe by oath or affirmation to a registration affidavit and will receive a printed statement testifying to his permanent registration. When the voter goes to the polls at election time he will have to sign a certificate, and his signature will be compared with that he signed at the time of registration.

The Sixth Legislative District, of which Dallas is a part, now has 42,876 registered voters, 26,945 Republicans and 15,931 Democrats. The new system will give an interesting insight into the true strength of the two parties in this section.

SECTION TWO. That the Burgess of said Borough and the Secretary of said Town Council are hereby authorized and directed to execute and deliver said deed on behalf of said Borough of Courtdale subject to all the reservations and conditions therein contained.

SECTION THREE. The Borough of Courtdale hereby constitutes and appoints Clifford Edwards, Secretary of said Town Council to be its attorney for the purpose of acknowledging the aid deed.

ARTHUR JONES,
President of Town Council.
CLIFFORD EDWARDS
Secretary.

Approved this 19th day of March, 1937.
